METZ BOYS OF 1870 GET PRIZES AT LAST

Only Ten Left of Class That Put Aside Books for Guns in Franco-Prussian War

DIPLOMAS ARE 51 YEARS OLD

Special Cable Dispatch Congright, 1921 Mets, July 21.—It is the custom in "lycees"-institutions corre ponding to the upper grades of American high schools and the lower classes colleges to award scholarship prizes at the close of the school year with much p and ceremony, and the prizes are highly coveted by the pushs. In 1870 it was only a few days before prize day at the Metz Lycee when the Franco-russian War broke out. The pupils left in a body and joined the French colors without awaiting the prize

During the long German overlordship in Aleace-Lorraine no prizes were permitted in the lycee, the name of which the Germans changed to the "Koenig-lich-Kaiserlich Lyceum." The reason ascribed by the French for the prize appression was that the Germans were

Tuesday, when prize day was re-sumed here for the first time since 1869, a moving sight greeted the spectators in the packed ball. Standing in line beside the youths of the class of 1921 were ten old men with white hair and beards, who were leaning on canes and all wearing service medals of the war of 1870. They were all that was left of the class of 1870, and they had been summoned from all parts of France to receive their belated prizes and diplo-

As the rector handed each the very prize he was to have received on that day fifty-one years ago—all of which had been unearthed in an ancient rubpile in the cellar-and then read the list of those who never would retumult of cheers and cries of "Vive la Several veterans were so over-whelmed with emotion they had to be helped from the platform.

AID ASKED FOR RUSSIANS

Famine and Disease Sweeping Large Area, Appeal Says

Paris, July 21.—(By A. P.)—An appeal addressed to all nations in the world asking that they organize to provide immediate aid for millions of Russians now suffering from famine the regon of the Volga River and terri tory to the southwest was issued last night by the Legislative Committee of the Russian constituent assembly.

The appeal says that within this territory, which is greater than that of France and Germany combined, millions of Russians are facing starvation, while their Government is totally unable to render assistance of any kind. Latest reports from this region reaching the committee say that episemic diseases are rapidly getting bemmediately provided another serious European menace is imminent.

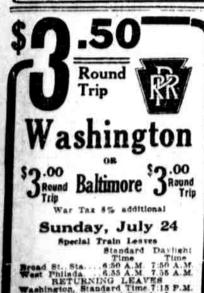

Cut by Fall Through Skylight John H. Galup, 2220 Madison square, was cut on the wrist and forearm when he fell through a skylight of Horticul-tural Hall, Fairmount Park, yesterday, while painting. He was taken to the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hos-

Cuticura Insures Thick Glossy Hair

Shampos with Cuticura Soap pre-ceded by light applications of Cutimuch to cleanse the scaip of dan-druff and promote the healthy condition necessary to producing luxuriant hair.

Held for Theft

CLARENCE RICE

Mrs. Evans, twenty-two years old mother of a sixteen-monthsold baby, and Clarence Rice have been accused of taking household goods valued at $400 from 6130 Walton avenue. The charges were made by the woman's father and ber busband

TWO WIDOWS LEFT BY ARTHUR IRWIN

Death of Baseball Veteran Reveals Families Both in New York and Boston

NEITHER KNEW OF OTHER

story of double life extending over a in my arms."

The New York widow, however, felt

The former "Yankee" scout had a wife and married son in New York, to whom he was a devoted husband and father, and a wife, a son, two daughters and nine grandchildren in Boston, to whom he was equally devoted. Not even his closest friends knew until yeaterday of his dual existence.

Ten days ago his physician told him the disease from which he was suffering the disease from which he was suffering was incurable and that he had only a few days to live. He told his New York wife he had to go to Boston to "say good-by to his friends." and he was last seen alive when he retired to his staternom on the steamship Calvin Austin, of the Metropolitan Line, last Friday night.

Wrs. Irwin and her son. F. Harald

Friday night.

Mrs. Irwin and her son. F. Harold Irwin. first heard of the Boston family from a reporter. They were in the widow's apartment at 565 West 192d

only when he was 'scouting' for i players. The Boston widow was seen at daughter's cottage near Boston.

"I never suspected my husband even when years ago members of my family tried to tell me there was something wrong in his life—that there probably was another woman. Now I cannot longer refuse to doubt it. I do not blame my husband half so much as I blame the other woman."

She is Irwin's first wife. They were married in 1833 and their son. Arthur Herbert Irwin, is thirty-seven years old. Alice and Edna Irwin, both of whom are married and have children, complete the Roston family.

Both Widows Content

Both Widows Content

"I feel confident and happy in the New York, July 21.—The suicide of belief that although there was this Arthur Irwin, veteran baseball player and manager, has revealed an amazing when he died—that he wanted to die > equally confident her husband had in-tended to return to New York to die after attending to his Boston business. His last words at the steamship pier, Harold Irwin said, were instructions to tell his mother to come to New York from Hartford, Conn., and meet him Sunday in the New York apartment.

>
> "He gave me his watch," the son said. "Father knew he could only live for a day or two, so before he left he divided everything he owned between my mother and me and he only took $35 with him on the boat." Harold Irwin said, were instructions to

Suffered Most at Night

"He always suffered most at night." Mrs. Irwin said. "I am sure he must Mrs. Irwin said. "I am sure he must have had an attack and jumped off the have had an attack and jumped off the ship while out of his head with pain." A dispatch from Boston said that the theory held by his friends was that Irwin feared exposure of his double life and killed himself to avoid unsured to the same of the believe, however, he was carrying a large sum of ever, he was carrying a large sum of ever held by his friends was that Irwin feared exposure of his double life and killed himself to avoid unsum of the ever held by his friends was that Irwin feared exposure of his double life and killed himself to avoid unsum of the ever held by his friends was that Irwin feared exposure of his double life and killed himself to avoid unsum of the ever held by his friends was that Irwin feared exposure of his double life and killed himself to avoid unsum of the ever held by his friends was that Irwin feared exposure of his double life and killed himself to avoid unsum of the ever held by his friends was that Irwin feared exposure of his double life and killed himself to avoid unsum of the ever held by his friends was that Irwin feared exposure of his double life and killed himself to avoid unsum of the ever held by his friends was that Irwin feared exposure of his double life and killed himself to avoid unsum of the ever held by his friends was that Irwin feared exposure of his double life and killed himself to avoid unsum of the ever series we were married twentyseven years ago in Philadelphia Arthur has been a model husband. He has seidom been away from home for more than a day or two at a time, and then his son in New York.

when he was 'scouting' for ball MAN IS THE REAL PEACOCK, PHILA. PHOTOGRAPHER SAYS

Sterner Sex Preens Itself More, but Talks About Clothes Less; Hence Escapes Vanity Charge

instripe vest there beats a heart that does a sartorial flip-flop when he goes to have his picture taken.

Behind his dignified tortoise rim glasses dwells an cagle eye that can spot a mirror, even the mirror in chewing gum stands in the subway, a hundred feet away.

Who says so?
The photographer!
Charles Diesinger, in charge of a studio on Chestnut street near Sixteenth, asserts he has found more of the peacock in members of his own sex than in their much-maligned sisters. than in their much-maligned sisters.
"I'm afraid I'll have to admit."
Mr. Diesinger said, "that men, on the whole, are more vain than women.

More Fussy Than Women "Some of them," he continued. "are Some of them, he continued, "are even more anxious than women as to how they shall be posed. The question or profile or full-face is important and then there is the chap who has his dwn characteristic attitude, of which he particularly wants a pose. When the proofs are submitted he is very careful in his selection and wants to have outstanding defects touched out." A man is just as easy to set to the "A man is just as eager to get to the dressing-room before he faces the camera as a woman is. He adjusts his tie, fixes his hair and sees that his

Reed Money? We Buy Old Gold. PENN SMELTING CO. 906 FILBERT ST.

A man in his stern and uncompromising blue serge suit is vainer than a woman decked out in all the fripperies and rouge in captivity.

Underneath his neat, but not gaudy coat has just the right set. A moustach, of course, gives added responsibility.

In New York recently, Mr. Diesinger pointed out, the anxiety of men as to their appearance nearly became a serious issue with the interurban company.

Men were actually blocking the traffic in the subway stations by gazing in the mirrors in the chewing gum slot machines. Eight out of every ten who machines. Eight out of every ten who entered the station, the traction company calculated, took a look in the glass and the majority of the offenders were men. Some times the male of the species would let trains go by in order to give a tie just the right set or chasten a wayward pompadore.

The company considered taking the mirrors or the machines out of the staion, so serious was the situation.

Talk About Clothes Less "Of course," Mr. Diesinger pointed out, "it must be remembered in digest-ing these figures that more men than women use the subways, but even at the figures were indicative." The reason men have not the repu-tation for being vain, it was explained, is that men do not talk about the de-tails of clothes as much as women dodetails to consider.

"Just keep a watch on the man, how-ever." Mr. Diesinger observed, "see if he doesn't have a different tie on Tues-day than he had on Monday. Keep a watch on his suit, too. Some men

SAMPLE TRUNKS & CASES MADE TO ORDER

Trunks, Bags & Suit Cases Repaired Victor Valise Co., 48 N. 7th St.

lce cream

never wear the same one two days in vain." concluded the speaker, a woman can twist him are "The best proof of all that a man is little finger. He likes to be fi in Philadelphia that is sold in a sanitary, sealed carton filled

direct from the freezer, untouched by hand. Abbotts is made pure and kept pure.

Try it. Taste the difference.

The Only

Ice Cream

The name of Bailey, Banks and Biddle Company has been famous for many generations on account of the superior quality of their Jewelry, Silverware and Stationery. A gift, therefore, which is stamped with this name will be more appreciated and valued.

Deborah Sogan

AN APPROPRIATE gift or prize A DELIGHTFUL surprise for guests whom you are entertain-A is often impossible to purchase at a summer resort. A gift to be sent to some one at home, a prize for the golf or tennis tournament, for the yacht race or the bridge party: The Gift Book which is published by the house of Bailey, Bary and Biddle Company is full of useful suggestions and replete with illustrations. Upon request they will send one to you so that you will be able to make your selection without difficulty, just as easily and satisfactorily as though you visited the store yourself. Many of the articles are quite inexpensive and, as with everything sold by this firm, you will know that they are of the best quality.

A guests whom you are entertaining at your summer home would be some delicious fruit from the store of Henry R. Hallowell & Son, Broad Street below Chestnut. Luscious Peaches and Plums from Georgia, wonderful Cantaloupes, which are now being sent from California, Alligator Pears from Oregon and hothouse Grapes from Belgium—all of which are now at the height of their season. They are the finest fruits obtainable the world over and you may have then sent to you at any place where you may be vacationing, for Hallowell & Son, Broad Street below Chestnut. Luscious Peaches and Plums from Georgia, wonderful Cantaloupes, which are now being sent from California, Alligator Pears from Colifornia, Alligator Pears from Oregon and hothouse Grapes from Selgium—all of which are now at the height of their season. They are the finest fruits obtainable the world over and you may have then sent to you at any place where you may be vacationing, for Hallowell & Son, Broad Street below Chestnut. Luscious From California, Alligator Pears from Oregon and hothouse Grapes from Belgium—all of which are now at the first of the proposition of the propos

WHEN motoring, picnicking or boating you will like to take with you a Stanley Non-Breakable Bottle such as I saw at the store of I. Franklin Miller, 1612 Chestnut Street. They quart and 2 quarts, and are priced at $7.50, $10 and $15. Is there any thing more refreshing on a hot day than a cool drink? And there is no better way to take it with you than in one of these bottles. I also say some Thermalware Jars which are large at the mouth to permit filling them with food in large pieces. Then, too, there were butter jars, carses, etc., all designed to keep things delightfully cool without the aid of in These are only a few of the articles you will find at Miller's to main your suppose more an involve. your summer more enjoyable.

Browning, King & Co. YOUNG MEN'S SUITS Sizes 33 to 36 (17 to 20 years) $21.50 The leftovers of our Spring lines at $30 to $45 Fancy and Blue Serge 000 1524-1526 CHESTNUT STREET

Offering Savings Never Before Equaled

Conce-A-Ye Quality High!

THIS is the opportunity for MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN to make an effective saving on the newest styles, backed by DALSIMER known reputation for quality. DALSIMER'S have always been known as a popular-priced house for HIGH - GRADE FOOTWEAR, and in this ONCE-A-YEAR SALE we substantially lower our already low prices.

DURING this period, when sales abound, always keep in mind that the Merchant of whom you buy is as important as the Merchandise you get. Every pair of shoes in this sale was made expressly for DAL-SIMER—assuring you of correct style plus quality and serviceability.

Women's

that were priced up to $6.90

that were priced up to $8.90

that were priced up to $10.00

Men's 4.90 that were priced up to $7.50

that were priced up to $10.00

Growing Girls' $5.90 that were priced up to $8.50

Low.

Boys'

SILK HOSIERY For Women $1.25

Children's Priced According to Size

$1.90 - $2.90 - $3.90

That Were Priced Up to $6.00

1204-06-08 Market Street

THE BIG SHOE STORE

Open Saturdays During July

Pennsylvania System

ALL SALES MUST BE FINAL

BONWIT TELLER & CO.

The Specially Shop of Originations CHESTNUT AT 13TH STREET

Extraordinary Announcement

Tomorrow-Friday-July 23, 1921, we will hold our Annual July Pre-Inventory Sale.

Regardless of former pricings, the Summer merchandise in all departments of this store and our Lingerie Shop at Thirteenth and Sansom Streets will be marked for quick and absolute clearance.

This is an opportunity without parallel.

High-grade BONWIT TELLER & CO. merchandise will be procurable at lower prices than those at which inferior products are offered.

Everything included in this clearance is marked at cost and below.

We must make room for incoming Fall merchandise.

This clearance provides a remarkable opportunity to replenish Summer wardrobes and to purchase vacation attire at very small prices. Apparel for all occasions is included.

Quantities are limited in many cases.

Many are one-of-a-kind assortments.

Size and color ranges are not always complete, but there are sizes for every one in the different assortments.

UNDERWEAR FURS DRESSES MISSES' WEAR SKIRTS SUITS NEGLIGEES HOSIERY COATS PERFUMES SWEATERS BLOUSES MILLINERY WRAPS

NECKWEAR NOVELTIES