

A HEALTHY SWING. Another member of the Drexel Biddle Junior Marines, who is taking honors as a batsman. Ledger Photo Service

MAKING SNOWBALLS. Not in Iceland. These boys are at work forming "soakers" on Delaware avenue near Market street. It was all shoveled from a refrigerator car, which was well iced in Canada. Ledger Photo Service

PROPOSED WORLD FLAG. Dr. J. W. Vankirk, of Youngstown, Ohio, carried this emblem during a "one-man parade" in Washington. It was designed by his wife. Harris & Ewing

NOT A HAZING PARTY. Members of the Drexel Biddle Junior Marines, camped at Lansdowne, having a little sport with "Billie" Martin, the mascot of the camp. Young Martin liked the experience a lot. Ledger Photo Service

YANKEE GOBS. Photographed as they rooted for their team in a baseball game with American soldiers on duty in England, at the Stamford Bridge grounds, London. The event was arranged by the American Legion. Central News Photo

MASS-MEETING. Fifteen thousand people were at Shibe Park yesterday afternoon to hear addresses made by Miss Mary MacSwiney, a champion of the Irish Republic movement and sister of the Lord Mayor of Cork, who died during a hunger strike. She made three different addresses. Her photograph is shown at the right. Ledger Photo Service

UNVEIL STATUE OF WASHINGTON. Lord Curzon is shown as he makes the speech of acceptance in behalf of the British Government at the memorial in Trafalgar Square, London. Central News Photo

PRETTY PIE EATERS. Four of contestants in pie-eating frolic, part of field-day program of the P. O. S. of A., held at Willow Grove. They are Miss Anna Beck, Miss Elizabeth Harvey, winner; Miss Florence Harvey, Miss Ada Jones. L. P. S.

E. M. HACKNEY talks on cause of increased crime in Editorial Page interview. L. P. S.

IN LEIPZIG. General Stenger, of Germany, with his wife at the trial of Germans charged with war atrocities. Wide World Photo

KEEPING COOL. Michael Kauffmann is a regular brother. For when Pat complained of the heat Michael soon found a bucket of water. L. P. S.

HELPED MRS. STILLMAN. Evidence in the divorce proceedings at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., by H. Phelps Clawson (left) and Raymond Carlson, chauffeur for Mrs. Florence Leeds, favors ex-banker's wife. International

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS ROSE McLAUGHLIN, 2961 Memphis street, operating a steam mangle at the Erstling Bros. Knitting Mills, Ontario and D streets, Kensington. She presses thousands of pieces daily. Ledger Photo Service

AT SARANAC LAKE. Miss Jane Nolan, of 4307 Walnut st., enjoys horseback riding. Ledger Photo Service

ENTERTAINS SOCCER CROWD. William G. Martin shot, seen by the crowd for knots. L. P. S.

SIMON LEVY, 616 Luzay street, has been in the service fifteen years. Route—Arch from Twelfth to Broad street. Ledger Photo Service

FATAL PLANE ACCIDENT. Five persons were killed and fifteen injured when a bombing plane crashed down on fourteen motorcars at Langin Flying Field in West Virginia. International