Nancy Wynne Talks of the Tennis at Southampton. Philadelphians Attend Interesting Events at Newport

TENNIS, tennis, everywhere! It is almost getting to be our national game. Baseball fans take notice! But really it is remarkable how the game is followed, and how many take it up. Philadelphians are by no means behind the ranks in prowess. We have had some great players from this town. Indeed do we not lay claim to the great the Kappa Sigma Sorority has re-Indeed do we not lay claim to the great Tilden himself? And look at the fine players in the courts now both men and

THERE is a tournament up at South-Tampton this week, besides the big excitement at Forest Hills, and Billy Clothier has been doing splendid playing up there. He was n'aying yestering up there. He was n'aving yester-day for the Meadow Club Cup. The ennis there was witnessed by about wo hundred people—Mrs. James Francis Sullivan and Frankie and Bessie Dilworth and Lucile Carter and everal other Philadelphians. Anita Strawbridge has been staying in Southampton for some time and watched the tennis eagerly yesterday. Mrs. Sullivan looked very smart in an exquisite gown of white crepe de chine or rather canton crepe, for it was heavier than crepe de chine. The bodice was embroidered in silken floss; and the skirt, which was rather long, had a band of embroidery above the Her hat was a rather small model black neapolitan, trimmed with glycerined ostrich.

MRS. GEORGE LEARY, of New York, gave a dance for her son, George Jr., at Hawthorn House, her villa in Southampton. It was to have been for members of the younger set entirely; but what with the tennis and visitors there, it developed into quite a large affair, taking in the visiting tennis players and their wives, and number of the young married set of T HEAR that Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belat the Golf Club in Newport on the evening of August 27. It is to be for Muriel Vanderbilt and Helen Moran, who are great belles this summer. Muriel is not spending the summer at Newport. Her family are in South-ampton, but she has been visiting the Loew girls and a number of other people, and this ball will be given as one of the big final events of the sea-son. The following week, August 29, will see the opening of the Newport horse show, which is an annual event of late August up there.

THERE was excitement among the L kiddies at Bailey's Beach yesterday. for they entered into a sand-modeling ontest, for which Francis Burke Roche had offered prizes. It was quite a big event, and all the parents turned out to witness the work of their children. The prizes were won by Olive Whitman and Beatrice Greenough. Olive is the daughter of the Charles Whitmans, of w York, and Beatrice is the child the William Greenoughs. They modeled a donkey's head and it was excellent. The two little daughters of the Count and Countess Szechenyi modeled a castle, for which they received high commendation, and Evelyn Clark and

My sister Gladdis was mad at me to day for about five diffrent reasons, and I was setting out on the frunt steps this afternoon and I smelt a certain smell, thinking, G, Gladdis is making fudge.

Wich I went back in the kitchin to look, and she was, me standing there a wile smelling it out loud and then saying. O boy, Ive smelt some grate smells before but I never smelt eny as grate

Well Im glad you injoy the smell = because thats about as mutch as youre going to get of it, sed Gladdis. Being a hint that I wasent going to eat eny of it, and I stood there a wile longer like somebody that cant take hints, saying, You certeny know how to make fudge, Gladdis, I bet if there was a contest of everybody in the hole city to see who could make the best fudge, I bet you would get ferst prize easy.

Im glad you know how good it is because otherwise you'd never find out,

Being a even stronger of a hint that

I wasent going to get eny, me thinking, Well gosh, Im going to ask her rite out, Ill soon find out. And I sed, Hay Glad-Mr. and Mrs. John E. D. Coffey and their family, of Rose Valley, left on Monday for Maine, where they will be until some time in September.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Morgan, of Honolulu, will arrive in a short time for a visit of several months in and about Philadelphia. Mrs. Morgan will be remembered as Miss Elsie Johnson, of Media. they would fire you out as soon as they got the ferst smell of yours so you wouldent even have the honor of coming in last, and wats more, I dont care who knows it.

> And I made a fearse face and wen out on the frunt steps agen. Proving you cant bleeve everything everybody says unless you know wy they say it.

New Way to Curl Hair Fine for Outdoor Girl

The silmerine method of curling the hair is the proper thing before going boating, motoring or goifing, or indulging in any outdoor sport or exercise. This will not only give the hair the most beautiful wavy the hair the most beautiful wavy and curly appearance imaginable, but wind or heat will not take the curl out. The curliness is quickly acquired and lasts much longer than where waving tongs are used. Besides, the hair will be bright and lustrous, instead of duil and dead looking. When combed out it will be as nice and fluffy as if it had just been shampooed.
