READY FOR THE RACE. A beautiful vista of the yachts assembled in Glen Cove Harbor awaiting the starter's gun. Commodore J. P. Morgan was in command of the fleet, taking part in the first cruise of the New York Yacht Club since 1916. The finishing point was at Newport, R. I. _International_

KEEPING THE HORSES COOL. Mounted Patrolman Wesley H. Fischer watering his horse at Twelfth and Girard streets. On North Broad street this horse was getting a good cool sponging. Both photographs were taken at watering stations conducted by the S. P. C. A. _Ledger Photo Service_
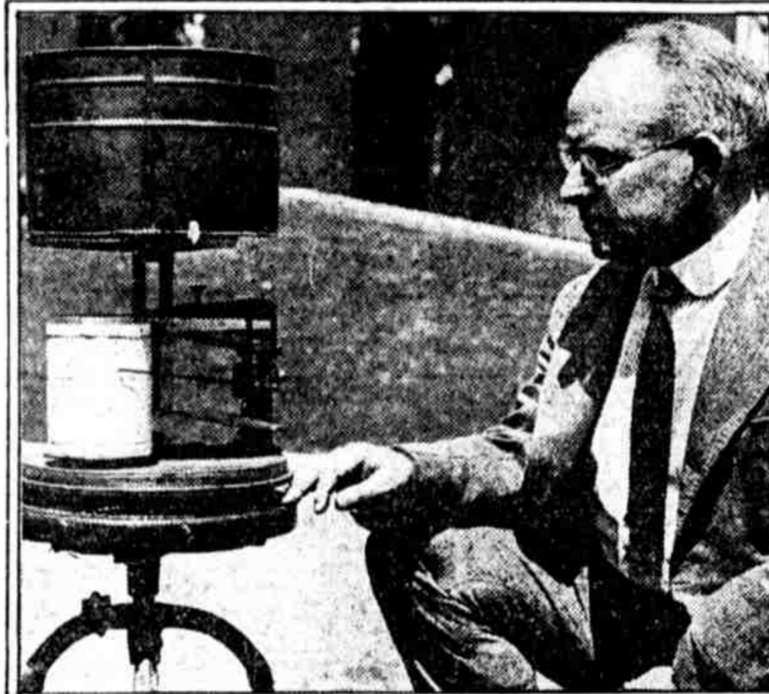

AIRPLANE BEATS AUTOMOBILE. This spectacular race took place at Los Angeles. The craft of the air went 118 miles an hour to gain the victory _Underwood & Underwood_

DR. ALEXANDER B. ARTHUR talks on nutrition problem on Editorial Page _I. P. S._

FEEDING HER PORKER. Miss Margie Van Camp took her pet pig in the waters of the Atlantic at Coney Island. When feeding time came, the milk bottle was soon in evidence. They are riding on a safety "horse shoe" _I. N._

S. P. FERGUSON, meteorologist of the United States Weather Bureau, with a gauge he has designed to measure snow and hail, as well as rain. It automatically transcribes report on chart _H. & E._

COUNCILMAN VON TAGEN at his desk during the session of Council yesterday _L. P. S._

ON VACATION. Ambassador Jusserand and Mrs. Jusserand sailing on the S. S. Paris to spend several weeks in France, their native land. They will visit England before returning to Washington _International_
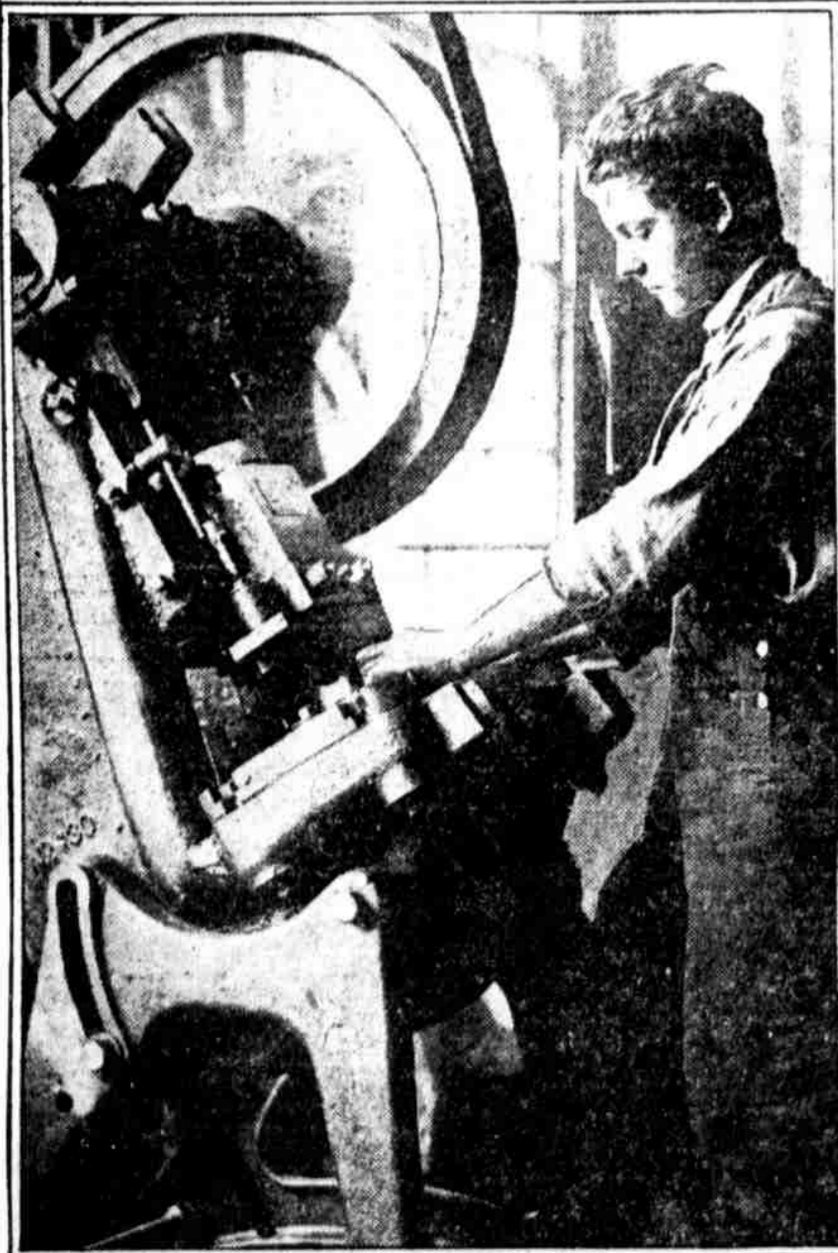

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

GENERAL BUDENY. This horse ridden in recent review of Russian troops, was captured from Gen. Wrangel when Gen. Budeny's forces routed anti-Bolsheviks _Underwood & Underwood_

AUTO MEN PLAY GOLF. On the links of the North Hills Country Club yesterday four cities were represented. In this foursome are L. S. Jullien, Washington; A. C. Harrington, New York; Archie Hughes, Philadelphia, and A. R. Bell, Brooklyn. The golfer at the right is Frederick J. Peterson, of Philadelphia _Ledger Photo Service_

MRS. JAMES T. TERRY, New York society woman, at Southampton, L. I. _U & U_
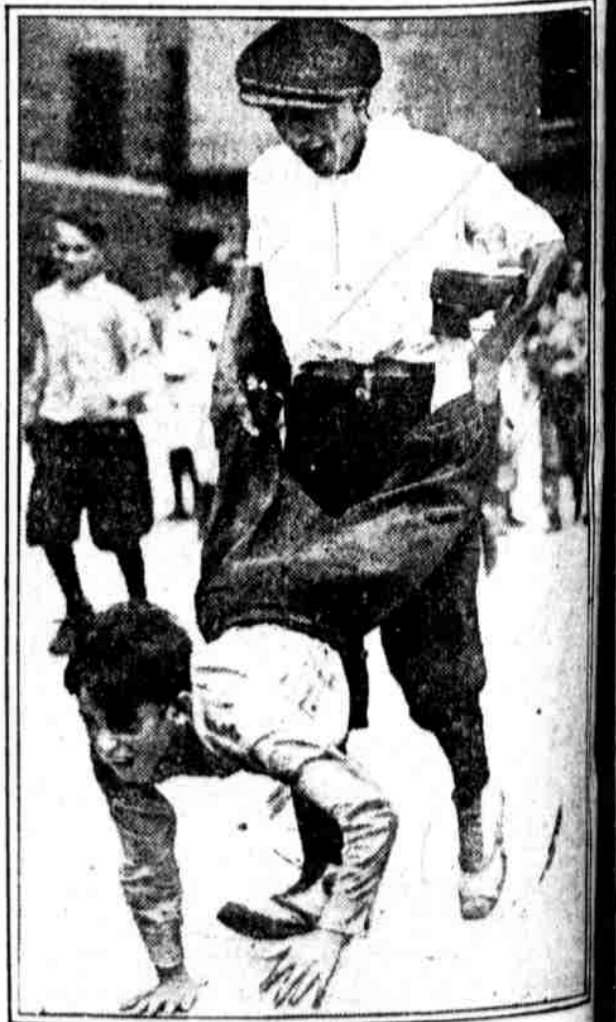

MAIL!

JAMES HIEDIN, 7533 Brewster avenue, operating machine that punches holes in ground clamps, used for telephone purposes, at mill of Fairmount Electric Manufacturing Co., Fifty-ninth st. and Woodland ave. _L. P. S._

SPEEDY BOYS. Two of best caught on courts of Cynwyd Country Club. At left is H. C. Rafetto. The other tennis player is H. Fox. Both men have been entered in a number of tournaments this summer _L. P. S._

HOWARD C. HOPHAN, 1949 North Croskey street, has been in service four years. Route: Market to Arch, Tenth to Eleventh street _Ledger Photo Service_

SCHOOL EXERCISES. The pupils of the Taggart School show appreciation for their playground by giving a lively program. Mollie Eckowitz was in the cast. The winners of the "wheelbarrow" race are at the right _Ledger Photo Service_