MR, and MRS. HARRY F. CURSeveral days with her grandmother, Mrs.
Alexander Brinton Coxe.

Her marriage to Reginald Jacobs will engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to Roy Taylor Bookmyer, a son of the Edwin Bookmyers who also live in Overbrook.

Margaret came out at a beautiful tes which her father and mether gave for her last fall. She is pretty and viracious. She has a quantity of fair curly hair and is rather small and has a lovely figure. She and Helen Sewell have been great puls through their bud season. I have seen them together at many a matinee and movie. The at many a matince and movie. The Curtises are down at Cape May for the have taken a cottage there, in fact, and Margaret and Harry have had a lot of the girls and men staying with them. Roy Bookmyer is very much liked. I suppose the wedding will be an event her small voice at the small voice at the small voice at the small voice at the small voice.

TSABEL PAGE and her mother, Mrs. William Byrd Page, and her brother, of Chestnut Hill, who have been out in California for more than a year, are new living in Hollywood. Isabel has new living in Hellywood. Isabel has not achieved stardom yet, but she's been doing some good work just the same, and has had several minor parts in a picture with Ethel Clayton. Naturally she is ambifious and wants to be a star soon, so she does not think much of her work so far herself, but I have of her work so far herself, but I have seen have seen have seen her. of her work so far herself, but I have been told by those who have seen her in the films that she is really doing remarkably well, and a little bird told me also that it is only a matter of a short time now before she will appear short time now before she will appear also of Overbrook.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Curtis, of Overbrook, announce the engagement of their daughter. Miss Margaret Curtis, and Mr. Roy Taylor Bookmyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Bookmyer, also of Overbrook.

Isabel has lots of pep and perserverence, you know, and so she is bound to succeed. She is pretty and gentle locking, and has that exquisitely graceful manner which will be a great help to her in her work. Then, too, she is graceful and has all the savoir
faire which many an actress must learn,
if it is not "bred in the bone" as in Isabel's case, I understand that she and
