Nancy Wynne Talks of the Girl Scout Summer Camp at Langhorne—She Tells of Some Goings and Comings

I REMARKED to myself yesterday that if this heat keeps up I won't answer for the consequences in the remarks I make or the things I see, for I'm getting a bit "overcome," as it were, with the continued hotness of it, aren't you?

The only help is a plunge into a pool every afternoon, and some of us cannot always get to a pool. However, all the better for those who do. They have more room.

Speaking of pools, have you seen the Girl Scouts' camp at Langhorne? It opened the first week in July, and every Monday has seen a truckload of little Scouts start off from headquarters under the supervision of Miss Frances Clark, who is director of the local Scouts.

They ride out to the camp, which is a trip of seventeen miles, and they have a wonderful time going and coming, let me tell you.

This week Miss Gwen Martin, of Chestnut Hill, who has a splendid troop of Scouts and who is assisting in the camp, is out at camp with a number of her girls. There are eighty-five to a hundred girls in camp each week, and they have the greatest fun every day.

MR. AND MRS. ALECK VAN RENSSELAER are having a very pleasant trip this summer. They were in Europe, you know, for a couple of months, and then came home in May and remained at Camp Hill, their place in Fort Washington, until a couple of weeks ago, when they went up to Narragansett Pier to visit their son, John.

SPEAKING of summer destinations, the other day in going over the Summer Register I saw that Dr. and Mrs. Burr and their family are in North-east Harbor this season. As a matter of fact, that is a mistake. Mrs. Burr is with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Leaming, who, you remember, was hurt by an automobile about two months ago, and Dr. Burr is dividing his time between Mrs. Leaming's home and his town house.

THE family was expecting friends for dinner one of those hot nights and said friends had a car. In an unguarded moment Daddy said to Mother, "I hope they take us for a ride."
