MAY NAME HOWE COACH OF HARVARD OARSMEN

Freshman Tutor Likely to Succeed Bill Haines, According to Reports

Cambridge, Mass., Aug. 3.—Dr. R. Heber Howe, freshman crew coach at Harvard last season, has been granted an additional year's leave of absence...

While there is no one now at Harvard who can deny or affirm that Howe is the best coach in the world...

While Haines, since he became head coach, in 1918, has broken even in the races with Yale, he has won only one race...

LOCAL OARSMEN LEAVE FOR NATIONAL REGATTA

More Than Thirty in Party That Will Compete in Buffalo Event

Oarsmen from the Vesper, Undine and Malta Boat Clubs left here last night for Buffalo, where the national regatta will be rowed Friday and Saturday of this week.

More than thirty local scullers boarded the train for the Bison City, where they are to meet Jack Kelly and the other men who competed in the Canadian regatta.

Included in the Vesper party were members of the intermediate eight-oared shell, which will be stroked by Hanna. This eight, which won its junior honors in the Schuylkill Navy regatta in June, will meet a fast field of crews.

Jim Reagan, who will row with Paul Costello, Sam Moorhead and Jack Kelly in the Vespers' senior quadruple sculls, was also in last night's party, the other members of the crew being in Buffalo.

Instead of Joe Nolan and Paul Shaker, representing the Malta Boat Club in intermediate doubles, a last-minute change was made, and Sherman and Nolan will row.

John Blessing, Jr., of the Undine Barge Club, entered in intermediate singles, was also in the party. Henry Penn Burke, president of the Malta Boat Club, and Charles W. Preisenanz, of the Fairmount Rowing Association, also left.

NEW GOLF COURSE TO OPEN SATURDAY

Coatesville Country Club Makes Elaborate Preparations; Leading Players to Compete

Prominent Guests Invited

Another new golf course will be added to the Philadelphia district next month, when the Coatesville Country Club will open its first nine holes. The date has been set for Saturday, August 6, at 2.30 P. M., and elaborate preparations have been made for the event.

Dr. Edward Martin, Commissioner of the State Department of Health and a noted golfer, will have charge of the program, which will include dining and putting contests and a series of matches in which leading amateur and professional players will compete. Dr. Martin, who will tee off the first ball on the new course, is paired against Hon. Richard L. Baldwin, former Speaker of the House of Representatives. They are very evenly matched, both playing in the low eighties.

Many prominent guests have been invited, including Governor Spruell, Senator Knott, Senator Penrose, Mayor Moore, Senator Vore, Judge J. Whitaker Thompson, of the United States District Court; Judge Rogers, Judge Patterson, Judge Henderson, Judge Knowles and ex-Judge Porter, of the Philadelphia Courts; District Attorney Samuel P. Rotan, Jules Mastbaum, Richard Wegelin, president of City Council; Harry C. McDewitt, secretary to the Governor; Lieutenant Governor E. E. Beidelman, Judge William Butler, Jr., and Judge J. Frank E. House, of the Chester County Court and other well-known persons in public life, who are interested in golf.

The course has been laid out by A. H. Findlay, of Philadelphia. It is located two and a half miles north-west of Coatesville on a fine road and is surrounded by a large lake.

Since April 1 last the club members have been playing on five very fair temporary holes and the entire City of Coatesville has been inoculated "for keeps" with the golf bug. Parkersburg and Downingtown are strongly represented in the club's membership. Horace A. Beale, president of the Parkersburg Iron Co., and Guyon Miller, president of the Downingtown Manufacturing Co., being members of the club, are nationwide as a promoter of high-class sports. Golf is new to him, but he is taking a keen interest in it.

Keyoula C. C. in Field

The Keyoula Catholic Club has decided to place a first-class traveling team in the field and has signed a number of well-known players, including the Melos brothers and Joseph Ward, Joseph Lyons and Burns, of Gimble; McCabe, of Catholic High, and Deady, of St. John's. Address: Alex. Sweeney, 1267 South Parkhill street.

Polo Tourney Postponed

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Aug. 3.—Rugby caused a postponement of the polo tourney held here yesterday.

QUAKERS HAVE OPEN DATE

Professionals Arrange Many Big Games for Month of August

The Quaker City Professionals have Sunday open for any home club, in or out of town. Many well-known clubs have been scheduled for this month, including the Philadelphia & Clothier, Shangan, Jack Hines' Old Timers and Stenton Field Club.

A few later dates, either Saturday Sunday or twilight, are open. Despite the loss of several star players the Quakers have been playing sensational ball, and have succeeded in filling the positions left vacant by signing several minor league players, which has greatly increased the hitting power. Address: Frank C. Schaller, 1228 North Teuth street, or phone Poplar 7541-W from 5 to 9 P. M.
