WITNESSES ARE FORGETFUL CICOTTE PRIME MOVER

Chicago, July 27 .- Billy Maharg, of $100,000 sell-out of the eight Chicago White Sox players.

Maharg was the final witness for the State in the baseball trial. He was said, by Burns, to have been present at several meetings of the gamblers and players, where plans for the alleged game throwing were made. Maharg began his testimony by tell-ing of the meeting he witnessed between

Burns and Eddie Cicotte at the Ansonia Hotel in New York, in September, Gandil said the players would throw the games in any order desired. "After Cicotte and Gandil left, Burns repeated the conversation to me as I had not heard all of it. He said Cicotte and Gandil had agreed to see that the series was thrown for $100,000. He asked me if I could get some one to put up the $100,000. When I got back to Philadelphia

I went to see a man named Rossie and then I went to New York with Burns and saw Arnold Rothstein.
"Burns told Rothstein the Sax had agreed to throw the series for $100,000 and asked Rothstein to put it up, but Rothstein refused:

"I went back to Philadeiphia. Then got a telegram from Burns to meet int on a train for Cincinnati. I went to Cincinnati, getting there the morn ing of the first game. I met Burns at the Sinton Hotel that evening. He told me Abe Attell got Rothstein to put up given the players after each game. That night Attell told me the same thing, explaining that Rothstein had put up the money because Attell saved his life once. Later Attell showed me

THE "TRACKLESS TROLLEY"

A car similar to this was tried on Fortieth street at 1 o'clock this morning. Many believe it to be the fore runner of a "trackless trolley" system which Thomas E. London, July 27.—(By A. P.)—
The possibility that four Legislatures may be established in Ireland—one each in the provinces of Ulster, Munster, Connaught and Leinster—under a central national Parliament, is hinted at this morning by Sketch, which says:

"It need not be assumed, as is done in some quarters, that under unification there would be only two governing authorities under a Federal Irish Parliament.
