'We have four more games here," he said; "two tomorrow and two on We should take a majority, meaning three or more. Friday. Maranville got off a beautiful 20-yard drive on the second, the ball lodging in a muddy bank. Twenty minutes later he arrived on the second, the ball longing personal visit to all of the rough spots and bunkers, tired but happy. "We go to Boston from here," he stated breathlessly, "but that gang don't worry us. We should knock 'em off without any trouble. Gimme an S' for this hole."

Judging from his conversation, the Rabbit is confident of getting into another World Series this year, which is not at all strange with the Pirates five games out in front. As the match progressed he had little opportunity Gto talk, because of his distance from the other members of the sevensome. Bigbee was noncommittal, as his iron shots were not so good and he had troubles of his own. Tierney wasn't asked for an opinion, because he is a freshman on the team.

"NEVER played on a better ball club." said Maranville frankly, at the end of the ninth hole. "We play ball in the afternoon, sing at night and play golf on rainy days. Can't beat a combination like And the Rabbit left the links after making a snappy 57-three that. more than Bighee and four more than Tierney.

Manager Gibson Refuses to Be Optimistic

THE Pittsburgh players are battling hard to keep in first place, but feel confident they will win the pennant this year. They have been out in front a long time, but are not cracking under the strain. Every game is a hard one and the players are hustling to win. That hustling spirit is the secret of their success. Nothing is taken for granted. For example, in one of the games on Tuesday a short fly was hit into right field. Grimm, Tierney and Robertson went after it, showing that every man is on his toes and alert to do something.

George Gibson is the only member of the troupe who is not an optimist. "Every time I hear talk about winning the pennant." he said, "I remember what happened in 1014. We had a great club that year and won fourteen of the first seventeen games played. We were going strong until the first Eastern trip, and we flopped. We received such a lacing that we never recovered. I don't expect the same thing to happen this year, but you can't drag a word out of me regarding the pennant chances of the club. We are out to win games. From now on every battle is a World Series.

"But I must admit we are in better shape that at any other time this season. We haven't a man on the hospital list and the pitchers are going strong. Davy Robertson has been a great help to us and is playing good Carey, Bigbee, Whitted and Rowher are the other outfielders, and I believe they are the best in the business.

"Tony Brottem also has helped us. He is a first-class catcher and surprised every one with his work while Schmidt was hurt. He can go in any time and catch a good game. The pitching sthff is in Cooper, Hamilton, Adams, Glazner, Morrison, Zinn, Carlson and Lyle Bigbee are ready to go at any minute. Bigbee, you will remember, played with the Athletics last year and early this season. If the burlers remain in shape we will not have much trouble.

"WE PLAY Boston, New York and Brooklyn after leaving here, and I can't help but feel we will have a good road trip. On our first journey we had a lot of cripples and won nine out of twelve games. We took nine out of fifteen on the second, and hope to do better this time. If we do we will have a big advantage, for all of the other games, with the exception of two in Cincinnati and four in St. Louis, will be played at home."

Barnhardt, Third Baseman, Comes From Swarthmore

NE of the reasons for the success of the Pittsburgh club this year is lyde L. Barnhardt, the kid third baseman. Clyde stepped into the hot corner this season and played such a wonderful game that George Whitted was shifted to the outfield, where he is of more value to the team. George was a good third-sacker, but feels more at home in the outer garden.

Barnhardt is a local boy and started to play ball in Media six years He attended the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and also worked for Victor Shirer, the well-known and only druggist in Swarthmore, Pa. Every Saturday he played with Media and later joined the Blue Ridge League. He was an outfielder in those days.

Two years ago he was playing with a semi-pro club in Williamsport and was discovered by Bill Hinchman, who was on a scouting tour. Clyde did not make much of an impression in the training camp last year and was sent to Birmingham to play third base. This proved to be a lucky move, for the youngster burned up the lengue, battel .322 and fielded .016. His field-ing has improved considerably this year under the coaching of Maranville, and they say he will be a real star next year.

BARNHARDT and Therney are the youngsters in the infield, with George Cutshaw on deck ready to step in in case of injury. Thus the infield is well taken care of.
