Princeton Man Admits He Was Stumped and Answered Only 90 Out of 150

TEN COMMERCIAL METALS?

New York, July 29. - Thomas A Edison is at it again. He has dug up an entirely fresh set of weird queries to test the intellectuals our college youth. In a renewed effort to demonstrate his assumption that college boys do not know enough to come in out of the rain, he invited Stephen Sap to solve another 150 prob-

Stephen Sap to solve another 130 prob-lems of human experience—history, current affairs, a dash of science, a whiff of geography. A former Princeton student with three years' experience at Old Nassau batted against the latest Edison ques-tions and whiffed—struck out com-pletely. Out of the full set of 150 that was backed to him with the dictum was handed to him with the dictum that there could be only one session and that no longer than forty-five seconds could be indulged in per question, he rolved-or thinks he solved-ninety. The rest he knows he muffed horribly. That would give him an average of sixty, which is pretty low ranking by Mr. Edison's standards. Here are a few of the questions propounded : What is the hardest substance recently at Tien-Tsin to impose their will upon the Pekin Government, caus-ing a reorganization of the Cabinet. The invasion appears to be directed by Chao Peng-Ti, Governor of Hunan, for an alleged violation by Hupeh of the interprovincial peace agreement. General Pu Pei-Fu, commander of the Government troops in Hunan and ido of the hordes, has been ordered to lead the advance on Hupeh, while General Chang Tsao-Lin, Governor of Man-churin, is dispatching troops from Muk-den to aid the Northern forces.

Dispatches from Canton, seat of the Southern Government, would seem to indicate that the invasion is prompted by Dr. Sun Yat-Sen, head of that Government, and is in line with his plan to accomplish coalition of the Yangtse-Kiang and Southwestern provinces against Pekin.
