

SWIMMERS' SECRET WEDDING LEAKS OUT

Bruno Majer and Miss Margaret Oberteuffer Were Married June 18

WIN PRIZES AT CHICAGO

When you're married and keeping it a dark secret and some one says, "Oh, what I know about you," you're likely to consider it's high time to tell the world.

Bruno Majer, twenty-two years old, and Margaret Oberteuffer, twenty-nine years old, 2821 North Twenty-eighth street, swimming stars for the Philadelphia Turf Club, who returned yesterday from an aquatic meet in Chicago, decided that when the man who presented the prizes made the remark, "To the sixty-odd sons and daughters of Neptune who went to the Chicago of swimming meet, they told their tale of love which had begun in a swimming love which ended at Elkton, Md., June 18, when the Rev. Moon, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, tied the knot to the bride."

Mrs. Majer won the 100-yard dash in the meet at Chicago, was first in the diving contest and hubby second in a similar event.

It all began about a year ago when Majer noticed a maiden at Turner's whose swimming form was not at all should be. He assumed the role of instructor. A trip to Gettysburg, Pa., accompanied by the customary wedding bells and showers of rice, followed. The trip to Chicago served as sort of a honeymoon.

"We had several narrow escapes holding our secret," said Majer last night. "For when the prizes were given out in Chicago the man who said, 'Oh, what I know about you,' said, 'When I heard this I figured it was time to take off the veil, and let the world know that we were swimming in double harness after this.'"

GIRL WINS FREE BICYCLE AND THEN RIDES IT HOME

Bernice Keyser Says Public Ledger Contest Was "Easy"

Bernice Keyser, with forty subscriptions to her credit in six days, is another winner of a "Black Beauty" bicycle, which the LEDGER is giving away to boys and girls who obtain thirty-five subscriptions to the Evening, Morning or Sunday PUBLIC LEDGER.

"It wasn't hard work at all," Bernice explained. "I was surprised how easily it could be done; and, besides, what little time it did take me, I was thoroughly repaid for it, because I had a wonderful ride through Fairmount Park and all the way to my home at 2608 Oxford street."

Bernice is fourteen years old and is in the first year at William Penn High School.

Letters praising the Black Beauty bicycle have been received from two other winners—Marie Williams, of 319 North Sixty-second street, and Edward Huesken, of 1243 East Venango street. Edward obtained his thirty-five subscriptions in two days.

Eight Stowaways Are Deported

Eight stowaways who had been in the Gloucester detention house of the Bureau of Immigration for periods ranging from three to seven months were taken to New York yesterday and deported to Italian and Spanish ports. One of them, Jesus Fernandez, had been here since December 11, while another, Martellino Lara, came here ten days later.

Seen in the Chestnut St. Shops

Barg's, Cleaners and Dyers, 1113 Chestnut Street, are noted both for their efficient service and excellent workmanship. The light summer clothes which you send to be cleaned while you are vacationing will receive their prompt attention.

Delorah Egan

IN THE summer a picnic supper out-of-doors is lots of fun, but it is often disastrous to one's sports clothes. Grass stains and other spots are almost inevitable. A silk skirt or a pair of white flannel trousers are sure to become soiled, but if you will send them to Barg's, Cleaners and Dyers, 1113 Chestnut Street, they will clean them to look just as spick and span as the first time you wore them. Even if you are away from town for the summer I should advise that you send any article to be cleaned to a reliable firm like Barg's and you will be surprised how quickly they will be returned to you by Parcel Post without extra charge.

THE jewel most coveted by women—the lovely Polished Girdle Diamond—is wonderfully beautiful and marvelously brilliant. This is due partly to the manner in which it is cut and partly to the superior quality of the stone, for only the most expensive diamonds can be used. This diamond, which is obtainable only at the house of Bailey, Banks & Biddle Co., is set in many unique and artistic designs: Charming necklaces, bracelets, rings, bar pins, etc. Some times it is combined with other precious stones such as emeralds, sapphires or rubies whose beauty it enhances. For the Engagement Ring, this stone is incomparable and the girl who receives one will know that she possesses the finest diamond which may be procured anywhere.
