

JUST AFTER THEY STARTED. Four of the entries in the first heat of the 2:10 trot during the opening day of the Grand Circuit meeting at Belmont yesterday afternoon. Jane the Great, shown second in photograph, won the heat. It was for the A. B. Mathews Cup and a purse. Ledger Photo Service

THE WINNER. Walter Cox, who drove Jane the Great to victory in the 2:10 trot race at Belmont, is receiving the cup from A. B. Mathews, a Philadelphian. Ledger Photo Service

MADAM DILLON (in foreground) in the second heat of The Directors, 2:17 trot, was the winner. This horse finally won the Joshua Evans Cup for this event. Ledger Photo Service

MISS CATHARINE UBIL celebrated her 100th birthday anniversary at the Home for Indigent Widows and Single Women. L. P. S.

HOLDING THE CROWN. Ready to crown the bard at National Eisteddfod in Wales. C. S. P.

ORDERED TO LEAVE THEIR HOMES. Two hundred and seventy-eight families living in apartments at Harriman Townsite Village, near Bristol, have been ordered to leave by September 30 by the United States Shipping Board. The mailman was snapped while delivering mail to the villagers. Mrs. L. M. Randolph (left) is showing her eviction notice to her neighbor. Ledger Photo Service

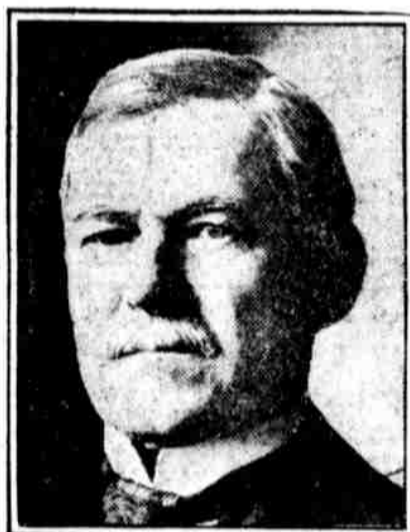

WITH TWO BOTTLES. Katherine and Mary Ryan, both Philadelphia citizens, keeping a close watch on the bathers as they work hard on the milk supply of Atlantic City. Ledger Photo Service BROTHERS. Former Judge Mayer Sulzberger (left) and Joseph Sulzberger snapped on the Boardwalk in Atlantic City. L. P. S.

ANSWERING A CALL FOR HELP. Three members of the Atlantic City beach patrol jump from their station as a cry from the surf is heard. Ledger Photo Service

JOHN FREDERICK LEWIS discusses the "Three-Mile Limit" in Editorial Page interview. L. P. S.

SURROUNDED BY THE ATLANTIC. Miss Mazzie Gleason, of 4501 North Carlisle street, sitting where the breakers don't hit hard at Atlantic City. Ledger Photo Service

PLAYED ON LAND AND WATER. The girls at Lake Hopatcong, New Jersey, have a "put-and-take" top that they use in the water. The game is played in the same manner as in parlor or office. Bathing suits must have pockets, so that the pennies can be carried into the water. Keadel & Herbert

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

EDWARD SARKISIAN, 5831 Pemberton street, evaporating radium solutions in the plant of the W. L. Cummings Chemical Company, Lansdowne. Constant stirring by the workman is necessary. Ledger Photo Service

ROBERT H. TROY, a flagman with his flag, along the Reading Railway at McAuley John Ch... Ledger Photo Service

JOHN LONG, 6114 Spruce street. He has been in service ten years. Route: Chestnut to Walnut, 11th to 12th street. Ledger Photo Service

EDWARD TRIST, a Philadelphia man, returns from a cruise with the naval reserves. L. P. S.

TWO STARS. Little Jackie Coogan, of movie fame, called on Ignace Paderewski at the latter's California ranch. L. P. S.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE W. WARD, of Cynwyd, at the Black-and-White Ball in New London, Conn. Many Philadelphians were there. L. P. S.

MAIL!