EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1921

Former Minister to China Spent About 100,000,000 Rubles in Siberia and Russia

GOT GOOD FOOD IN MOSCOW appropriated.

royal charity.

quires their use.

ADVERTISEMENT

By the Associated Press

Riga, Aug. 11.-Charles R. Crane, United States Minister to former China, arrived here last night from former Chins, arrived here last night from Reval, after completing a 7000-mile journey from Pekin, which took him across Siberia and Soviet Russia. Mr. Crane, who was accompanied by Mr. Crane, who was accompanied by four Americans and a Chinese cook, four Americans and a Chinese cook, four discuss the Russian situa-to discuss the Russian situa-to discuss the Russian situa-with Captain Evan E. Young, presentative of the American State presentative of the construction of the Brown. European director of the American relief administration. Later Department he will go to Berlin. Mr. Crane told the story of his trip a crowd of American reporters waiting at the station to greet him. The narty left the Chinese capital on June party left the Chinese capital on June 16, and from that time until August 6, when it left Petrograd, it traveled under a special permit from Premier Lenine Mr. Crane had filled a car with pack

Mr. Crane had filled a car with pack-ages of pins, needles, tooth brushes, soap and other merchandise, which he planned to use in paying his way in lieu of money, but his stock dwindled to a few cases at Chita, capital of the Far Eastern republic. During the jour-ney Mr. Crane spent about 100,000,000 Soviet rubles, or about $3000, besides giving away the remainder of his stock of small merchandise. of small merchandise.

As the train would halt here and here along the Trans-Siberian Railway, the Americans would get out of their special sleeping car to play baseball or swim in nearby streams. Be-fore their train had left the Far East fore their train had left the Far East-ern republic, it was attached to a hos-pital train carrying soldiers wounded in fighting against General Baron Mi-chael Ungern-Sternberg, anti-Bolshe-vik leader. The wounded men declared they had been badly beaten. When the train reached Moscow, the Americans did not leave their car for a betal and during the eight days they hotel, and during the eight days they stayed at the Soviet capital had no rouble in getting good food. Accompanying Mr. Crane were his ion, John O. Crane; Donald M. Brodle, members of the American Legion, who are expected to reach Cherbourg or board the liner George Washington to Too Poor to Give Charity, Kaiser Tells Applicants Special Cable Dispatch. Copyright, 1921 Berlin, Aug. 11 .- Former Kaiser board the infer George Washington to-morrow. A committee representing a. these societies has sent out an appea to the French, who are urged to 'le our American friends feel the heart o France beat, read in French eyes th hope that inspires us, and see th implicit confidence we have in the fu-ture." Wilhelm has just announced that he is too poor to afford the luxury of The former Kaiser's court chamberlain at his house in Doorn is now

Newspapers, in comment upon the arrival of the Americans, remind the French they should "welcome their brothers in arms with the oldtime coursending out mimeographed letters to all applicants for charity reminding tesy, greet them in the streets with smiles, and make them conscious that France does not forget." them that 100 German marks are now equivalent to only four Dutch guilders and saying that the royal budget for charity already has been Tabor Man Heads Insurance Club J. Frank Leonard, of Tabor, was lected president of the Mutual Life The chamberlain in the same letter also apologizes for the use of nimeographed forms, as Count

Field Club yesterday at the annual con-vention of that organization in Boston. The club is composed of million-dollar underwriters of the Mutual Life Insur-ance Company, of New York. Hohenzollern's limited funds re-

Whether you need some article for a picnic or some permanent household furnishing, you cannot do better than visit the store of J. Franklin Miller.

Deborah Sogan

 $S_{evening and there was nothing in}^{OME guests dropped in during the} T_{is there anything so refreshing}^{HIS is Cantaloupe Season! And}$ the house for refreshments. Unfor- as a sweet, luscious cantaloupe? tunately it was too late to get some Those which I have had from the ce cream except in a paper box. store of Henry R. Hallowell & Son. However, my difficulties were ob- Broad Street below Chestnut, have viated, as I had an Aladdin Thermal- been simply delicious. The famous ware Jar to put it in until such time Anne Arundel Cantaloupes from as I should be ready to serve. Do you happen to possess one of these even better than usual; they are, in jars? They are invaluable for keep- fact, the most delicious cantaloupes ing things cold or hot, as the case may be. You will find them for sale from this district, and will be delivered anywhere in Philadelphia for $2 at the store of J. Franklin Miller, a basket. Or, like all of Hallowell's 1612 Chestnut Street. The two-quart size is $13.75 and the one-galfruit, they can be sent to any place within 1000 miles, as they guarantee lon $15.00. Besides, Miller's have perfect delivery that far. If, howmany kinds of Thermos bottles and receptacles which you will find most useful. And as for household furnish-ings, there is nothing which you may need in that line which you will not find in this store. ever you prefer those huge French Melons, you will find them to have wonderfully thick yellow meat. And the Honeydew Melons are perfectly luscious.

CHESTS of flat silver, silver serv-ices or tea sets are things to which you will wish to give the greatest consideration and care in purchasing. When you return from wour summer's outing thore are all that is, if they know the proper places to get it. At the shop of Reid & Fort, 1204 Chestnut Street, as well as their two stores at 1110 Mer your summer's outing there are al-ways a hundred and one engage-ments and household affairs to take Street, you will find that the prices up one's time. It would be well, are extremely low. They are sellup one's time. It would be well, are extremely low. They are sell-therefore, for you to send now to the store of Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company for their Gift Book, which will facilitate greatly the making of your selection. It is full of illustra-tions so carefully reproduced that you may examine the various designs. hats is really remarkable, and I am may examine the various designs. There are also many suggestions for gifts. Often there is some gift or prize which is impossible to procure at a summer resort, a bridge prize, per-haps, but for which you may send to Balley's and be assured of the finest quality. has is really remarkable, and I am sure you will be pleased with the wide assortment of shirts, both in madras and silk. You are also afforded an opportunity of buying extremely high-grade ties at pre-war prices.

Is the Most Remarkable Event of the Kind We Have Ever Planned.

Men and Young Men are Saving from $15.00 to $30.00 or More on Overcoats at

To-morrow will be the second day of this ADVANCE SALE of highclass Winter Overcoats for men and young men, who realize the advantage of SAVING ONE-THIRD to ONE-HALF, simply by anticipating their requirements by a month or two!

AND

One of our largest and best manufacturers planned this Sale with us and for us-bought the fine fabrics from the mill at a reduction when cash was needed, then made the Overcoats in advance of the usual time-but in the NEW STYLES FOR THE COMING WINTER.

Ulsters, Ulsterettes, Chesterfields, Motor Overcoats, Form-fitting Overcoats, Belted-back and Belted-all-around Overcoats-some of the smartest gray and tan herringbones, but chiefly of the rich, luxurious PLAID-BACK OVERCOATINGS. The very best and newest models, perfectly tailored and finished. Wonderful values at $29.50 and $36.50.

Suits Reduced—$17.50 to

All very much below present value and about one-half the prices of last year. These prices represent very decisive reductions from the regular prices of the season which showed a very substantial drop from the prices prevailing in 1920. That means about one-half the last year's prices for reliable, up-to-date Clothing, and every man who needs clothes should take advantage of this opportunity to-morrow.

now $36.50 and $44.50 'Alco" Suits of fine worsteds and Men's and Young Men's Tropical cassimeres-now $25.00 and $33.00

Fine Blue Serge Suits, for Men and Young Men-now $23.50 "Alco" Serge Suits—now $31.50 Finest Serge Suits—now $38.50

and

Men's and Young Men's Suits

With Two Pairs of Trousers

Hart, Schaffner & Marx Fine Suits- All-wool Cassimere Suits, Men's and Young Men's—now $17.50 Suits-Special at $13.50 Palm Beach Suits-now $16.50 Mohair Suits—now $18.50 White Flannel Trousers-now $6.75 Blue Serge Trousers—now $4.50

Four-post Colonial Bedsteads Now $25.75 and $27.50

This is one of the remarkable examples of the success of our plans to bring the prices down on Furniture for this August Sale. We have two hundred Four-poster Bedsteads, in the rich red mahogany-finish, to be sold at about ONE-HALF the prices of a few months ago. The singlebed size, 3 feet 3 inches wide, that was $52.00 last January, is in the Sale at $25.75. The full size, 4 feet 6 inches, that was $60.00 last January, is in the Sale at $27.50.

The great August Sale is growing stronger in the minds of the public every day-and from day to day, as the number of customers becomes relatively less elsewhere, it will become relatively greater at this Store. WHY? Because this stock is all new and desirable, the best assortment of beautiful de-

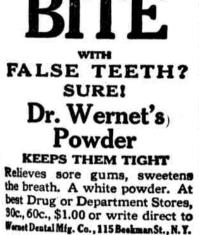

Furniture Needs Often Mature Before Ability to Pay-To meet this situation, we have perfected a PLAN OF DEFERRED PAYMENT - the most convenient and most practical of its kind. The salesman will gladly give information.

signs from the best manufacturers in America, and the prices are all far below the present value. Many of the handsomest Bedroom, Dining - room and Living-room Suits are marked at about onehalf the prices of the same qualities a few months ago.

Furniture, Third Floor: Metal Bedsteads and Bedding, Fourth Floor

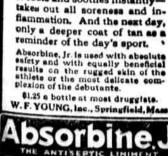

I have just made a discovery that will prove interesting to those of my readers who want a first-class electrical washing machine. The Buchanan Electrical Supply Co., 1715 Chestnut Street (you know what that means for service and quality), are offering for a limited time the "Harmony" and the "Rainbow" machines for $92.50. These are the regular $165.00 machines—absolutely guaranteed—a direct saving of $72.50. As I have said, the supply is limited-so be quick! You can also make your visit well worth while by inspecting the many electrical house-hold saving devices you will find in this, one of the finest and oldest Electrical Supply Houses in Philadelphia.

For Sunburn fter a lazy hour on the beach. a peedy hour at tennis or a round of the golf links, splash the burned skin freely with Absorbine, Jr. it cools and soothes instantlytakes out all soreness and inammation. And the next day. only a deeper coat of tan as a reminder of the day's sport. ' Absorbine, Jr. is used with absolute eafery and with equally beneficial results on the rugged skin of the sthiete or the most delicate com-plexion of the debutante. 61.25 a bottle at most druggists. W. F. YOUNG, Inc., Springfield, Mass.

PIERCE ARROW New Prices on Passenger Cars

> The Pierce-Arrow Motor Car Company of Buffalo, N. Y., announces a substantial reduction of its prices on all open and closed Pierce-Arrow passenger car models, effective on all deliveries on and after Sept. 1st, 1921.

FOSS-HUGHES

Foss-Hughes Company 21st and Market Sta. Philadelphia

