"The Love Cowards"

By HAZEL DEVO BATCHELOR

trusts all men and Bruce hates all trusts and then they are brought together in a lonely house, on the Massachusetts coast, where Nancy Massachusetts coast, where Nancy Massachusetts coast, where Nancy has gone as governess to Trix, Bruce's little niece. Trix is the child of the woman who deceived Bruce, and Bruce hates her. Trix is afraid of him, and Nancy, determined to protect the child, incurs Bruce's enmity. One night he seizes her in his arms, thinkings in that way to send her flying, and Nancy finds, to her horror, that she cannot hate him as she should after that moment. When Dr. Hunt tells her of his love Bruce interrupts the scene, and Nancy, against her better judgand Nancy, against her better judg-ment and to save her pride, accepts the doctor's offer.

CHAPTER XLVII Nancy Is Shocked

THERE was one thing that Nancy Bruce's attitude last night. It was easy enough to understand why Bruce had seized her in his arms that first time because he had flung at her had flung at her the moment after he had released her the words "Now will you go?" But last night there had been no motive for his touching her, no touching her, no reason for it that she could see unless he suspected the truth of her feelings, and tortured her as he had tortured Trix.

HAZEL DEYO RATCHELOR her cheeks burned and her eyes closed pable of doing a thing like that, for, as Nancy believed, emotion was dead in him. All his better feelpower to arouse feeling of any kind Nancy he would take the greatest plays with a mouse.

Miss Henderson was looking at Nancy with a strange expression in her eyes. "You will have to go with us." she said finally, and very deliberately. "But your brother—"

"I've gone so far, I might as well go all the way and take matters into my own hands."

After Trix's sobs had lessened and she had fallen into an exhausted sleep from very weakness. Miss Henderson beckened Nancy into the hall. "I want to talk to you for a few moments. Will you come to my room?"

In surprise Nancy followed her. In surprise Nancy followed her downstairs. There was a definiteness about Miss Henderson's manner that vaguely troubled her: there was evidently something important that she wanted to say, something that bore on the situation very definitely.

Safe in Miss Henderson's room with the door closed, the older woman turned to Nancy deliberately.

"No doubt you'll think me mad, but I have a suspicion that I'm right in what I have to say. Did you ever stop to think that Bruce's persecution There was not understand and that was of you, his apparent hatred of you, might have another meaning?" I don't understand

"I don't understand.
"I'll make myself plainer. I believe Bruce cares for you!"
Nancy started back. "Oh, Miss Henderson, you don't know what you're saying; why, such an idea is prepos-terous; it isn't to be considered."

"Nevertheless, I think I'm right, and, Nancy, if such a thing should be true, it might be the means of bringing Bruce back to his old self. I have suspected this for a long time. I don't know what gave me the idea, but I have suspensed that it might be so. hoped and prayed that it might be so. I'm an old woman, but sometimes old eyes are keener than young ones. I have seen Bruce look at you in the strangest manner, even when he throwing some mocking sarcastic phrase at you. It was almost as though he re-sented the truth of his feelings and went on deliberately burting you and making you suffer. I'm almost certain that I'm dead in him. All his better feelings had been crushed because of the falsity of one woman, and if he suspected for a moment that his touch had the power to arouse feeling of any bind the control of the suspect of the had been in her own mind seemed some-how strangely significant. The scene last night swept over her again, the possessiveness of him as he had held her close, the vindictiveness with which he had forced her into open warfare as far as her relations with Dr. Hunt were concerned. Of course, it couldn't be true it was all impossible, but if true, it was all impossible; but if

Through a Woman's Eyes

To Bob or Not to Bob!

A well-known employer of large numbers of men and women has announced when I remarked to one on the pity of that the concerns which he controls will giving up her really lovely wavy chestconsider no women applicants who bob nut locks, she said: their hair. "We want workers," he says, "not circus clowns." lys, 'not circus clowns.'

And the first thing I heard from a bad a natural marcel wave and when

And the first thing I heard from a sad a natural marcel wave and when very capable bobbed-haired girl I know it was just "put up" it really looked was. "It's a pity he doesn't know that lovely. But the trouble was it wouldn't it is what's inside of a girl's head that counts.

The local field of the local field in the same of the local field in the local No doubt Mr. Well-Known Employer thinks that the appearance of the outside is some indication of what is on the inside of a girl's head. True-a young woman who would underneath the wig. A girl who disports herself in a busi- of recalcitrant locks, this can hardly your name and adorned with ornaments of bone and colored stones, and piled high with puffs and ringlets that keep her con-

But bobbed hair? Every one of the bowing acquaintance with each other.

wrappy upper portion, and dia-mones of mole adorn in a striking way. It's almost time, you know, to begin worrying about the cor-rect thing for autumn. This is one delight in playing with her as a cat These thoughts kept winging through her mind as she tried to hush Trix's wild sobbing, and finally she turned to were true, what a glorious revenge! Monday—"You Don't Love Dr. How of those things Monday-"You Don't Love Dr. Hunt" > think you out of your mind if you don't calm down!' "Well, you will be out of your mind

"Yes, I'm in mourning for my hair. Beth smiled a moderate smile. pe there is-somewhere; and I'll grab him if he meets specifications!" streng "No, really. Beth Blue Eyes, a man lows: has taken out a license to marry you."
"My dear," the cool voice answered.

you are demented. The man whom

"But I'm not crazy. His name is Marden Campbell.

would become them strengthened these star is printing the names of those girls in their determination to be rid after a license; and it must be you.

be considered a reflection on their good thrust the newspaper in front of Beth. No. Mr. W. K. E., whether we stantly on the qui vive to maintain their equilibrium, would justify adverse for women, we are bound to say that which said in effect that Marden Camptheir equilibrium, would justify adverse of women, we are bound to say that criticism of her good taste, common sense of serious-mindedness, all of which have something to do with effi-what should be inside the head. They ping in the city long enough to weat Miss what should be inside the head. They are two things that haven't even a Beth Mills, etc., and that the honeynoon would be spent in South America, where he was to be employed. "Hum-m, a honeymoon in South America, and I have always longed to roam; verily the gods understood. Dad

Beth commented.

A gay votee, founded with the tone that is suggestive af manhood, strength and the gaze of each was direct—the she recognize him? she was asked. The spirit of mischief and daredeviltry that spirit of mischief and daredeviltry that paign; for she realized that such a situation might work out in too many ways to be arranged beforehand. She had heard of men impulsive and impetuous whose methods were not common ones; but this specimen—he was one of the condition of the control of the condition of the conditi

When word came that he was downwhen word came that he was down-stairs she was decidedly nervous for a moment; then she laughed it off. "Come, Beth, your people were pio-neers, facers of the unknown. Look in Sleeping porches are sometimes furnished with nothing but the sleeping hammock and are severely utilitarian. They may well be made for more than this, however, and be combined with a touch of the outdoor living room. By the addition of a table, chairs, a bowl of flowers they may become really charming living.

blankness, astonishment, then to an expression her keen eyes could not

He obeyed willingly enough, and in the frank way of men who live bravely lency toward coffures which and openly and have nothing to conceal

Mrs. Wilson Makes Some Wise Remarks

Before Thirty It Is Safe to Eat as Much Meat as Desired, but

By MRS. M. A. WILSON Copyright, 1981, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson. Macaroni With Cheese

of the reserve force of the body his is only possible when a properly balanced diet is part of your regime. The healthy individual has a high regestion has a correspondingly low renistance.

A wise diet, combined with proper exercise, go a long way toward health building, and with this idea in mind only can we do our very best to gain a twenty-four hours to keep the bloo from food that has been digested and the provide sufficient water for this work will produce premature old age, con-stipation and kindred ills, including an over-rich and sluggish blood stream.

The growth and development of the body depend upon the protein and carbohydrates, vitamines and fat, constituents of the foods we cat. So if we are under thirty, unless there is serious organic disturbances, we may cat meats, fish, eggs, cheese and the vegetable legumes in sufficient amounts to satisfy our appetites, unless we are sedentary

After thirty-five, unless one is very active and is engaged in hard, laborious et of $20 was planned to have a menu. work, eat meat or its equivalent once a as follows: day, while from fifty years of age only eat meat three or four times each week. milk for children and mother; waffles Utilize the vegetable proteins, eggs and and French toast or egg for parents the mistaken idea that if she uses a variety of foods it be expensive. For this reason she gets into a rut with a menu of just bread, meat and potatoes. This is surely wrong. Not only does this style cost more money, but it is also costly from the dietetic standpoint. The family that has a diet of bread. meat and potatoes usually expends considerable money for drugs to overcome constipation, uric acid and other inestinal complications A family of five, recently investigated.

spent as follows each day: Two loaves of bread Two-third dozen eggs Half pound of butter.
One pound of hamburg or chops for lunch

Totals $2.88 Three in this family were under the doctor's care more or less and the en-tire family complained of lack of strength. This diet was revised as fol-

Two quarts of milk. Three eggs. One-fourth pound of cheese. One quart of potatoes. One quart of string beans. One small head of cabbage. One-half package of macaroni. Fire tomatoes or green peppers. One loaf of bread. One-half pound of butter. Two ounces of coffee for morning. One-half ounce of tea.

sed to call a he-man."

She made no special preparations to dress?" Beth demanded. meet him, nor did she plan any cam-paign; for she realized that such a situation might work out in too many tears. "It was for fun. I didn't think won't ----'.

"No. I don't think he will; and I'm

Adventures With a Purse

The smile vanished on his lace. Pardon me, I came to see Miss Beth Mills."

She nodded and said, "I am Miss Mills," and smiled as his face went to blankness astonishment, then to an of silk. But of course it must be blankness astonishment, then to an done, and even though I very carefully athom. Only she knew that behind the rinse them in soft, snowy suds, they fathom. Only she knew that behind the face was a swift-working mind.

His face relaxed. "But—but this is a deuce of a situation."

She laughed, for the expression was a favorite with her father. She stopped when she saw a new interest light in Campbell's face.

"But I certainly am engaged to Miss Beth Mills at this address," he said, a faint smile on his face.

"He seems to take the disappoint—was of a delicate pink, with a slightly." Beth Mills at this address, he said, a faint smile on his face.

'He seems to take the disappointment rather lightly," was her suggestion to herself; then she said aloud.

'Please sit down, and perhaps we can would neer through most daintily, and sit dips to that arresting peak down for the sheer blouse or frock these straps it dips to that arresting peak down the front, it serves as a radiating point for Cherry street, will gladly help you in feeding employment. You could swim at some of the pools in town, play tendency toward cofficers which leave the forehead hare—so much, in fact, that one questions whether it is not being carried a little too far, for it is at the Y. W. C. A., knit, embroider see sew.

To Make Large Hands Look Well to the fiditor of Women's Page:

To Make Large Hands Look well to the fiditor of Women's Page:

Dear Madam—You have helped menes for the profession of having large porces on most charming, was a blonde of the remain feet, with a sex every beautiful complexion with the exception of having large porces on most charming, was a blonde of the remain feet, with a fact which she accented a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being carried a little too far, for it is not being and benephals and better to wear and there is an in the fact, that one questions when the steep land to tell. As he went on, like grave, steady eyes the attrict of the land to tell. As he went on, like years, the had to tell. As the went on, like grave, steady eyes the had to tell. As the went on, like years the large retores. Vester and the was the plant in the fact, that he was her breed—the was her breed—the man of the open, battling within the steep land to tell. As the was the plant is not bein

TRIMMED BLOUSE is very smart and a narrow place on the seat opposite.

new. Mark off crossing lines on the Oh, 'sail right,' replied the man, front of a silk blouse, suspender fasts. absorbed in his headlines. He glanced ion. Have the blouse hemstitched on over to where she pointed and turned these lines. Run gayly colored worsted through the hemstitching. Sew a large crocheted worsted flower on each shoulder and at each side of the belt. Finish der and at each side of the belt. Finish the sleeves in the same way, using smaller flowers. A HEMSTITCHED AND WOOL-TRIMMED RLOUSE requires but little work and yet is so attractive in its simplicity. FLORA. Potatoes with meatless menu: boiled rice or macaroni with meat menus; one green vegetable, using seasonable variety. Lettuce or cabbage or celery salad; and dessert, usually pudding, or one crust pie, or perhaps plain stewed fruit

Please Tell Me W hat to Do By CYNTHIA

table allowance in this family was $25 per week, including ice, laundry and thia's column or the Woman's Exchange cleaning, materials, etc. Upon the re- we do not write personal answers. Your an increased amount of cooking and very decided gain in health, which is the most important point. This family Cynthia cannot bring about introduc-tions through the column. She is sorry to refuse, but printing your letters could do no good. lived in the vicinity of their work and

> Dear 'ynthia— Liscouraged,' why not try and get along without the flirt-ing, rouge, etc.? I know that when I meet a girl who does those things I a:

Dinner-Beef stew with brown potatoes; mixed vegetables; string beans or other green vegetable in season. I know there are other fellows who think

Dear Cynthia—I would like your advice on several things. I am a girlight fifteen, and considered good-looking by people I know. Now, my trouble is this: Alas! I cannot dance. I was invited to several parties and many boys were there and asked me to dance, but I refused because I could not. Please tell me where I might learn to dance. What is proper to say when one refuses?

I have no girl friends and I would Green regetables. Fruit (dried fruit schen fresh is too

The object of this dieting was not the reduction of the cost of the food.

but a building up diet for children who Go and see Miss Goldman at 1505 Arch street. She is head of the Girls' League and will be able to help you to meet other girls and boy and put you in the way of learning to dance. Simply say you do not know how to dance. were suffering from an anemic condition, due to restricted diet of bread, meat and potatoes. The average gain in three weeks for this family was twelve pounds; eight pounds among the children; twelve-year-old son two pounds ten ounces and relief from accepted from a man. They do not mean me years and years ago, a serious affection and are simple complimentary attentions, which are not would tear me to pieces if they knew I story. by a machine, which makes them stay "put" much longer. They are priced at ten cents.

If it is positively necessary to take his arm the girl should do so, but unless she is pretty old and decrepit and the storm is a cyclone it does not seem as if it would often be necessary.

Read Your Che By Digby Phil stead they called a meeting of all the stiend they called a meeting of all the stead they called a meeting of all the stead they called a meeting of all the stead they called a meeting of the Merry is a cyclone in does not seem as if it would often be necessary.

not be overdone. If one has the glazed roller shades in rooms in the house, one could have side drapes on the sun porch, using glass mustin for the windows.—
House Beautiful.

blue and white bathroom?

skill, would be interesting for the plente party held near a wide creek? Describe a deliente evening dress

6. What is taza-

Mrs. Amy Winship of Wisconof Wisconsin, although she is ninety years old. A bedroom that is being redecfarm would be a wheat race, the player whose head of wheat is first to climb to his shoulder winning the prize.

Double usefulness is provided by a new black fan which has an neat-looking pair of black

Things You'll Love to Make The Woman Who Keeps Insisting on Her Husband's Taking His Ease

Is as Hard to Live With as the Wife Who Selfishly Demands Her Own Comfort, With No Thought for His

I crowded. A man and woman got in, and the woman who did, oman sat down near the door, the man stood over her, hanging on a strap to read his paper. 'Why don't you go over there and sit down?" asked his wife, pointing to back again. She was silent while the train flashed by two or three lights. Then she 'Why don't you go over there and it down while you can?" she insisted. You've been standing up all day."

the next station several people got out, leaving a vacancy directly op-

He grunted and went on with his

"Harry." said the solicitous wife. He looked down.
"There's a sent right over there, go preferred standing, anyhow over and take it now. Go on, why "Oh, no!" he exclaimed impatiently, it is.

"I'm sure I do everything for his don't you? and at last she subvided.

POOR Harry!
It is just as bad to be the victim of an over-thoughtful wife as to be the do. A motion picture recently showed the orrors of this kind of existence. The poor, patient husband mentioned a breakfast dish that he liked-and had to have it every morning without fail until he protested, and then his wife's

"Secret of the Jewels"

Br DADDY

CHAPTER VI

Secret of the Pirates

We are bold had pirates
Who sail the stormy ses
No other hold pirates Are half so had as we.

was, "Shave off your whiskers and ished they rushed off to shave their whiskers and cut their bair, each one in astonishment and they found what Peggy and Billy said was true. They were all good, and new that their shiskers and hair were gone they could see the goodness in each other. And the one who looked the best of all was pirates in three cheers for Peggs and half an hour-

doing this secretly

DREAMLAND

THE subway was full, but not his comfort-except let him alone. Naturally, he became interested in another

THE too-considerate wife is like the L over-hospitable hostess. Instead of suggesting once that he do this or that, she commands that he do it because she just knows he will be more comfortable that way. And she insists and insists until he does it to keep her quiet. And she thinks complacently that she is taking care of him. A man is a funny creature. He likes to be made comfortable, and he likes to have his wife think about his pleasure and arrange for it; but he doesn't like to be compelled to be comfortable.

If he cannot have ease just because he wants it he would rather not have it at all. He would much rather stand up and hang in the subway than obey a command to go sit down.

He would even think that he much

MANY wives who have discontented husbands cannot understand why comfort," they grieve. "I don' why he shouldn't be contented."

No doubt for that very reason. They not too much for his comfort, but too obviously. They make him feel under obligations to them, and no man is going to be contented under those conditions.

If you want to keep him comfortable satisfied, too, don't let him know that you are thinking about his un-expressed wants and his needs and ful-

WHAT'S WHAT ADVENTURES

Pride is one thing; vanity is quite another. What is called "proper pride" often keeps people upright, preserve-self-respect and self-control, and forbids dissimulation. It has its own duct faults, of course, which t not space to discuss here, but it has

m itself. The vain girl or youth is deeply in love with self as to exclude other attachments. Every manly man, every womanly woman, is repelled by these self-adorers. Real beauty is never vain, an undue prizing of what nobody else values is so marked a char-acteristic of feeble minds that it is the first symptom. Still another pirate called Peggy and

He looked at her with eyes a bit wistful. "Then you understand."

She nodded once more. "I think I understand, and I think I know the explanation, and—"

"Never mind; I was going to keep my word with her—the one I met; but this releases me," he said quietly, relief in his tone. He rose to his feet. "But I—I would like to see you again—"

He looked at her with eyes a bit wistful. "Then you understand."

She nodded once more. "I think I understand, and I think I know the explanation, and—"

"Never mind; I was going to keep my word with her—the one I met; being the storms and longer and lon

Read Your Character By Digby Phillips

Fine hair, of the silky kind that has little curl or wave, is an indication of extreme sensitiveness in the person possive to their surroundings and through all the senses. They are adversely affeeted by anything harsh or discordant to a greater degree than the average.

In your mind go over the list of your friends and acquaintances in whom you have observed this type of fine, silky half an hour.

Just as she got through the ship humped the side of the damend again and the pirates had to go to work bringing it around again. When they the hair. Aren't all of them ready to take a hint without its being bluntly administered? It's because they are keenly sensitive to little changes in your manner, your tone, your choice of words. Instinctively they notice these things where many others are oblivious to neatly brushed bair. They looked more stand continued strain and like a trim navy erew than hold, had knocks. It's also different Captain Black-Eye, who had looked the Blight be utterly wasted on others, Teais really a most refreshing, economical and harmless summer beverage - TRY IT.

By CORINNE LOWE It is a long time before this Evanfront, it serves as a radiating point for the volumnious folds of the skirt.

To "Betty G. C."

"F. B."-And "Also Lonesome"

Luncheon-Cream soup, using celery, carrot, lettuce, cabbage, spinach for variety. Whole-wheat bread, butter, with raisins and prunes and peanut butter for sandwich filling. Pudding for dessert, cocoa.

Lunch: Two sandwiches, orange, banana or tomato in season. Cookies, cake or pie; and ettuce, cabbage or celery salad. Stewed fruit and cookies or home-made cake Milk for children. Tea for parents. Lamb, knuckle of veal and fish used Would Dance and Make Friends in rotation with baked navy beans, peas one refuses?

I have no girl friends and I would like very much indeed to get acquainted with some one of my own age.

Is it proper for me to go with and lave some boy friends? I would also like to know if a girl of my age should use a little powder.

I am allowed out until 10 o'clock and I would appreciate it very much if you could tell me how I might meet and acquaint myself with some friends.

ANNIE.

ANNIE.

didn't mean it.

And as they sang, the pirate who had called Peggy and Billy aside whispered his secret in their cars.

"I am not really a bold, bad pirate any more," he said, "I have been a good pirate for many, many years, It is only my whiskers and long hair make me look bad. I have to pretend I am a bad pirate because if Captain Black-Eye and all these other bad pirates knew I had turned good, they would make me

BUT IN GOOD STYLE

 With what accessory can a pretty touch of color be added to the How can a very acceptable prize for a bridge party be made with-out much trouble or expense?

in which the trimming presents a striking confrost.

sin, has enrolled as a student of psychology and sociology at the summer school of the University of a pansy.

An amusing "race" to have as a contest at the party held on the oval mirror in its center and a satin slippers has silver heels and a tracing of silver braid outlining the vamp and the straps.

know who had their hair cut But after all, that's something it did it for comfort and no other reason, takes a woman to understand! The Woman's Exchange sense.

Cleaning a Taffeta Dress To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—Kindly let me know through your helpful column how to clean a blue taffeta dress. PEGGY. Gasoline is excellent for cleaning taf-

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—In my cottage at the beach I have a bureau, the mirror of which is quite unsightly because of the mercury being worn off the back in low spots. spots.
Will you kindly advise what can be Merriny can be purchased at a drug store clean the bare spots on the morror very thoroughly, then spread a piece of tinfoil over them, on the back, and let a drop of the metallic mercury fall on it. Rub the tinfoil until it becomes bright and shiny, then spread a clean piece of paper over the top and place a book on it to weigh it down and press it upon the mirror and leave it over night. This is not easy to do as the edges must be carefully subhed down to be

This is not easy to do as the edges must be carefully rubbed down to be smooth and even. But, even if you do not make a perfect job of it, you will at least cover the "bald" spots.

What Girls Can Do To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Your column is wonderful. IDLE M.

The name Ethel has an Anglo-Saxon origin its meaning is "noble." Dorothea was a Greek name, meaning "gift of God."

There are two varieties of sweet peas perennials and annual plants. The perennials and annual plants. The perennials are usually climbing or vine-like sweet peas. Nasturtiums are annual flowers. Both sweet peas and nasturtiums bloom in the late spring and early summer.

The Junior Vacation Bress and the stars of tried sleeping with and without them. Every sleeping with and without them. Every sleeping with and without them. Every sleeping porch devotes knows the immense difference between his porch and a bed indoors, however near an open window; while the difference between thinly screened and open and a bed and outdoor hammock is the difference between thinly screened and open and a bed indoors, however near an open window; while the difference between this porch and a bed indoors, however near an open window; bed and outdoor hammock is the difference between this porch and a bed indoors, however near an open window; while the difference between thinly screened and open The Junior Vacation Bureau, 1522 Cherry street, will gladly help you in getting employment. You could swim at some of the pools in town, play tenon a girl five feet three inches, brown eyes, brown hair and olive complexion, nineteen years old?

What clothes should be taken on a vacation in the mountains?

Her staring friend burst out, "You cold-blooded witch, do you know him?" will have saw him, never knew him, never heard of him. "Was the brie answer. "Ah, there's the telephone finished whimsically.

How can large hands be made to appear smaller A READER.

pear smaller

A READER.

By rubbing ice on the face daily and using a good astringent cream you retained to find how fresh it so if possible, wash your dress in open air, for gasoline is inflamole and is dangerous to work with fire.

Repairing a Mirror

Repairing a wear should be taken on a trip to the well you kindly advise what can done to this mirror so that it will not be such an eyesore?

A DAILY READER.

Merrury can be purchased at a drug

Merrury can be purchased at a drug

Wear should be taken on a trip to the mountains. If you are going to a resort, the above organdle would be dainty and cool for afternoon or evening. Take several like it and one evening dress.

Wear large rings instead of small.

dainty ones. Keep your nails well manicured and I am sure your hands will not be noticeably over-large. Flaring cuffs on long sleeves make one's hands appear small. The first paragraph answers Phoebe also. Sleeping Porches

Dear Madam—Will you kindly tell be the meaning of the name Ethel and liso the name Dorothy?

Are sweet peas and nasturtiums an unal plants. How long do sweet peas of split bamboo, which may not be employed below stairs, will probably be in ployed below stairs. bloom?

Is there any work that could be done by a girl who is under sixteen in the evenings. Also, will you please tell me what two girls can do during the long number days if there are no recreation parks nearby besides helping mother? summer days if there are no recreation to any one who has not been parks nearby besides helping mother? with and without them. Every sleeping with and without them. Every sleeping porch devotes knows the immense difference to the parks of the parks of

It is to be noted that there is an in-

The New Wrap

Chinchilla cloth forms the greater part of it, brocaded allk makes the

THE DAILY NOVELETTE Verily the Gods

By A. W. PEACH "What do you think!" Beth Mills lifted the blue, quizzienl eyes from the sewing in her lap and repeated the excited sentence of the friend. "'What do I think?' I shall think you out of your mind if you don't Milk.

when I fell you that there's a man going to marry you." Edith went on. Beth smiled a moderate smile. "I

That was the reason for nine out of every ten bobbings. "My hair was pretty, but it made me nervous," you will hear, if you ask them why they did not taken out a license, and it gives judged as lacking something that should be underneath the wig.

star is printing the names of those after a license; and it must be you, raime and address. See! She thrust the newspaper in front of Beth. Beth put aside her needle and calmly took the paper. There was a man's face, and under it a brief run of type which said in effect that Marden Campbell, a young engineer who had invented a new mining process, was stopping in the city long enough to wed Miss

Still another pirate ealled Peggy and the form abscess and boils which had tormented being now please give me your advice on these questions? Thank you.

What of Accepting Presents?

Still another pirate ealled Peggy and billy aside, and to their surprise told important the treat of instance of instanc used to say I ought to marry a viking or a hobo. I wonder which he is?"

A gay voice, touched with the tone glad to see you. had been the bane of her mother's life bluff, without fear.

up his mind in some crazy way to the shore last summer did you engage marry me; I really believe he would. yourself to a man by the name of He certainly looks like the kind dad (Campbell, and did you use my name used to call a he-man."

About Building Health With Proper Diet

Later This Should Be Left Out at Times

LUNCHEON

DINNER

Baked Dried Beans with Peas and Len-

Cheese or Egg Cutlets
Eggplant Croquettes or Sauteed
Baked Stuffed Tomatoes or Green

Peppers

Pot Roast of Beef once a week

Isamb Stew once a week

Fish once a week

This family gained total weight of fourteen pounds in three weeks. Mother's rheumatism was much better and there were no visits to the drug vised dietary there was a little saving.

Another family of five, three children, mother and father, with a weekly budg-

Breakfast-Stewed fruit; cereal and coffee for parents and cocoa for chil-purchased pint bottle of milk.

and cheese pudding for variety.

Materials for one day: Two quarts of B milk,

One quart of skim milk.

One-half pound of butter,

Tico pounds lamb for stew.
Whole icheat bread, made at home

One-half package of raisins, One-fourth glass of peanut butter, Orange for father's lunch.

Cereal,

Potatoes.

pensive).

thus came home to lunch.

THE most effective weapon against Potato Salad With Deviled Eggs Reheated Dried Beans, Peas or Lentils THE most effective weapon against Stewed Fruit Home-Made Cookies Tea distance against the various germs and bacteria that cause disease, while the ciling person or one with chronic indibothold upon the ladder of health. From two and one-half to three quarts of liquid are necessary every stream of a desired consistency, as well the body remove the waste waste from worn-out tissues. Failure to cheese in place of ment. Often one meets a housewife who has | dren.

Incidentals

His strong hand folded around hers

As soon as he had gone she hurried upstairs, swung open a door and faced thim; yes, she would be glad to see him. He could come right over.

"Good heavens, suppose he has made"

"Grace McAyer, when you were at"

"Grace McAyer, when you were at"

"Grace McAyer, when you were at" "Grace McAyer, when you were at not angry with you; for, well, you see, I—no you won't and ou never will—but I like the idea of a—a honeymoon in South America."

The material of the frock is organdie shop for physic. The approximate table allowance in this family was $25 letter will be answered in the Exchange.

Just a Line to "Discouraged" and wanted. I am not a "goody" or anything like it, but I don't claim to be a "sport," either. I would rather have h girl as a pal and friend. It is the same. Try to find them. "I couraged."

Beth commented.

Her staring friend burst out, "You cold-blooded witch, do you know him,"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief answer. "Ah, there's the telephone; suppose—"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief answer. "Ah, there's the telephone; suppose—"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief answer. "Ah, there's the telephone; suppose—"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief answer. "Ah, there's the telephone; suppose—"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief answer. "Ah, there's the telephone; suppose—"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief answer. "Ah, there's the telephone; suppose—"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief answer. "Ah, there's the telephone; suppose—"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief answer. "Ah, there's the telephone; suppose—"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief answer. "Ah, there's the telephone; suppose—"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief answer. "Ah, there's the telephone; suppose—"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief answer. "Ah, there's the telephone; suppose—"

"Edith, I never saw him, never heard of him*" was the brief saled them into his cabin. "I have a secret to tell you." he whispered. "This heing shut up took the badness out of may always be already made, according to the waist starding relation to tack hooks and eyes on the unless you intend to marry him or are feet. "But I—I would like to see you."

"Never accept costly gifts from a man on the brief of them into his cabin. "I have a standing Flow." Now we shall see if they head onto many him or are feet. "But I—I would like to see you."

"Now we shall see if they head onto many him or are feet. "But I—I would like to see you."

"Now we shall see accept costly gifts from a man of the him to tak hooks and even on the head of the minto his cabin. "I have a standing I ha Magple. "Bad pirates," said Peggy, "we Chintz Shades A sun porch can be made very attract have come to save you. But the only tive with chintz shades on rollers, decorated with silk fringe and tassels. If the porch is small it is better to have cushions of plain glazed chintz of harmonious effect for wicker or decorated furniture, that the decortive effect may not be overdone. If one has the glazed so that secret in your ear.

So the pirates formed in line and came one by one to Peggy, who whis-pered a secret in their ears. What was

The Question Corner Today's Inquiries

For the woman who dislikes various bottles scattered over her dressing table, what kind of re-ceptucles for cologue, etc., would be appropriate? What kind of confest, requiring

Yesterday's Answers

orated in yellow would look well with yellow organdie curtains stitched in brown. A quaint little purse for dressy occasions is a that one, beaded in the colors and made in the shape powder box dangling from its

I had turned good, they would make me walk the plank. Peggy and Billy

We are nice good pirates
Who sail the stormy sea.
No other nice pirates
Are half so good as we.

seesing it.
Such persons, you will find, are quite Such persons, You will find are quite keen in their perceptions. They may not be keen intellectually, or they may, but invariably they are keenly respon-

At the end of the built hour they them. rushed upon deck again. But my, what a different looking crew they were. In stend of fierce whiskers and long hair ones among the men, but muscularity is they had cleanly shaven faces and a different thing from the ability to They're not rugged people, these fines courage and sense of days which often "Harrah?" shouted Peggy and Billy impel people to subject themselves to "Look at each other. You are all these things. But you can bet that the And the pirates looked at each other silken-haired man doesn't like the hard knocks and that the silken-haired girl spoken word or the coude jest. On the other hand, if you take the trouble to find out, you'll learn that they are both little courtesies and considerations that

"SALADA"