It Takes a Home Run With Three Runners on Base to Get Thrill Out of Baseball Fans Here

TWENTY-FIVE HOMERS ON ELEVEN STRAIGHT PLAYING DAYS HERE

Phils Lead League in Circuit Clouts With Sixty-eight, While A's Hold Second Place to New York Yankees

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

HOME RUNS are getting to be common things. They scarcely draw a thrill from the everyday fan out at our ball lots. If there basn't been at least one swat to the bleachers or over the fence before the hired men wash up the four-bit gents feel that they have been cheated out of their coin of the realm. The home run today at Shibe Park or Mr. Baker's real estate must have added attractions to be a success.

Now, then, that first lift to the bleachers off the bat of Davy Robertson yesterday was an honest home run that thrills. It didn't bring much of a ivering sensation along the spine to the home folk because it was hit by Davy, but to the Pirates, when three of their clan were resting on the cushions. it meant something else again. There always will be a thrill in a circuit clout with three on, but a common four-ply wallop is a home run and that's all. The nonchalance with which the fans are taking round-trippers is due to the fact that they are coming, not now and then, but every day. A look over the box scores of the games played in this town of W. Penn during the last eleven playing days proves this fact conclusively. There have been twenty-nine homers on local lots in eleven consecutive playing days. Sixteen of these twenty-nine lengthy swats were made either by Phils or A's, which accounts for the fact that our ball clubs are among the leaders in to Babe Ruth and the Yanks when it comes to slamming homers, and the Phils are at the top in the parent league. With Babe Ruth swelling the total, the Hugmen have gathered a grand and glorious total of ninety-four circuit clouts, and, of course, are more than a hop, step and jump in front of the A's. But the Mackmen have sixty-nine homers to their credit, which is quite a showing for a tail-end ball club-yes Even Ty Cobb and his slugging Tigers can't match our athletes. De-

Correct Slant on W. Johnson

SOME bird with a statistical mind came out with a statement recently that Walter Johnson had cracked the major league strike-out record, but Al Munro Elias, another demon figger figgerer, arises in meeting to deny the ory. Ambitious Al claims that Walter has fanned only 2775 batters during his fifteen years of service. Get that ONLY? On August 13 Walter whiffed eight of the Boston Red Sox and that brought his total to this figure. However, on Thursday Walter added four more victims to his list. Therefore his

But Cy Young, the grand old man of baseball, still holds the crown. It's toppling from his dome, but it's still there. Young struck out 2790 batsmen in his twenty-two years with the Cleveland, St. Louis, Boston Americans and Nationals. There is no question about Walter being able to get the record, for all he has to do is to whiff twelve more and the record will Christy Mathewson also is high up among the strike-out leaders. In seventeen years Christy fanned 2297. Even at that, he is not in the same class with Johnson and Young.

It must be remembered, however, that while Young and Mathewson made their records in twenty-two and seventeen years respectively, Walter compiled all of his strike-outs in fifteen years. The Senator also has it on Cy in the number of strike-outs piled up in one season. The best Cy ever did was to fan 207 in one year. This was done in 1910. The year previous he

FOR five years in succession—1911-1917—Johnson faunced more than 200 batters. His best year was 1910, when 313 men were forced out by the three-strike route by the only Walter.

Another Tough Slate for Pitt

WHEN it comes to arranging hard football schedules the University of Pittsburgh is in a class by itself. It seems that every game is a hard one out there, and the harder the better. Last year Warner's men met West Virginia. Syracuse. Lafayette, Georgia Tech, Penn, Washington and lefferson and Penn State in a row, and this year the schedule is just as tough After a preliminary warm-up with Geneva at Beaver Falls, Pa., on September 24 the Panthers meet Lafayette at Easton on October 1. This is the most important football game ever played so early in the season and will pry off the gridiron lid with a big bang. West Virginia comes next, and will be followed by the University of Cincinnati, Syracuse, Penn. Nebraska, Washington and Jefferson and Penn State. Try that schedule on your victrola. Nothing has been said about the prospects of the team for this year, but Warner should not worry. He has twenty varsity men left over from last year and seventeen from the freshman eleven. Ten scrubs also will be put through the paces and given a thorough tryout.

Practice will begin on September 6 at Camp Hamilton, Wimber, Pa. This is the training camp used by Pittsburgh every year, having been donated by Alexander Hamilton, one of the prominent alumni who has boosted football for years. Warner keeps the men up there for two weeks and gets more work out of the men than an ordinary coach in two months. Morning and afternoon practices are held, and when they leave they are in shape to play

Warner has sent a personal letter to every member of the squad, pointing out that he expects keen competition for all of the positions and urging every one to begin light training at once. He also said that preference would be shown to the first men to report.

This year "Pop" will be assisted by Pat Moran, the greatest end that ever played in Pittsburgh; Floyd Rose and Alex Stevenson. Pitt has a great nucleus for a good eleven this fall, with all of the veterans to draw from. In addition to Captain Tom Davies there are Herb

Stein, last year's captain; Anderson, Bond, Bowser, Byers, Clark, Clawson, Cook, Elias, Ewing, Gourley, Harman, Harnett, Hewitt, Holleran Jordan, Kelly, Magarrall, Markowitz, Miller, Montieth, McLean, Sacks, Simpson and There are many promising freshmen from last year's team, including

THE game with Geneva is not serious, but preparations are now being made for the Lafayette contest on October 1. Last year the Margon and White outplayed Pitt, but lost by a close score, Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Company

INDIANS IDLE BUT MOVE INTO FIRST

White Sox Stop Yanks-Hubbell's Twirling Gives Phils Even Break

CURTISS WALKER IS SICK

There is an old adage that rend comething to the effect that it never pays to be idle. Cleveland fans and th players, too, for that matter, are inclined to believe otherwise, Yesterday the Indians had a day of rest and chance for their shot pitching staff to collect itself. The Yanks had to work and in doing so made the day a profitable one for the world's champions who were resting.

Rip Collins, whose streak of victoric had mounted to seven, was on the hill for the Yanks against the White Sox and he never had a chance, being driven from the mound early in the fray. Thir-teen runs were scored by the relentless Sox, who like the Mackmen have proven a thorn in the side of one of the chief pennant contenders. Eddle Collins and his pals had a field day at bat, slamming out twenty-one hits for a number of bases not yet tabulated.

On the other hand Hodge for the Sox was thumped quite lively, but the great lead given to him by his mates made his work much the easier. He and the other Sox pitcher were walloped for twelve safeties.

The defeat put the Yanks back in sec ond place and enabled the Indians to breathe the fresh air at the top. The Yanks move on to St. Louis this afternoon, when they will have anything but an easy time of it. George Sisler and his Missourian mates have been play-ing better ball than any team in the league of late, and they are anxious to triumph over the Yanks. The Indians meet the Red Sox, who have been going poorly this last while back.

Pirates Lose a Half Game *

In the other league the Pirates dropped a half game by evening a twin bill with the Phils, while the Giants were stopping the Reds. The old Pirate machine was only a notch back of the Orioles, the Boston combination of Tenney, Lowe, Long and Collins, the old Cubs and the Athletics of 1911.

There is no club in baseball today that might be classed as one of the great machines of the game. Just as the past had no "Babe," Ruth.

MIKE GIBBONS is now all poised to take a running jump at either

turers' Circuit in Series

From the present trend of affairs in the Industrial Baseball League there is every likelihood that the championship will be determined by the playing of a three-cornered series, in which

Dividing the season's playing schedule into two series has proved very profitable by a number of leagues, ther this year and made the playing running in the next series. They were, and won in the same easy manner as Hohlfeld copped the first.

Fox Motor was a newcomer in the second group of games and now motorists appear to have the edge on all their rivals, and it is freely predicted that they have the best chance to win out. Hohlfeld and Ivins, how-series will be arranged to determine the winner, and it is more than likely that a series for the industrial championship of the city will be played with he pennant winner in the Philadelphia Manufacturers' League, which will be either Liggett & Myers or DeFrain Any of these five teams are capable
