don, Aug. 18 .- Optimism on the Irish situation is still being expressed today in British official circles. This attitude is considered justifiable in the lack of definite rejection of the Government's terms by the Dail Eireann, although reports from Dublin furnish scant basis for optimism.

This also is the opinion erity of his uncompromising statements of the last two days, the officials being reluctant to believe an offer which to them appeared so generous would be rejected outright.

Bergdoll Flees Germany: Switzerland His Refuge

Berlin, Aug. 17 .- Grover Cleveland Bergdoll has fled into Switzerland, from which country he cannot be extradited. The first intimation here came in a dispatch that he had left Baden and had been seen in Switzerland. It is not known whether he felt that the American agents attempting to arrest him were likely to succeed, but his action will be a source of embarrassment to the German Foreign Office, which was responsible for his safekeeping.

Rich Beneficiaries

will be paid sooner than expected. Referring to the debt of other countries engaged in the war, he pointed out that Great Britain's debt was equal to 45 per cent of national wealth, France's lett told the police he telephoned here was even a greater per cent and Gerto kill himself. many's was 125 per cent, including the indemnity.

Then turning to an attack of Democratic policies during the war, Mr. Fordney pointed out the cost of the Government had been increased from 1,000,000,000 to $6,000,000,000 a year and the number of governmental ployes from 400,000 to 1,000,000. ittacked the employment by the Shipping Board of many more employes than he said, was necessary. Just before going out of office, the last secretary of the Shipping Board, Mr. Fordney said. employed eighty persons at salaries ranging from $2000 to $3500, and in ondon the board had employed 400 lerks where twenty were necessary. Heckled as to why he voted to take the railroads over during the war, Mr. Fordney said: "I voted to put the President in a hole, and we did.'

When attacked subsequently for this statement, Mr. Fordney remonstrated he made it "jokingly," but in his speech he said, "Our fooling and tampering with the railroads cost us more than $4,000,000,000 and Mr. Burleson shows that fooling with the telephones cost the people $14,000,000." His attack Democratic activities covered Democratic activities from President Wilson's trips to Paris where, he said, he "strutted around like a peacock" to the alleged making of a contract by the Shipping Board with a mule dealer in New York.

Mr. Garner, answering Mr. Fordney, said Republicans had given $2,800,-000 000 to the railready and were about 000,000 to the railroads and were about to give $500,000,000 more. Taking up the tax law, he charged Republicans of the Ways and Means Committee had withheld information on the measure from other members of the House.

The new tax bill, he said, shifts the burdens from the rich to the masses. The Secretary of the Trensury had only one object, he alleged, and that was the relief of the rich and not the poor.
