ALLIES DISAGREE ON SILESIA AGAIN

British and French Statesmen in Fruitless Conference Over Boundary

GERMANY'S HOPES FADING

By the Associated Press Paris, Aug. 11.—Differences in the French and British viewpoints as to the final drawing of the Silesian boundary developed here this morning at a conference of heads of the tw lovernments and their advisers, Governments and their advisers. The conference, it was stated in French quarters, ended without definite results. On this account it was decided to post pone the evening meeting of the council in order to allow the heads of the Governments to continue their first hand study of the boundary line prob lem.

The conference, which lasted two hours, was attended by Premiers Llord George and Briand, Lord Curzon, British Secretary for Foreign Affairs, and Louis Loucheur, French Minister of Liberated Regions. Liberated Regions.

It was announced this noon that the experts appointed by the Supreme Council had completed their work of drawing the Upper Silesian boundary line and that their report was ready for submission to the council as so The delegates to the meeting of the council were guests of President Mills-rand today at a luncheon at the presidential mansion. Chateau Rambouillet.

Myron T. Herrick, the American Ambassador to France, went with Ambassador Harvey to this function. The Ambassadors of the Allies were also present.

Special Cable Dispatch. Copyright, 1921 Berlin, Aug. 11.-German ircles here are watching the Paris conference with growing pessimism, as re-ports indicate that the British are prepared to compromise in order to reach an agreement with the French. The German Government, in the ex pectation that the Supreme Coucil will divide the industrial regions of Upper Silesia, is preparing to scoot for core from the storm which is certain to brea here when the decision is announced.

Present plans discussed here favor the immediate dissolution of the Reichstag and the resignation of the Wirth Cabinet, necessitating a new general election on the Silesian issue and Chancellor Wirth's new taxation program for which the Government is TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES
