

AS THEY LOOK FROM ABOVE. The camera caught this group of men and boys as they watched the baseball scores and read other news bulletins on the boards in the Chestnut street windows of the PUBLIC LEDGER Building at Sixth and Chestnut streets. Ledger Photo Service

WHAT'S HE DOING? A sergeant connected with the United States forces at Coblenz, Germany, is working hard in a pie-eating contest as he takes part in the Fourth of July celebration along the Rhine. Ledger Photo Service

ANOTHER COXEY'S ARMY—MAYBE. General Jacob S. Coxe interviewing unemployed men in front of the New York State Employment Bureau. He is planning another historic march on Washington similar to the famous pilgrimage of March, 1894. Kadel & Herbert

IN BRITISH MOVIES. Lady Diana Manners Cooper, noted British beauty (left), will soon be seen on screen. She is shown with Miss Violet V. Blackton, American movie actress. U. P. S.

DR. JOHN H. EGAN talks on intoxicated automobilists in an Editorial Page interview.

KITE-FLYING TIME. George Lewis was having a tough time finding enough wind as he attempted to fly his kite. Ledger Photo Service

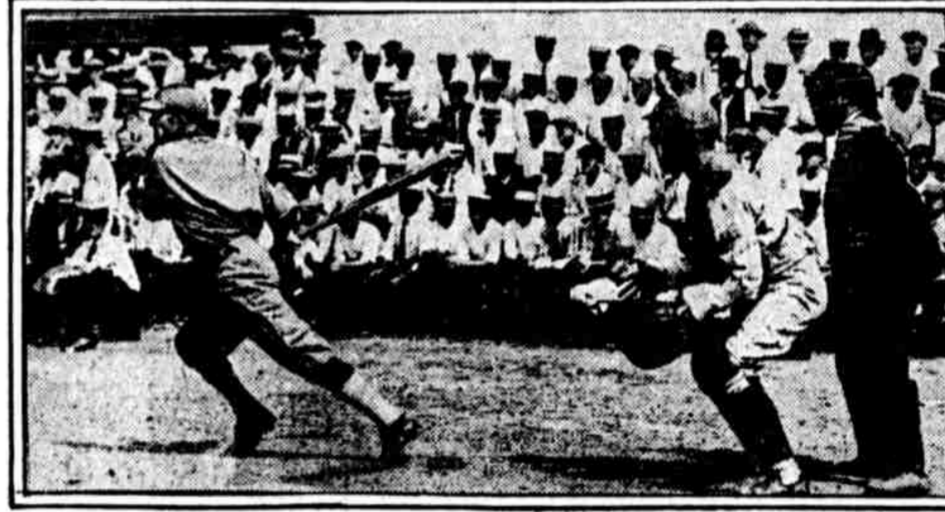

JERSEY BATHERS. Men and women of Audubon find Haddon Lake a wonderful place to swim and cool off during the days of terrific heat. Two of the girls hold a tire and command one of the men to jump through it. He's doing as he was ordered. Mrs. Margaret Haines believes in comfort. She is seen carrying a comfortable rocker to the lake side. Ledger Photo Service

PART OF THE VESPER FLEET. The best that the Vesper Boat Club can produce will take part in a Canadian regatta next week and the National Regatta in Buffalo on August 5. Jack Costello and Kenneth Myers at the left. The senior quad, with Jack Kelly, Samuel Moorehead, Jim Regan and Paul Costello (left to right). Ledger Photo Service

VACATION DAYS. These fair bathers were found on the Atlantic City beach as they came out for a sunbath. They are (left to right) Elizabeth Palmer, Blanche Parks, Pearl Gernond, Madaline Lombard and Avonne Taylor. U. P. S.

A TWO-BAGGER. Tom Carrigan, of the Nativity baseball team, meets an outshoot in a contest with the Ivins ball tossers. The umpire is none other than Tommy O'Toole, the ex-featherweight boxer. Ledger Photo Service

VOSHELL WINS. In interstate tennis match held in Rhode Island, Shimidzu, Japanese star, was defeated by the Brooklyn lefthander. C. N. P.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

P. MALVIN HOMAN, 1420 Mt. Vernon street, building thread-milling and grinding attachment for a lathe in factory of Automatic Machinery and Equipment Co., 224 S. 24th street. Ledger Photo Service

NOLAN, the first sacker of the Fleisher ball team, who has been hitting them hard. Ledger Photo Service

CHAS. MURPHY, Tammany Hall leader, on golf course, Southampton, L. I. U. & U.

MAIL

JAMES MILES, 1930 South Sixteenth street. Route: Sixth to Seventh, Arch to Market street. He has served twelve years. Ledger Photo Service

C. GEYER, one of the most dependable pitchers on the Budd ball team. L. P. S.

BUILDING COLLAPSES. The wreckage of an eighty-year-old saloon building at Washington and Johnson streets, Brooklyn, that has come to grief.