CLEARED AS SLACKER

Fred Thiema, of Chester, Pa., Listed by Error
 Fred Thiema, of Chester, Pa., was cleared of the charge of being a draft dodger and deserter today by the War Department, which blamed the local Draft Board for an error which caused his name to be published in the "Slacker List."
 Thiema registered with the local board for Division No. 2, at Chester. He was ordered to report for physical examination July 2, 1918, but did not report until September 6, 1918. He was found fit for service, but never inducted.
 Through a clerical error a delinquent order was sent him ordering him to report to the Adjutant General of Pennsylvania October 23, 1918, although he already had reported, and following the expiration of that date he was certified as a deserter.
