

"HUMAN LOTTERY" IS LATEST SWINDLE

Credulous Asked to "Take Chance" on Week's Service of "Unemployed"

MANY FALL FOR NEW GAME

A young man, sad of eye and shabby, stopped a business man on a busy street in Kensington. "Take a chance on a raffle, sir," he begged. "Help a poor fellow who is out of work."

"What are you raffling?" asked the business man. "Myself," was the astonishing answer. "Yourself?" exclaimed the business man, shocked by such a condition.

"Yes, that is my service. If I can get you and forty-nine other men to take a chance on me at one dollar each I will hold a drawing, and the man with the lucky number will have my exclusive services for a full forty-eight-hour week."

Plays on Fear Duets "I've got to do this, sir; I'm desperate. We are all out of work up here, and this is the only way we can think of to get the money to feed our wives and babies. There are lots of us doing this."

A dollar changed hands and the business man walked off filled with pity. Now, this is all a swindle. Of course, the men collecting the money never work for any one. And this newest device is giving many pan-handlers comparative affluence.

It is true enough that there are many out of work in Frankford and Kensington, but in the main they are the highest type of American workmen. Many of them have saved their money when it came easy and have snug nest-eggs laid away.

The prosperity of the stores in the northeast and the well-dressed crowds on the street show that conditions are not really serious in the majority of families.

Strangers Are Easy Meat But a stranger in the section, knowing so many are out of work, is easily induced to contribute a dollar, particularly when such an original method of getting it is used. It is not only a question of losing the dollar in an unworthy cause, however.

The police believe the men operating the swindle may be in the hire of Soviet propagandists, trying to stir up trouble in industrial centers.

Lowest Prices Yet for Fresh Cool Summer Dresses, $1.65, $2.50, $3.35 and $3.85—Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store

For the Woman From Nevada

Who Has Never Seen This Down Stairs Store

It is something to see! It is one of the sights of Philadelphia. It is something to take advantage of during your sojourn in the East.

A Down Stairs Store of Lower Prices Where Quality Is Maintained and merchandise is fresh and altogether desirable from every standpoint is sure to stand out like a bright light wherever it is located.

By these very essential facts of its being, Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store differentiates itself from the many downstairs stores that have sprung up in imitation.

It Is a Pleasant Place where one can spend an agreeable hour and see many new things. Its aspect is encouraging. One sees that here, at least, prices and qualities are getting back to where they were before the war. That alone is worth traveling miles to see.

Also Elastic Corsets Lace in Back

This is quite an unusual feature for an elastic corset and one that women are very enthusiastic about.

Beneath the lacing is a shield of pink batiste, while the front of the corset is reinforced with pink coutil. Boning is of the lightest, making the Elso corset perfect for horseback riding, golf, tennis and any form of exercise.

Some slender young women wear elastic corsets all the time. The Elso is in three depths: 12-inch at $2.25, 14-inch at $2.75 and 16-inch at $3.

This Is a Fine Time for a Woman to Buy a Suit

Nearly every cloth suit and jersey suit in our stock is now marked at a lowered price. Most of them are conservative of line and can be worn well into the Autumn, especially the sports suits. Wool jersey suits in black and a few colors are now $12 and $15. Suits with wool jersey jackets and plaid skirts are $20. Tweed suits are $15 to $25.

33-Piece Layettes $16

A very small price for layettes of such daintiness! Each one consists of 3 shirts, 3 bands, 2 flannel Gertrudes, 2 flannel barriettes, 2 flannel nightgowns, 3 slips (little dresses), 2 yoke dresses, 1 knitted sacque, 3 pair of booties and 12 hemmed diapers.

$10 for Knockabout Coats of Navy or Black Jersey

Coats like these will stand almost anything. To own one is to possess a real comfort. They are three-quarter length and have pleats and belts. (Sketched.)

Navy blue and black serge coats are half lined with silk. $10.

Taffeta Coats, $10

A little lot of conservative belted coats in navy blue or black.

Tan Polo Coats, $20

Of a soft camel's hair mixture in a sports style with a narrow belt, deep pockets and raglan shoulders.

Beautiful Wraps Now $35

Quilted satin coats in navy or black are beautifully lined with crepe de chine or satin. (Canton crepe capes, lined with crepe de chine, are trimmed with three deep rows of heavy silk fringe. (Sketched.)

Coat-wraps of serge or Poirer twill are in navy blue or gray, trimmed with satin or embroidery.

This is about half the original prices of these coats and wraps.

All-Wool Plaid Blankets, $10

Pink or blue plaids, size 70x80 inches. (Central)

Wool-Mixed Blankets $6.50

In white with pink or blue borders and in gray, tan or blue plaids. 70x80 inches. (Central)

Hundreds of New Dresses at $3.35 and $3.85

$3.35 for organdie dresses in white, rose, pink, honeydew, gray or blue, all fresh and crisp and most delightfully made.

$3.35 for pin-checked voile dresses in light colors.

$3.85 for gray, rose or yellow organdies with printed morning glories and a sash, collar, cuffs and bands of white organdie.

$3.85 for black and navy blue voile dresses with small white figures, trimmed with pleated ribbon frills and ribbon sashes.

$3.85 for checked and plaid gingham dresses with white linen collars and cuffs.

$3.85 for gingham dresses with organdie collars and cuffs and pleated frills.

A Clearaway Sale of Dresses From Our Own Stock Now $4.65 $7.50, $10, $12 and $15

A fourth, a third and a half less for several hundred pretty dresses of dimity, voile, imported organdie and gingham. Not many of any one kind, and some are mussed, but materials are excellent and a pressing will freshen them wonderfully.

Sketched at $10 is a frock of dotted Swiss made over a white organdie slip.

Some hand-made French dresses are among these.

Silk Dresses, $15 to $25

Equally great savings on these dresses of crepe de chine, Canton crepe and Georgette. Some are beaded, some embroidered and some in sports styles. A few of these frocks are slightly soiled.

A pretty frock sketched is of flesh pink or light blue crepe de chine with a jumper bodice scalloped and piped in white. $18.75.

Yes, There Are Enough of These Wonderful Shoes at $4

for almost every woman to find her right size. One girl who already had one pair of combination sports shoes, for which she paid double, bought two pairs of these—said they were "irresistible."

They are of beautifully soft white leather trimmed in the season's smart fashion with brown or black and perforated to show the same color contrast. Nicely leather-lined, too, so that they look costly. Heels are broad and low. Soles are welted and heavy enough for real hiking.

$4 is less than half the price for which the maker intended them to sell.

Important Doings in the Junior Store —Prices Are Tumbling

It's a clearaway event of importance to all little girls, for it includes all kinds of dresses from the practical regulation to the airiest organdie ready for a party:

- white jean and cadet blue regulation frocks;
- checked and plaid gingham dresses;
- plain-color gingham combined with organdie, many hand embroidered;
- gingham skirts combined with smocked white lawn and made detachable;
- exclusive organdie model frocks in imported organdie for Juniors.

Prices start at $1 for a gingham or voile frock, $2.50 and $3 for regulations, and go to $7.50 for the finer organdie dresses. Not many frocks of any one kind. Some are mussed. Sizes 8 to 16 in the group—and wonderful savings.

Top Coats, $5 and $7.50

Just-right coats to start school with. Of checked and plain-color velours, silvertone velours and plain blue serges and mixtures. Some cape coats among them. Sizes 6 to 16 years, though not all sizes in any one style.

Boys' All-Wool Suits With Two Pair of Trousers Are Now Only $9.75

And that's the lowest price in a long, long time! Most mothers have considered that they were getting extra value at $5 and $6 more.

Of mixed chevrons in a great variety of patterns in good serviceable gray, tan and brown mixtures. Jackets are belted and made with knife pleats, box pleats or plain. Inset or patch pockets.

Each pair of knickerbockers is carefully made and lined throughout. Every seam is double stitched and taped for extra durability.

Wanamaker suits, through and through, lowered in price because there are not all sizes in every style. Suits for boys of 8 to 18 years in the collection.

$1.65 $3.85 $18.75 $1.65 $10 $1.65

Bedspreads

84 x 96 inch honeycomb bedspreads can be had with hemmed ends at $2.75, or with cut corners at $3. Good heavy weight.

Lingerie Ribbon

One wants all fresh, gleaming ribbons in one's "undies" for vacation time! 10-yard pieces of flowered satin ribbon, in pink, blue or white, vary from 1/4 to 1 inch in width. 30c to $1.10 a piece.

Men's All-Wool Trousers, $5

A regular mountain of them (so far as quantity goes) and just about every pattern and color that a man's likely to want! What a chance to "match up" that old coat and vest hanging useless in the closet, an open invitation to moths!

Cool Athletic Combination Suits for Men, 75c

Of cool snowy checked nainsook in athletic style, the kind men like because they mean comfort. First quality and worth snapping up!

Center Aisle Opportunities Again! Clean, New Rag Rugs Priced Less Than in Three Years 35c to $1.50

Good, heavy old-fashioned bit-or-miss rag rugs for bath, bedrooms and halls and they can be used in nurseries and on porches because they can be laundered. Woven of a factory's clean, new remnants, not old washed rags, so they will wear properly.

18x34 inches, 35c 27x54 inches, 90c
24x36 inches, 55c 30x60 inches, $1.15
25x50 inches, 75c 36x72 inches, $1.50

Upholstery Remnants

Useful lengths of scrim, marquisette, attractive crotonnes, terry cloth, poplin and awning stripe. Plentiful assortment after a busy month's selling.

Gingham "Billie Burke" House Dresses, $1.50

Comfortable style of lavender, pink, blue and black checked gingham finished with white collars and cuffs. All sizes 36 to 46.

Lustrous Tricolette, $1.20 a Yard

Good quality gleaming fiber tricolette in plain or fancy weaves. Fashionable tomato, flesh, pink, rose, white, Copenhagen, brown, taupe, silver gray, beige and plenty of navy blue and black. 36 inches wide.

1500 Pair Women's Silk Stockings, 85c Pair

Black and white stockings, "seconds," but in many cases it's a hard task to find the imperfections, and they are always neatly mended. Mercerized cotton tops and soles and seamed backs (not full fashioned).

Crisp Taffeta Petticoats, $2.85

Favorite plain or changeable hues all ready for fall. Made with deep ruffled flounces.

25c Bandeaux

A thousand fresh, new ones just arrived. Plain and fancy materials, either pink or white, made with tape shoulder straps. All sizes.

Envelope Chemises, 85c

Made of softest white batiste with fine lace for trimming.

Extra-Size Nightgowns, 65c

Good white batiste trimmed with colored stitching and shirring. Cut plenty full.
