

BELIEVE RODGERS WAS ALIVE APRIL 13

Signature on Insurance Policy, However, May Have Been Forged
WIFE THINKS IT WAS

Charles A. Rodgers, with whose disappearance authorities are trying to find, was last seen on his home in Philadelphia, N. J., March 11. It is believed he took fishing trips which were prolonged sometimes for friendly months. He was known to be friendly with Young.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

Should the signature be genuine, Rodgers was alive on April 13, thus nullifying efforts of the authorities to find Young. Rodgers confessed that he had signed the insurance policy in the name of Harry Garwood, of Camden, N. J., who is reported to have been in Philadelphia on the night of the disappearance of Rodgers.

DUCHESS OF LUXEMBURG FELICITATES PHILA. MEN

Ex-Members of Fifth Division Get Reply to Letter of Congratulations
Birth of Heir Is Cause of Exchange of Felicitations With Young Ruler

John Anderegg, 1248 North Broad street, secretary of the Philadelphia Society of the Fifth Division, is the recipient of the thanks and well wishes of the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg as the result of a courteous letter of felicitation sent to the Grand Duchess last June on the birth of the new heir of the Duchy, Prince Jean.

After the Armistice the Fifth Army Division, which had taken a prominent part in the major offensives against Sedan and Metz, was moved to the Duchy to police that area. In the past the officers and privates of the division were often favored by the kindness and indulgence of the Grand Duchess, who became greatly interested in the doings of the friendly invaders. Their comfort and entertainment was well looked after and among those parties which were held in the court of the Duchess was Anderegg, then lieutenant in the 19th Field Artillery.

Upon their return home the troops and officers organized the "Society of the Fifth Division." At the time of the June meeting of the Philadelphia Society word came that an heir had been born to their former patroness and benediction to their former patroness and benediction to their former patroness.

The letter of acknowledgment was signed by the Privy Councilor, Nae Gougillot, and bears stamp of the

Chateau of the Berg, the residence of the royal family.

It reads: "H. R. H. the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg sends you and all the members of the Philadelphia Society of the Fifth Division her most sincere thanks for your kind congratulations on the birth of Prince Jean. Her Royal Highness was much pleased to hear the news of the Fifth Division have such pleasant memories of their stay in the Grand Duchy, and asks me to assure you of her ardent wishes for the prosperity and welfare of your society."

The letter of acknowledgment was signed by the Privy Councilor, Nae Gougillot, and bears stamp of the

Chateau of the Berg, the residence of the royal family.

It reads: "H. R. H. the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg sends you and all the members of the Philadelphia Society of the Fifth Division her most sincere thanks for your kind congratulations on the birth of Prince Jean. Her Royal Highness was much pleased to hear the news of the Fifth Division have such pleasant memories of their stay in the Grand Duchy, and asks me to assure you of her ardent wishes for the prosperity and welfare of your society."

The letter of acknowledgment was signed by the Privy Councilor, Nae Gougillot, and bears stamp of the

Chateau of the Berg, the residence of the royal family.

It reads: "H. R. H. the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg sends you and all the members of the Philadelphia Society of the Fifth Division her most sincere thanks for your kind congratulations on the birth of Prince Jean. Her Royal Highness was much pleased to hear the news of the Fifth Division have such pleasant memories of their stay in the Grand Duchy, and asks me to assure you of her ardent wishes for the prosperity and welfare of your society."

The letter of acknowledgment was signed by the Privy Councilor, Nae Gougillot, and bears stamp of the

Chateau of the Berg, the residence of the royal family.

It reads: "H. R. H. the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg sends you and all the members of the Philadelphia Society of the Fifth Division her most sincere thanks for your kind congratulations on the birth of Prince Jean. Her Royal Highness was much pleased to hear the news of the Fifth Division have such pleasant memories of their stay in the Grand Duchy, and asks me to assure you of her ardent wishes for the prosperity and welfare of your society."

JOHN ANDEREGG

Chateau of the Berg, the residence of the royal family.

It reads: "H. R. H. the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg sends you and all the members of the Philadelphia Society of the Fifth Division her most sincere thanks for your kind congratulations on the birth of Prince Jean. Her Royal Highness was much pleased to hear the news of the Fifth Division have such pleasant memories of their stay in the Grand Duchy, and asks me to assure you of her ardent wishes for the prosperity and welfare of your society."

The letter of acknowledgment was signed by the Privy Councilor, Nae Gougillot, and bears stamp of the

Chateau of the Berg, the residence of the royal family.

It reads: "H. R. H. the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg sends you and all the members of the Philadelphia Society of the Fifth Division her most sincere thanks for your kind congratulations on the birth of Prince Jean. Her Royal Highness was much pleased to hear the news of the Fifth Division have such pleasant memories of their stay in the Grand Duchy, and asks me to assure you of her ardent wishes for the prosperity and welfare of your society."

The letter of acknowledgment was signed by the Privy Councilor, Nae Gougillot, and bears stamp of the

Chateau of the Berg, the residence of the royal family.

It reads: "H. R. H. the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg sends you and all the members of the Philadelphia Society of the Fifth Division her most sincere thanks for your kind congratulations on the birth of Prince Jean. Her Royal Highness was much pleased to hear the news of the Fifth Division have such pleasant memories of their stay in the Grand Duchy, and asks me to assure you of her ardent wishes for the prosperity and welfare of your society."

The letter of acknowledgment was signed by the Privy Councilor, Nae Gougillot, and bears stamp of the

Chateau of the Berg, the residence of the royal family.

It reads: "H. R. H. the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg sends you and all the members of the Philadelphia Society of the Fifth Division her most sincere thanks for your kind congratulations on the birth of Prince Jean. Her Royal Highness was much pleased to hear the news of the Fifth Division have such pleasant memories of their stay in the Grand Duchy, and asks me to assure you of her ardent wishes for the prosperity and welfare of your society."

The letter of acknowledgment was signed by the Privy Councilor, Nae Gougillot, and bears stamp of the

Chateau of the Berg, the residence of the royal family.

It reads: "H. R. H. the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg sends you and all the members of the Philadelphia Society of the Fifth Division her most sincere thanks for your kind congratulations on the birth of Prince Jean. Her Royal Highness was much pleased to hear the news of the Fifth Division have such pleasant memories of their stay in the Grand Duchy, and asks me to assure you of her ardent wishes for the prosperity and welfare of your society."

The letter of acknowledgment was signed by the Privy Councilor, Nae Gougillot, and bears stamp of the

Chateau of the Berg, the residence of the royal family.

It reads: "H. R. H. the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg sends you and all the members of the Philadelphia Society of the Fifth Division her most sincere thanks for your kind congratulations on the birth of Prince Jean. Her Royal Highness was much pleased to hear the news of the Fifth Division have such pleasant memories of their stay in the Grand Duchy, and asks me to assure you of her ardent wishes for the prosperity and welfare of your society."

The letter of acknowledgment was signed by the Privy Councilor, Nae Gougillot, and bears stamp of the

INCENDIARISM SEEN IN SCHOOL BLAZE

St. John the Baptist Parochial Institution, Manayunk, Swept by Flames

FIND MAN IN BASEMENT

Fire of suspicious origin which swept through the parochial school of St. John the Baptist Church, Cresson and Reitor streets, Manayunk, last night, left little but the four walls of the structure standing this morning.

For more than three hours firemen battled for control of the flames and only succeeded when virtually all apparatus from Chestnut Hill, Germantown, Mount Airy and Manayunk had been called to the scene.

The first started shortly before 11 o'clock under particularly mysterious circumstances. A meeting of the school house nearby when it was discovered.

In the cellar of the school building they found John O'Donnell, Silverwood street, an engineer, who was discharged Saturday. O'Donnell was bleeding from a cut on the arm.

O'Donnell was held in 8000 ball for a further hearing tomorrow by Magistrate Price in the Manayunk police station on suspicion of arson.

Thomas Quinn, 142 Reitor street, a son of Felix Quinn, sexton of the church, testified O'Donnell asked him last night for the keys to the school building, saying he wanted to get a coat he had left in the basement.

Quinn told O'Donnell to return in a half hour. During that period the fire was discovered. O'Donnell said that though he did ask for the keys Quinn remained with him and they were together on the street when the fire was discovered.

O'Donnell was held in 8000 ball for a further hearing tomorrow by Magistrate Price in the Manayunk police station on suspicion of arson.

Thomas Quinn, 142 Reitor street, a son of Felix Quinn, sexton of the church, testified O'Donnell asked him last night for the keys to the school building, saying he wanted to get a coat he had left in the basement.

Quinn told O'Donnell to return in a half hour. During that period the fire was discovered. O'Donnell said that though he did ask for the keys Quinn remained with him and they were together on the street when the fire was discovered.

O'Donnell was held in 8000 ball for a further hearing tomorrow by Magistrate Price in the Manayunk police station on suspicion of arson.

Thomas Quinn, 142 Reitor street, a son of Felix Quinn, sexton of the church, testified O'Donnell asked him last night for the keys to the school building, saying he wanted to get a coat he had left in the basement.

Quinn told O'Donnell to return in a half hour. During that period the fire was discovered. O'Donnell said that though he did ask for the keys Quinn remained with him and they were together on the street when the fire was discovered.

O'Donnell was held in 8000 ball for a further hearing tomorrow by Magistrate Price in the Manayunk police station on suspicion of arson.

Thomas Quinn, 142 Reitor street, a son of Felix Quinn, sexton of the church, testified O'Donnell asked him last night for the keys to the school building, saying he wanted to get a coat he had left in the basement.

Quinn told O'Donnell to return in a half hour. During that period the fire was discovered. O'Donnell said that though he did ask for the keys Quinn remained with him and they were together on the street when the fire was discovered.

O'Donnell was held in 8000 ball for a further hearing tomorrow by Magistrate Price in the Manayunk police station on suspicion of arson.

Thomas Quinn, 142 Reitor street, a son of Felix Quinn, sexton of the church, testified O'Donnell asked him last night for the keys to the school building, saying he wanted to get a coat he had left in the basement.

Quinn told O'Donnell to return in a half hour. During that period the fire was discovered. O'Donnell said that though he did ask for the keys Quinn remained with him and they were together on the street when the fire was discovered.

Due for a Surprise

ROBERTA E. MACMULLAN

Frankford avenue girl who will get her Black Beauty bicycle won in Public Ledger contest today

GIRL WHO WON BICYCLE WILL GET HER BIKE TODAY

Father Taking Machine Home in His Auto as Surprise

Roberta E. MacMullan, of 3451 Frankford avenue, daughter of Hugh A. MacMullan, is due for a pleasant surprise. She has been awarded one of the Black Beauty bicycles, given for obtaining thirty-five subscriptions to the Evening, Morning or Sunday PUBLIC LEDGER.

Roberta is down at Wildwood Crest, and every time her daddy gets down to the shore she asks him, "Have you heard about my Black Beauty?"

The news of Roberta's success has just arrived, and the bicycle is on its way. Her father got it for her and is taking it down in his automobile.

Roberta is ten years old and this fall will be in the seventh grade of the John H. Webster School. She got the requisite number of subscriptions in about a week.

Another successful contestant is eleven-year-old Elizabeth Dickson, of 866 North Holly street, granddaughter of James P. Dickson.

Elizabeth goes to the Spruener E. Miller School, at Forty-third and Ogden streets. She, too, got out and worked for her thirty-five subscriptions and had them all garnered in eleven days.

Contentment

From the moment that you turn into the driveway after you've caught your first glimpse of Strath Haven—you are conscious of an indefinable something that lifts it out of the humdrum and commonplace. Devoid of any feeling of ostentation, you cannot help but be delighted with the natural charm of its setting, and, within doors, the standards we maintain make it the kind of place you are loath to leave. For those who drive a car there is a fireproof garage with expert mechanic service.

Dancing—Boating—Tennis

Strath Haven Inn

Swarthmore, Pa. Twenty-one Minutes From Broad St.

LEAGUE MAY NAME CANDIDATES TODAY

Voters' Organization to Choose Women for Receiver of Taxes and Other Jobs

MRS. NICHOLS MENTIONED

Voters League candidates may be decided this afternoon. There is a meeting scheduled for the Political Action Committee of the league at the headquarters at Broad and Locust streets. Whether or not the names will be announced if they are selected is not known, but politicians could any announcement will be made until the outcome of the Moore-Parsons situation is more apparent.

It was said at the independent headquarters this morning that about a score of names, including several women, were being considered for the offices of Receiver of Taxes, Register of Wills, City Controller and City Treasurer. Among the women who are being thought of is Mrs. H. S. Frontiers Nichols, who is widely known as a clubwoman and political worker.

The league heads made it known this morning that they are particularly anxious to see Mrs. E. Freeland Kendrick, former Receiver of Taxes and Thomas F. Watson as City Treasurer. As these two men are the ones the voters combine is most anxious to get in, it looks as though all hope of any sort of a barometer deal is off.

Much of the work of the Voters League at present is concentrated on getting out a big registration August 20, the first registration day. The league heads feel that a big turnout on the first day will augur well for a big independent majority on Election Day. Through the medium of all sorts of organizations the importance of early registration is being impressed on the minds of those likely to support the independent ticket.

WIFE NAMED TO SUCCEED MAN OUSTED AS JAILER

Kentuckian Was Removed After Mob of Lynchers Stormed Jail

Louisville, Aug. 9.—Successful candidates in Saturday's primary election in Kentucky included three women, Mrs. Belle Napier and the Democratic nomination for Jailer of Breathitt County over ten men candidates, while Mrs. F. Edgar was the successful candidate on the same ticket for a like office in Woodford County. Her husband, John Edgar, who presided here in office, was removed by Governor Moore after a mob stormed the Woodford County Jail, removed a prisoner and lynched him.

Mrs. Charlotte O. Woodbury, Democratic candidate for Tax Commissioner of Jefferson County, not only won the nomination, but bears the distinction of being the only successful unincorporated candidate of either party in the county.

CHARGE STRIKE FUND THEFT

Member of Union Arrested for Alleged Misuse of Benefit Money

Strike benefits due to a union member on strike are said to have been appropriated by Edwin R. Lewis, a member of the local typographical union, with headquarters at 1530 Cherry street, who will be arraigned today in Central Station.

Lewis was arrested last night by Detective Douglas, of City Hall, on a warrant obtained by James L. Montgomery, secretary-treasurer of the local union. According to Douglas, the accused man is said to have kept $50 which he had been instructed to give to Frederick Cook, Nineteenth and Federal streets.

Advertising for HOTELS CAFES RESTAURANTS TEA ROOMS and INNS

Advertising for HOTELS CAFES RESTAURANTS TEA ROOMS and INNS. JOHN CLARK SIMS General Advertising Agent 1524 WALNUT ST. TELEPHONE, SPRUCE 5924

GLASS

Modern Store Display Windows. Now is the time to install a new front in your store. Plate Glass is half its former price. Copper Sash and Bars are considerably reduced and the labor situation is such that you can secure the most efficient mechanics without difficulty.

HIRES TURNER GLASS COMPANY

30th and Walnut PHILADELPHIA

PERRY & Co.

16th & Chestnut Sts.

HEPPE-VICTOR RECORD CLUB

Through the Heppe Victor Record Club you can secure a quantity of Victor Records and pay for them in monthly amounts. We also sell Victrolas (25c Weekly) trolas in the same manner through the Heppe Rental - Payment Plan. Call, phone or write for particulars.

C. J. Heppe & Son

Downtown 1117-1119 Chestnut St. Upland 6th and Thompson Sts.

JACOB REED'S SONS

1424-1426 Chestnut Street

'RESCUE' WORKER BORROWS HAMMER, BREAKS IN STORE

Is Held in $600 Bail Charged With Forcible Entry

Max Perkins, who says he is an American Rescue Worker, Ninth street near Arch, was arrested last night on a charge of forcible entry.

According to police of the Eleventh and Winter streets station, Perkins approached some workmen at Tenth and Arch streets who were repairing the street car tracks.

He asked them to loan him their tools, saying he had locked the key to his store on the inside and wanted to get something to take home with him. They loaned him the tool and he went to the Brown Pharmacy, on the northeast corner, and started to tap at the lock. In view of what he wished and the fact he was working in plain view of hundreds of people, no one thought that there was anything wrong.

Just as he managed to break the lock he also broke the glass in the door valued with the lock at about $200. The noise attracted the attention of Patrolman Rosenbaum, of the Eleventh and Winter streets station. Rosenbaum knew that Perkins was not the proprietor of the store and arrested him. He had not taken anything.

Magistrate Price, who held Perkins in $600 bail for a further hearing Saturday. The Magistrate also recommended the man be given a mental examination.

Entertain for Son

Mr. and Mrs. John Galagan, of 2037 Snyder avenue, entertained for their son, Thomas Galagan, yesterday. The guests were Misses Dorothy Stephens, Elizabeth Simpson, Agnes and Helen McMonagle, Agnes and Gertrude McConnell, Elizabeth McLaughlin and Marion Wilgand. Edward Bonnett, Clarence Price, Billie Galagan, Edward Arnett, Joseph Galagan, Billie Corkran and Edward Williams.

ADVERTISING COUNSEL FOR DIRECT SALES METHODS AVAILABLE FOR PART TIME

For the man or woman who intends to sell their merchandise in the most direct way, here is available a direct and sales promotion adviser who will plan sales methods, make complete investigation or create productive publicity.

Not hunting a job, but intending to acquire a few more reliable accounts, seasoned by direct mail experience, identify with national campaigns, a retail buyer of printing, signs, engravings and cards, also photographic of live and still models.

Successful plans for catalogues, folders, handbills, direct mail literature with effective selling copy.

B-113, LEDGER OFFICE

You can't break Nature's laws—and get away with it. A rest or arrest—your choice! You'll be refreshed, revitalized, rested by the different, discriminating Collins System.

May we mail our booklet?

COLLINS INSTITUTE OF PHYSICAL CULTURE COLLINS BUILDING, WALNUT ST., AT 12TH

2 MEN SHOT NEAR SALOON AS RESULT OF QUARREL

Bullet Passes Through One's Leg, Grazes Other's Chest

One shot fired during an argument in front of 812 Callowhill street, a cedar saloon, early this morning passed through the thigh of Richard Fuller, 140 North Rose street, and grazed the chest of Matthew O'Brien, giving an address on North Fairhill street, according to police.

O'Brien was found lying on the pavement in front of the Callowhill street address by two patrolmen of the Tenth and Buttonwood streets station. He said he had been shot by the proprietor of the place, David Wharton. He added another man had been shot at the same time. O'Brien was taken to the Hahnemann Hospital.

A half hour later five men in an automobile stepped at Fifteenth and Vine streets, almost opposite a station house there, and assisted one of their number in the movement. The machine drove off and the man on the sidewalk limped in the direction of the hospital.

O'Brien and Wharton were later arrested and held under $1000 bail for a further hearing by Magistrate Carson today.

HAYNES SEDAN

1920—Used only few months. 5 new cord tires, equipment complete, perfect condition, mechanically correct, reasonably priced.

H. A. ROWAN, JR., CO. 342 S. BROAD ST. Spruce 4226 Mr. McDonald

HOUSES WIRED FOR $3.50

Per Order During August RELIANCE GAS & ELEC. FIXTURE CO. 1511 ARCH ST.

FINE FRAMING PAINTINGS CLEANED AND RESTORED

THE ROSENBAUGH GALLERIES 1520 Walnut Street

BAILEY BANKS & BIDDLE CO. JEWELERS SILVERSMITHS STATIONERS. SUPER-QUALITY. The enthusiastic approval accorded The Polished Girdle Diamond is an assurance of its supremacy over all other diamonds. Cut expressly for this Establishment.

MacDonald & Campbell August Reduction Sale Men's Fine Clothing Alterations at Cost. $10.25 Suits were $13.50 $11.25 Suits were $15.00 $13.50 Suits were $18.00 $15.00 Suits were $20.00 $18.75 Suits were $25.00 $21.00 Suits were $28.00 $22.50 Suits were $30.00 $26.25 Suits were $35.00 $30.00 Suits were $40.00 $33.75 Suits were $45.00 $37.50 Suits were $50.00 $41.25 Suits were $55.00 $45.00 Suits were $60.00 $48.75 Suits were $62.00 $52.50 Suits were $70.00 $56.25 Suits were $75.00. This includes all our fine suits of Unfinished Worsteds, Cheviots, Tweeds, Tropical-weight Worsteds, Palm Beach, Silk, Linen, and Norfolk Sport Suits, in Cheviots and Tweeds. Also Outing Trousers. We never assemble goods for "sales." Everything offered is our own unmatched regular MacDonald & Campbell standard stock—the best that can be produced for the original price. Fine Haberdashery Reduced. Madras Shirts $1.50, were $2.50 $2.00, were $3.00 $2.50, were $3.50 $3.50, were $5.00. Silk Neckwear 75c, were $1.00 $1.00, were $1.50 $1.50, were $2.00, $2.50 $2.00, were $3.00. Bathing Suits $3.50, were $5.00 $4.00, were $6.00 $5.00, were $7.00. And Silk Shirts, Underwear, Pajamas, Night Shirts, Bags and Suit Cases, Handkerchiefs, Soft Collars, Etc., Etc. Summer Business Hours 8.30 to 5 Saturdays Closed All Day 1334-1336 Chestnut Street

Are you going to leave your family subject to the inflexible rules of law, simply because you put off making your Will? Why not attend to this duty today? Have your attorney draw up your Will, naming this Company as Executor and Trustee. WEST END TRUST CO. BROAD ST. AT SOUTH PENN SQUARE

THE HATCH MOTORS CO. 120 N. BROAD ST. - PHILA.