Subway Store Takes Over Manufacturer's Entire Summer Surplus—5000 Girls' Dresses

Made as well as any mother herself could make them—

The $1 to $1.75 Dresses to Sell at— 75c

Including voiles, ginghams, chambrays, and lineens. Checks, flowered designs. Plain colors. Mostly styles with sleeves, but plenty of the popular sleeveless jumper dresses included, with patent leather belts.

The $1.50 to $2.50 Dresses to Sell at— $1

Mostly ginghams—perfectly splendid ginghams. Striped ginghams. Check ginghams. Cross-bars. Plaids. Hand-embroidery in color or collars. Smart sashes. Smart patch pockets.

The $2.95 to $3.95 Dresses to Sell at— $1.35

All either "regulation" Dresses—or ruffled organdies.

Two-piece and one-piece styles in the regulations. 6- to 14-year sizes in each group.

Women's Dresses—a New Fall Model in Good Heavy Satin—Special at $19.75

Just as straight up and down as a style can be—and mighty, mighty smart in consequence.

Just as simple as simple can be—how the satin gleams! And there's a fringe-trimmed sash. Black, navy blue or brown.

Embroidered Tricolettes and Fringed Crepes de Chine also Special at $19.75

The tricolettes in the modified sports style that serve so many smart purposes. Redingote effect; with the peplum-part embroidered.

The crepes are a wonderful quality, and not only the gray, but the brown, blue and black are made over "fluttering pink."

Crepes de Chine in Paris Adored Black or Black-and-White Special at $29.75

The entire trimming—massed on the girdle. Great white or black daisies done in wool embroidery.
