

Low Tandler Is Disappointed Over Upset in Plans for His Battle With Benny Leonard

BIG BOUT POSTPONED UNTIL LEONARD'S HAND RECOVERS FROM INJURY

Lightweight Champion Dislocates Thumb and Doctor Says He Will Be Out for Six Weeks—Taylor and Gunnis Hope to Stage Match Within a Month

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL, Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger. BENNY LEONARD and Low Tandler will settle their little quarrel some time in the near future. So far as next Friday night is concerned, everything is off. All that is known is Benny Leonard dislocated his left thumb and is on the drydock for repairs. It is said he will not be able to box again for six weeks or two months, but it probably will be sooner than that.

Tandler has stopped training and is anxious to learn how long he will have to wait before training to win the lightweight championship. The Philadelphia outfit is disappointed over the upset in plans, for he was confident of victory. So was Leonard, for that matter. News of the accident was flashed over the wires shortly after the sports editors of this city conferred with Director Cortelyou about the big match. Herman Taylor and Bobby Gunnis also were there and during the meeting discussed the manner in which to handle the big crowd of the telephone bell ring.

"This is Billy Gibson," said the voice over the wire. "Leonard has just broken his hand and won't be able to box Tandler Friday. He will be out for at least six weeks."

That was a knockout wallop for the two youthful promoters. They gazed blankly at each other and then made arrangements for a postponement. They are hoping for the best and believe the match will be staged within two or three weeks. They are waiting to hear whether the injury is as serious as first reported.

"The bout is off," said Taylor, "but it will be held in the near future under the same conditions. As soon as Leonard's hand gets well we will start in all over again. The same tickets will be good for the next show and those not coming to hold them can have them refunded."

THIS means the bout will take place some time in September and probably in the afternoon.

Cortelyou Planned to Protect the Public. THE public would have been well taken care of on Friday night had the bout been staged. Director Cortelyou had made complete arrangements and more than 1000 special police were to have been stationed on the inside and outside the park. In addition, 250 firemen and the same number of ushers were to be present.

Director Cortelyou called a meeting of the sports editors yesterday afternoon and outlined his plan for the public is supporting this big bout," he said, "and it is the biggest boxing contest ever held in Philadelphia. We cannot do too much to make sure it is a success and see that it is run off properly. There have been rumors about it being a fake and for that reason I desire to have you gentlemen act as a committee to represent me at the bout. If, in your opinion, the boys have done their best, tell me. If not, I want to know it also."

A committee consisting of William H. Root, Gordon Mackay, Ted Host, Richard Kain, James C. Issinger and the writer was named, with Root as chairman. It also was decided to have the Sealer of Weights and Measures to superintend the weighing in of the boys next Friday afternoon. The gloves also were to be weighed to see that they conformed to the Philadelphia regulations. There was a report that Leonard and Tandler were to use four-ounce gloves instead of six ounces required by the rules.

"Philadelphia boxing rules must be followed to the letter," Mr. Cortelyou explained, "and the committee will see that it is done."

THE same committee will act and the same arrangements will be carried out when the battle finally takes place.

Postponement Disappoints Ball Players. NEWS that the big battle has been called off put a damper on the conversation of the ball players at the Aldine last night. There are many fight fans on the Cleveland club and both Tandler and Leonard had staunch supporters. Love would in Cleveland several times and make many friends.

"Tandler would have a good chance to win the title," said Steve O'Neill, who catches and also boosts Johnny Kilbane. "Low is the first sophomore I ever fell for, and believe me he has the goods." That broken thumb was a lucky break for Leonard.

"However, we have a big bout of our own in Cleveland next month. Johnny Kilbane, the greatest little fighter that ever lived, will meet Danny Frush at the same place. They say Danny has a good chance to win the title from the title from Johnny, but I don't believe it. Johnny is in wonderful shape and will foot a lot of the wise ones."

"When I was laid up with a broken finger I spent some time in Johnny's camp near Loraine, O. He has a great place in the country and has been there all summer. It is twenty-two miles from Cleveland and an ideal spot for a training camp. For the last two months he has been working with five sparring partners and has become a real expert. He is hitting better and his hands are strong. He knew what he was doing when he signed to meet Frush and I confidently believe he will knock Danny over."

"They say he cannot make the weight any more. That's all bunk. When we were at the camp he weighed 128 pounds and he easily can make 125 pounds. Johnny has been taking care of himself and will surprise a lot of people."

"He is using the ring that was in Cedar Point when he knocked out Chaney. The proprietor of the park made him a present of it and he has it set up under a big tree in the yard. He is boxing every day and when he steps into the ring on September 17, Frush will have a bunch of hard luck."

THIS SPEAKER also is a Kilbane booster, but didn't discuss the bout last night. Instead, he parried the question and said: "Just say for me that the Cleveland club has been in second place for the last time this year. All of which shows that winning a double-header makes one optimistic."

PENN GRIDDERS TO START SEPTEMBER 5

Fall Training Will Begin With Two Weeks' Practice at Cape May AT FRANKLIN FIELD SEPT. 19

The University of Pennsylvania football team will begin its fall training with two weeks' practice at Cape May, N. J., starting September 5. Thirty or more veterans will report to Coach John W. Heisman this week. Only one squad of veterans and recruits who have shown more than passing promise will be taken to the seashore, but fifty or more candidates will work out on Franklin Field about the same time.

Both groups will get down to real work at the University on September 19. Bill Hollenback declared today that indications point to a strong victory for Penn this year. Gouger at Lafayette. Another former University of Pittsburgh athlete, now engaged to shape the fortunes of the Lafayette College football eleven. The last two years Lafayette has been brought to the front by the efforts of "Doc" Seidel, Sutherland and Fred ("Pat") Seidel, both ex-Pitt gridiron stars.

Gouger, a teammate of Sutherland and Seidel at Pittsburgh last year, has been named as Lafayette's new assistant coach. Gouger played in the Pitt backfield, and it is said that Dr. Seidel will devote most of his attention to the new assistant, who will develop the back.

Navy Eleven Preparing. Arrangements for the approaching football season at the Naval Academy have been nearly completed, the only detail lacking being in connection with the assignment of certain assistant coaches. These are young officers, former players on the Navy eleven, and it is not always practical for the Navy Department to require them from other duties in order to assist with the football coaching.

Real football practice for the candidates of the new class will begin on August 29. The new material has already been given a thorough calling, and many of those who give promise are being worked at other branches of the academy, such as swimming, soccer and rowing. This will be excellent preparation for football.

The old players, consisting of last year's first squad men who are still in the academy, and some second-string men of promise, will assemble in Annapolis about September 19 for the purpose of beginning practice prior to the opening of the school year.

Report at Columbia September 13. Thirty-eight Columbia football players have been ordered to report to Coach O'Neill at Camp Vail, Little Silver, N. J., on September 13 for the first work-out of the season. The equipment is now being put into shape and everything will be ready to receive the football warriors at Camp Vail when they arrive on September 13. For the first time since football was restored in 1915 Columbia will have a gridiron camp this fall, and the activities will be in charge of Coach O'Neill.

The players were carefully selected from a list of slight men. Most of the thirty-eight are either veterans or are men who have been highly recommended to Coach O'Neill.

FRALINGER VS. 48TH WARD. Downtown Nines Meet Tonight at 25th and Jackson Streets. Forty-eighth Ward and Fralinger will stage a real old-time grudge game this evening at Twenty-fifth and Jackson streets. If the rain does not interfere, the teams were scheduled to play about a week ago, but old Duke's virus put a damper on the proceedings.

Manager Mackin, of the Fralingers, will handle the strong line-up on the field in order to win the game. He has secured Knowlton, the former Mackin hurler, to twirl, while O'Malley will handle his shoots. Tom Brochen will be seen at his old station, first base.

Fralingers would like to hear from all the first-class home clubs around the city, who can get in the Gloucester County League and Brooklyn, Texas wishing this first-class attraction should write James Mackin, 1433 Moyamensing avenue.

RILEY HALTS BORRELLI. Latter Substitutes for Cliff Bent in Shanahan Wind-Up. Barney Riley, 125 pounds, stepped in for Cliff Bent, 130, in six rounds in the wind-up at the Shanahan Club, last night. Borrelli was substituted for Cliff Bent. The bout was set for eight rounds, but Riley had Borrelli in the lead shape in the sixth, referee stopped the contest to save him from further punishment.

Johnny Mackin, and Johnny Egan boxed a six-round draw. Tommy Hoy beat Young Russo in six rounds. Young Fisher stopped Bobby Dunster in five rounds, and in the opening session Vernon Green stopped Red Kenna in three rounds.

Strong Man's Defeat. "Sally" White, former middleweight champion, is out with a challenge for all comers in the city. White says "Tommy" thinks he has a chance against "Sally" and can reach the latter at 1427 South Fourth street.

PAULSBORO TEAM WINS MANY GAMES. Champions of Gloucester County League Are One Game Behind First Place

"JING" JOHNSON IS SIGNED. Paulsboro, champions of the Gloucester County Baseball League, is enjoying a successful season and while the club is in second place there is not a resident of the town not willing to wager that Manager Johnny Fitzgerald will not produce another pennant winner.

One of the reasons advanced for being one game in the rear of Woodbury is that the club has used its best pitchers in games with outside teams. Paulsboro has beaten Pleisner, Nantux, in thirteen games; Lit Brothers, 6-5; New York Ship, 5-3; Washington Braves, 6-0, and Vineland, 4-3.

Manager Fitzgerald announces that several new players will be added to the club. These will include "Jing" Johnson, the former A's hurler; Gage, of Yale, and an outfielder. With these newcomers in the line-up, the team is expected to step out in front again this year. Paulsboro is noted as one of the best baseball towns in New Jersey.

In Bensack, the team has a pitcher who is sure destined to advance into faster company. He is six feet tall, built like a giant, and has lost but two games all season, and in those contests Paulsboro has beaten his opponents.

The Gloucester County League is one of the best in this locality. (Gibbstown has W. Reynolds, and Han Reynolds, of Detroit Tigers, and Vernon Touphstone is with Woodbury. The addition of "Jing" Johnson should result in a sound hard fought game between Paulsboro and its opponents.

PIANI HAS CHANCE. Orlando Piani, the famous Italian bicycle sprinter, will have his chance for revenge against Alfred Goulet, of the American, in one of the feature races at the Point Street Velodrome Thursday night. Earlier in the season Goulet defeated Piani in a four-match race, but the Italian believes he can get the best of him in the present event. The deciding race will be for the best two in three one-mile heats.

The Piani-Goulet grand will be an added attraction to the international motor-paced races, one of five days, which will feature six riders will follow pace on the track at the same time.

American, Italy and France have teams entered. Clarence Varnum and Maurice Redell will ride for American; France will have Jules Miquel and Georges Seres, and Italy will be represented by Maddona and Sorotogin.

In addition to these professional events there will be several amateur races with the best simon-pures in the city entered.

Georgie Russell is Winner. A race in the north road, which George Russell won with Bobbie Hagan, was held at the Point Street Velodrome last night. In the other heat, which was won by Russell, he was again victorious. Bobbie Hagan, who was defeated by Russell in the first heat, was again defeated by Russell in the second heat.

Strong Man's Defeat. "Sally" White, former middleweight champion, is out with a challenge for all comers in the city. White says "Tommy" thinks he has a chance against "Sally" and can reach the latter at 1427 South Fourth street.

BIG GOLF TILT TO BE FOR CHARITY

Special Trains Will Run for Convenience of Great Throng Expected at Paoli Saturday

FATE'S TWIST AT OPEN

By SANDY McBRICK. Officials of the Tredegar Country Club hope for a throng of ten thousand persons on their golf course at Paoli this Saturday.

These in attendance will be tagged, the admission fee being $1. The entire net proceeds will be turned over to the Chester County Charities. Great preparations are being made to handle one of the biggest gatherings of the year, because of the fame of the invading golfers.

Special Trains. The Pennsylvania Railroad will run two special trains to Paoli, one leaving Broad street at 9 A. M., daylight time, and the other at 1 o'clock, daylight time.

The thirty-six-hole match will start at 10:30 A. M., the second round being started at 2:30 P. M. Kirkwood, the world's greatest trick shot artist, will open his exhibition after both the morning and afternoon eighteen-hole rounds.

Everybody will have a chance to see the shots, therefore, which astounded President Harding and many thousands flocked down at Washington shortly before Barnes was presented with the cup emblematic of the national open championship.

J. E. Cope Morton, international cricketer and Union League billiard champion, is in charge of the arrangements for the match at Paoli, and Charles Deely will referee the match.

Marston and Kirkwood are expected to give Barnes and Kirkwood a great time. Marston played Duncan and Mitchell even when they were here, and Barnes, who holds the professional record at Tredegar, was one of the two best professionals to qualify for the professional match play championship to be played shortly at Inwood.

The Canadian open championship has just about completed the strange cycle of events which has revolved around the national open championship.

It has already been pointed out how Willie Ogg won the Shawnee open, Bob McDonald the metropolitan and Willie McFarlane the Philadelphia open, and though none of these players ever qualified for the national.

At least two of these players competed in fields virtually as strong as that at Columbia and beat them all. Now W. H. Treveger, a Detroit player, virtually unknown hereabouts, has won the Canadian open from a mighty field.

Perhaps his case is not parallel with the others, for he was one who did not qualify at Columbia. But when he looked up his final standing in the national he found him away down in about thirty-second place. He determined to sparkling 72 in the final round that put him that high.

It is a queer game and the man hasn't appeared yet who was a sure winner in any representative field, especially in medal golf.

Record for Des Moines. Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 8.—The Des Moines Western League team, which won a medal in the game here, made more money than in any other game. The game was played on Thursday, and the net proceeds were $1,500. The game was played on Thursday, and the net proceeds were $1,500.
