

IN PORT. The R-33, giant British aircraft, at its mooring-mast in the Whaddon Aerodrome near Croyden, England. It is fitted with an elevator and spiral staircase. The giant airplane in the foreground is used in the London-Paris service. Central News Photo

WILL WE SEE THIS ON CHESTNUT STREET? Paris predicts that its latest walking suit for women will be copied for street use in 1923. Wide World Photo

PRESIDENT'S WINGED MESSENGER. It was this pigeon that carried the message from the Mayflower to Washington. Harris & Ewing

MISS GRACIELA MARTIN RIVERO, daughter of the Cuban Minister to Mexico. She is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Thomas N. Ransell, in Washington. Harris & Ewing

WILL RACE TO JAPAN. The steamship Keystone State, now in the harbor of Seattle, her home port, has been given a silk flag by former Pennsylvanians living on Puget Sound. The ship will leave tomorrow in an effort to beat the Katori Maru, a Japanese vessel.

BURIED ALIVE—ALMOST. Florence Dorrwachter and Helen Simeox had one of the boys well covered with sand on the beach at Wildwood when the photographer happened that way. Such is the life of vacationists. E. P. S.

DIRECTOR CAVEN talks on the city farm in an interview on the Editorial Page.

HAPPY HOURS. Three of the youngsters who were at hand yesterday when the baby show at the Students' Chapter, Park and Susquehanna avenues, was at its height. The citizens are Raymond Martin, seven months; Joseph Perkins, seven months, and Norma Clymer, nine months. Ledger Photo Service

GREETINGS. General Fred W. Gerhard, of this city, meets Captain C. Barr, in charge of a Pittsburgh group of Boy Scouts visiting Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service

DR. NIKE PETRESCO, commercial attaché of the Rumanian Embassy in Washington. Central News Photo

THE WINNER. Photographs of Miss Madelaine Belle Starhill, winner of the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER movie contest, made from moving-picture films, are on display in the show window of Williams, Brown & Earle, 918 Chestnut street. Every hour of the day brings hundreds who scrutinize the display. Ledger Photo Service

START FOR FRANCE. Members of the American Legion mission who will take part in the unveiling of a monument to commemorate the deeds of Americans on the battlefields of France. Left to right: Henry D. Lindley, National Commander; John G. Emery, Fulton J. Forman, Chicago, and Franklin D'Olier, Philadelphia. At right, John J. Wicker, Jr., business manager. E. P. S.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS ANNA MCCARTHY, 1612 North Second street, operating a folding machine in an E. J. Spangler Company factory, 1237 North Howard street. The machine throws envelopes in packs of twenty-five; 5000 packs are finished a day. Ledger Photo Service

JAPAN'S BEST. Shimidzu (left) and Mamaga, now in U. S. for many matches. Shimidzu is now known to tennis players as "Shimmy," because of peculiar body action in play.

TRUMAN S. LEIDY, 4748 North Carlisle street, has been in service nineteen years. He serves the Witherpoon Building.

MAIL!

J. A. G. CAMPBELL heads Chester Chest, organized to assist needy of Delaware Co.

J. A. G. CAMPBELL heads Chester Chest, organized to assist needy of Delaware Co.

CAROLYN GRACE RAMEY, of Penfield, whose interpretative dancing has brought her much praise among clubs of Delaware County. Vanity Fair