JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Talks of the Troop's Going Into Camp Today for Two Weeks—Tennis at Manheim in September to Be Largely Attended

HONESTLY you can't quite believe it's August, and that only four days ago you just panted for breath and wondered if you could stand the heat another minute! To be sure we've had only two clear and two rainy days so far this month, but they've all been cool, and that awful humidity which made naturally peaceful citizens snarl at each other has gone for a time, anyway.

I hope the Troop will have good weather up in Pakahanna, or is it Tobyhanna? Whatever it is it has a hanna at the end of its name and the First City Troop has gone there for two weeks to camp. They were all rushing round the Armory like mad this morning trying to get ready to leave on time. And they were ready, too. Not the beautiful Troopers in blue coats and white trousers and silver helmets, but the troopers in khaki gathered together for the regular camp, which they go through each summer.

It must be sad when they get together in regulation war uniform and think of the many in their number who are sleeping in the fields of France. It's true that the Troop as the Troop did not go over, but every member went to war in the place assigned by the Government, and many gave their lives at the machine guns, in the ranks, as officers and in every part of the service.

Washington's bodyguard they were, and they have been the escort of every President of the United States in this city since Washington's time, and that is some record! I love the First City Troop.

EVERY ONE is muchly interested in the coming lawn tennis singles championship tournament, which is to be held this year at Manheim—in other words, the Germantown Cricket Club. I hear that Sir Auckland Geddes, Ambassador from Great Britain, has taken a box for the week, and it is highly likely that other members of the diplomatic service will attend, for, besides teams representing England, Canada, Australia and South Africa, there will be players from France, Denmark, Japan and several other nations.

Nearly all the boxes are taken, and it seems to me it will be a most exciting time. It will bring a good many people home earlier than usual, for the opening match will be on September 9. Some of those who have taken boxes are the Fitz-Eugene Dixons, who have been in Europe most of the summer; the Bob Cassatts, who are in Europe still; Bayard Henry, Percy Clark, Samuel Bell, Jr., Samuel T. Bodine, Paul Thompson, Francis Strawbridge, George Tyler, Walter Thomson, Samuel Morris, Sydney Hutchinson, Rodman Wanamaker, John Wanamaker, Jr., William Warden, Joseph Wear, Pere Wilmer, Bert Goodall, George McFadden, Joseph B. McCall, Billy Morice, Eugene McGuckin, Edwin H. Fitler, John Gilbert, Samuel Clement, Jr., Arthur Morton, George Huhn, William Tilden, 2d, and Theodore Seixas.

FATHER went away on business the other day and Freddie, who is five years old, begged to sleep with Mother. She put up a feeble protest, for, said she, "You can't keep quiet. You know dearie, and you kick and that would hurt Mother." Freddie looked so grieved and was so anxious to stay with her and protect her during father's absence, that she felt sorry for refusing and said: "Well, darling, Mother will let you stay this one night and we'll see how it is. If you don't kick perhaps she'll let you stay tomorrow, too."

The night passed in tranquility and Mother was not disturbed. But she woke before Freddie did. When it was time to rouse him she pulled down the covers to find him sleeping with both small feet tied together with a piece of tape. Needless to say he spent the rest of the time with her till Daddy came home.

NANCY WYNNE.
