

SHE'LL BE BACK. Mlle. Mistinguett, the French actress, waving good-by to friends as the S. S. La France sails out of New York for France. She said she'd come back again.

LORD BYNG. He sailed on Thursday from Liverpool for Canada, where he will succeed the Duke of Devonshire as Governor General of Canada. Lord Byng commanded Canadian troops during the war.

PRIZE WINNER. Cutest of them all was the decision of the judges at the baby show held on the Steel Pier at Atlantic City. The baby is Doris Sacks, of Philadelphia.

THREE BATHERS. The dog enjoys the water as much as Miss Sofia Fench and Miss Alice Coolidge, who are caring for the pet on the sands at Atlantic City.

MISS AGNES DEMMER insists mother, Mrs. Mary Demmer, is innocent of death of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kolze in Chicago. Elmer Kolze, son of dead man, also defends Mrs. Demmer.

DAVE GARDNER, the popular comedian and dancer, who was wounded and gassed in France, busy in Washington.

MAY REESE takes her pet dog for an outing in Black Oak Park, West Philadelphia, on her private vehicle.

AIRSHIP OFFICERS. Com. L. H. Maxwell (left) and Lieut. Penney, of ZR-2, which will soon start on its trip to America.

LOADING FOR MOUNT GREYNA. Two members of the 103d Engineers transferring regimental equipment from the trucks into a garage car at Broad and Callowhill streets.

SAILING FOR ITALY. John F. Rowan, James G. Martin and James R. Hughes aboard the America sailing here for Naples. They have scholarships to the American College at Rome.

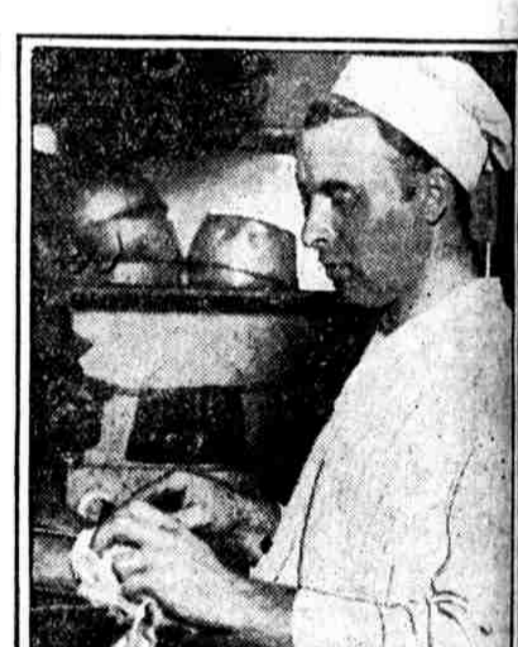

WALTER TEES, captain of Eastern Penitentiary guards baseball nine. With him is Frank Hespell, the mascot.

BUSY DAY. Lillian Marie Petz, of Philadelphia, playing in the sand on the beach at Wildwood.

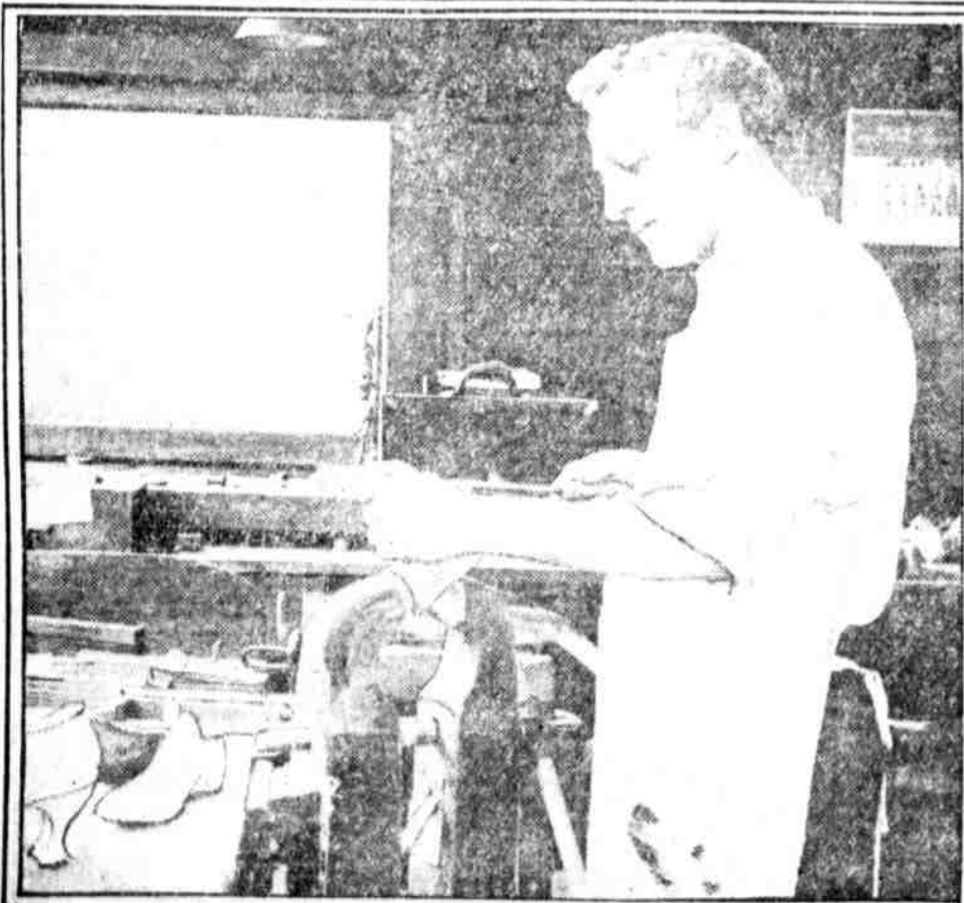

CHAIR FLOATS. This new mode of traveling through the waters of ocean, lake or river has proved very attractive to the 1921 bathers. The chairs are non-sinkable.

LUDWIG URBAN, for years chef to the late Emperor Franz Josef, 1921 finds him in a New York hotel.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

THOMAS S. SANDERS, 6125 Walnut street, designer of lasts for women's exclusive shoes at the factory of C. C. Kempton & Son, 521 Vine street. Sanders is shaping the wooden lasts by hand.

TWO OF THEM. These boys, Jack Barrett (left) and Ad Swigler, have been doing a lot to keep the Logan Square baseball team on the baseball map. Barrett plays the right field. Swigler is a pitcher.

MAIL!

ALPHONS J. KOLB, 1504 North Fourth street, in U. S. service eight years. Route: Chestnut to Walnut, Fourth to Fifth street.

HAPPY DAYS. Mrs. Robert Breese (left) and Mrs. Newell W. Tilton, New Yorkers, down at Southampton, L. I. Mrs. Tilton insists on having a lot of shade.