

St. Louis Browns, Expect to Take Third Place After Great Trip Abroad

NORTH PHILLIES HAND LANSDALE A LACING

Win Third Game of Week From Montgomery County League Likely Champions by Score of 8 to 3

PLAY AGAIN TONIGHT

The North Phillies played their third game of the week at Fourth and Wingholck streets last evening and won by a score of 8 to 3. Lansdale, who was the home team, was defeated by the Montgomery County League, date of the Montgomery County League, date of the championship of the Montgomery County League. The score was 8 to 3. Ray Steiner pitched for the home team and let Lansdale down with five scattered blows.

Rule Chambers was on the hill for Lansdale, but Ruth's offerings were rebuffed by the North Philly wrecking crew, who dented his southpaw slants for thirteen safeties. Spolner, the big catcher, had a perfect average for his evening's work and slammed out four hits, including a homer and a double. Mr. Yan also homered in with a circuit, while Lansdale was credited with one by Bateman in the first inning.

The big session for the home team was the fifth, when five runners crossed the plate. Yan led off with a homer, while Monradian and Dash got on, Hallman doubled and brought them home. Young walked, Spolner doubled and added two more to the total. The next inning, a home run by the home team, a double by the visitor, and a homer by the home team, made the score 8 to 3.

The North Philly will travel to Navy this evening and endeavor to secure a victory for a couple of previous triumphs administered by Phil Huggerty's crew. Bob David will pitch for the Phils, and as Robert has not worked for several days he is expected to be "night on", which means the fans should see an interesting struggle, as Tommy Carrigan will hurl for Navy.

The P. R. T. All-Stars take on the All-Terrace and Butler streets, and the Phillies are expected to win. The game will be played at 8 o'clock. The All-Stars have won eight of their last ten games. The Phillies have won seven of their last ten games.

The Baltimore Black Sox is down to one man. The team has lost all its players. The team is expected to be reformed soon.

Examples of West Chester will be at the home of the Phillies. The team is expected to win. The game will be played at 8 o'clock.

Gerontown traveled to Philadelphia and won. The team is expected to win. The game will be played at 8 o'clock.

The Old Timers lost another contest last evening. The team is expected to win. The game will be played at 8 o'clock.

Line-Ups for Monday's Game Will Be Announced at Allied Meeting. WATCH BROWNS IN RACE FOR THIRD

Lee Fohl's Team Has Record of 16 Wins and 6 Defeats Since Athletic Series

ZINN STARS FOR PIRATES

With Babe Ruth snaring the limelight with his prodigious clouting and the brisk battles between the Indians and the Yanks in the American and the Pirates and the Giants in the National getting the lion's share of the costly print paper, the critics have overlooked the so-called local Browns.

Not that the first three items are not more than worthy of diligent attention, but because the Browns, contrary to every prediction, have been cutting a wide swath of late through Ben Johnson's domain.

A glance at the percentage table in the American League will reveal the startling fact that the Browns are now in fourth place, with striking distance, or to be exact, five games of third place. Not so bad for a team not even considered six weeks ago to have made a chance to get out of the low positions in the ladder.

It will be remembered that our Athletics were spiking the guns of the enemy with considerable force during their last trip around the circuit and that when they arrived in St. Louis the general feeling was that at last the Macken had arrived at that junction point where they should have little trouble in stepping out of the cellar.

Two 1000 per cent batting averages marked the Cincinnati St. Louis Nationals' contest. Second baseman hits in as many times at bat, and Centerfielder Mann, of the Cardinals, produces met a perfect Waterloo in the Monday City, and that before they depart therefrom they were deeply entrenched in that place known as last among good-speaking major league baseball players. The Browns rose in their wrath and through the Athletics. Our Macken then went to Chicago and evened the series with the White Sox.

Great Eastern Successes. After the Athletics the Browns continued their march by taking three in a row from the Red Sox. They came East determined to clean up things. They took two out of three from Boston, split a two-game series with the Yanks, did the same in a four-game series with the Athletics and then went to Washington and took three out of four from the Senators. While in the capital the Browns incidentally broke the winning streak of McBrade's team that had reached eleven.

Boiling the figures down, the St. Louisians soon sixteen of their last twenty-two games, a record that is second only to that of Washington. When the Browns were here they made no bones of the fact that they expect to finish in third place.

"We cannot hope to get into first or second at this stage of the race, but believe we will be in third when the curtain is pulled down," were the parting words of George Sisler when the Browns left here.

Six of the Browns are 300 hitters. Miss Goss, who upset the women's singles dope yesterday by defeating Miss Broome, will meet Mrs. M. B. Burdett Mallory in the final round tomorrow. The men's doubles also are scheduled for tomorrow. R. Norris Williams and Watson M. Washburn, of New York, will contest for first place with the winners of today's clash between Richard J. Josselyn, of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Elmer Goss, of New York, in the lower half.

The winners of these matches were scheduled to clash in the finals late in the afternoon.

FAST FIELD STARTS IN 2:05 TROT HERE

Sister Bertha, Millie Irwin, Arion Guy and E. Colorado Among Entries

TUESDAY THE FIRST DAY

"Gosh!" exclaimed "Hen" Miller as he swallowed a chunk of tobacco and fell off the rail, "did that mare go that fast? I didn't think she could beat 2:04 1/2 and finish with 'all four under her."

Well, she did, anyway. And she did it in the 2:05 trot at Columbus. Her name is Millie Irwin and she sports a record of 2:03 1/2. She promises, with the aid of other hoof beaters, to again put Philadelphia in the light-harness racing map and draw a red circle around it.

When "Hen" Miller had recovered his equilibrium after the shock he got from Al Saunders, secretary of the Grand Circuit races at the Belmont track, he cut loose with a string of predictions on the Bellevue course, where a number of man-hoofed ponies will take the trot.

"Hen" admitted the only thing he had against Millie is the fact that her owner lives in Prospect Hill, where the potatoes grow and where the townspeople kick in as soon as it gets dark under the table.

"Miller's been showing a lot of stuff, but when you commence to pick 'em, Al, don't forget this, Sister Bertha filly and this spallion Arion Guy, that Tommy Murphy's Poughkeepsie wigg, will jiggle the ribbons over," said Miller.

"Then you never can tell what this wild-looking old bird of a Charley Rex will do if Murphy decides to start him again in Prospect Hill, where I've seen him make a break and fall five lengths back of the field before he would catch, and if I've seen him come on and win by a length and buggy ride under the wire at that."

"Hen" Miller didn't first see the light of day in Maine and never lived there, and of course, like a lot of other Pennsylvanians he doesn't know what he missed. But "Hen" knows the horse game. He has grown up with it and when he takes a stab at picking 'em, well, if it is at a track where they allow the long green to change hands, all you have to do is collect.

"Hen" likes Arion Guy and Sister Bertha for the big trot here. He admits that the stallion looks a little better to him now than A. B. Cox's filly, "Hen" may be right. There are in the field for this pair to contend with such names as E. Colorado, owned by Barton Pardee, of Atlantic City, and driven by Walter Cox; McGregor the Great, if he has sufficiently recovered from early season lameness; Baron Crenate, Arion Guy and others. It looks like a early of a race.
