MAX MARSTON WITHDRAWS; 17 PHILADELPHIA ENTRIES

By SANDY MeNTBLICK Columbia Country Club, Chevy Chase, Md., July 19 .- No one is going to "walk away" with the cup emb'ematic United States. One reason is that it will be guarded by two huge dignitaries of the Marine Corps. Another is that it looks as though some tall scoring will have to be done to finish anywhere near the top. Save for about six greens that have suddenly "sour" on the hard-working committee of greens experts down here, the Columbia links were pronounced by most of the brilliant field here at the tart this morning as being a splendid set and as a course in prime condition. Birds, however, are not without the realm of possibility, and it looks as though these winged creatures of the links will be flitting in and out of the play all the way through. The pessimists are sure the qualifying score will not be worse than 75, while the majority think that a 77 or 78 will get in.

But that's not the half of it. He was playing against Bill Leach, a Philadelphia boy, who ran down an eagle 3 on the long twelfth, only to have Sylvester sink a 2, and win the hole from him. Make an eagle and lose a hole—phew! But that's the kind of golf they are playing. Sylvester holed a long cleek shot. FOREIGN INVADERS STIR U. S. WOMEN

Prepare to Meet Miss Leitch on Links and Mile. Lenglen on Courts

STARS OF FIRST MAGNITUDE

Triumphant over Europe in Tiger Distance Runner Begins Work boxing, tennis and golf, America looks no longer for worlds to conquer in masculine athletic competition—the nation waits to see whether its women go! and tennis stars will finish off with victories the most successful season in international sports this country ever

To the fair sex falls the task of

To the fair sex falls the task of meeting on home soil the woman tennisqueen of the world. Suzanne Lenglen. of France, and the titular leader of feminine golfers, Miss Cecil Leitch, of Great Britain. Both of these European experts already have repulsed a foreign invasion of women ranging highest in American tennis and golf competition.

Mile, Lenglen triumphed only a few weeks ago over Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, long a champion in the United Wallory, long a champion in the United States of the Competition.

Saturday, July 31, also is an Mallory, long a champion in the United States. The previous year she had beaten a conqueror of Mrs. Mallory. And in between these important victories she sandwiched numerous quests that put her at the head of the field of women tennis players. Miss Leitch, only a few weeks ago defeated the woman golf champion sister, Edith, a high ranking British golfer, and Doris E. Chambers, They expect to go right down to Miss Stir-ling's home town and show the folks how the conquerer of the American champion looks on the links. The keenest feminine stars of the country are hard at work in prepara-tion for Mile. Lenglen, who comes to America heralded by such adjectives as incomparable, marvelous and dazzling, and tennis fans are hoarding their shekels to see Suzanne Lenglen, just as fight fans stored them up to get a look at that other capityating French athlete, Georges Carpentier, when he met Jack Dempsey on July 2

Like Georges, Mile, Lenglen is a bit different from our own athletes. George was described by an English writer a was described by an English writer as a Greek god with a punch. Mile. Lenglen seems to be a Greek dancer with a tennis racquet. No camera man who snaps her with her feet less than twenty-four inches off the ground, racquet crashing forward accurately, dares present the picture to an editor. It would be too dull, too unlike the flashy French woman. She is no zephyr, but tornado on tip-toe.

Out on the Pacific Coast, Mrs. May Sutton Bundy, woman champion in years gone by, has emerged from re-Mallory and Miss Eleanor Goss, New York, are other mainstays American hopes to defeat the French genius of the court, who will compete in the attional women's champion
