

A FAST TWO YEAR OLD. Helen Dillon, winner of the William Penn event, at the Grand Circuit races on Belmont track, Narberth, yesterday, speeding past the judges' stand. Ledger Photo Service

THEY GOT THE WORD. Six of the entries in the first heat of the William Penn race at Narberth as they make their getaway. The winner, Helen Dillon, is owned by A. B. Coxe, of Paoli, and was driven by Joe Serrill. The cup was presented by John M. Burroughs. Ledger Photo Service

CONFERENCE WITH THE "UMP." Manager Carroll, of the Marshall E. Smith ball team (left) discussing ground rules with Empire Doyle, Rose, a fielder of the store team, at the right. Ledger Photo Service

HIGH DIVING. Three park benches were used to build the high-diving platform by the boys at Concourse Lake, Fairmount Park. They would rather dive than swim. George Smith was snapped as he went into the water. Ledger Photo Service

RALPH OBENCHAIN. His former wife held as murder accomplice in California. I. P. S.

GERHARD HAUPTMANN, author and playwright, appealed to the world for help for Russia. He was snapped in Berlin with Mrs. Hauptmann. W. W. Photo

MRS. PHILLIP STEVENSON, of Philadelphia, hurrying to the beach at Narragansett Pier, R. I. U. S. S.

MISS KATHERINE STEWART and Fred E. Camp, both Philadelphians, are having a good time on Scarborough Beach, Narragansett. Keystone View Co.

LEWIS R. HARLEY talks on the duty of the community in an Editorial Page interview. I. P. S.

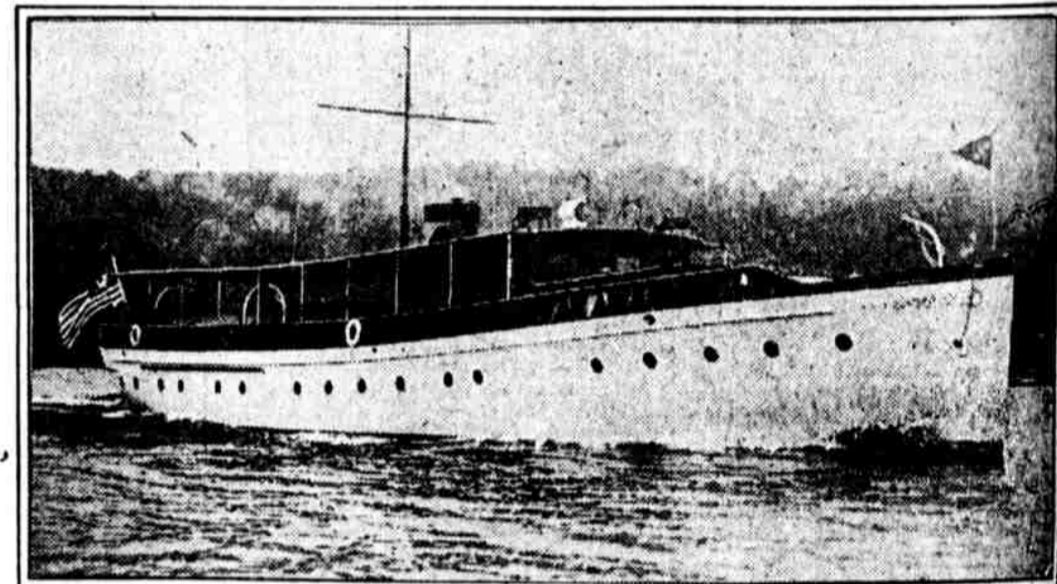

FANCY SHOW AND GAMES. Children of the Thomas School, Eighth and Clearfield streets, held a carnival of which Dorothy Betz was the queen. The girls are showing parents how to enjoy the giant swing. I. P. S.

THE WINNERS. In a modern dance competition by the Tres-Bien Country Club Miss Helen Ashman won first prize; Miss Nellie Sweeney, second, and Miss Katherine Donahue, third. I. P. S.

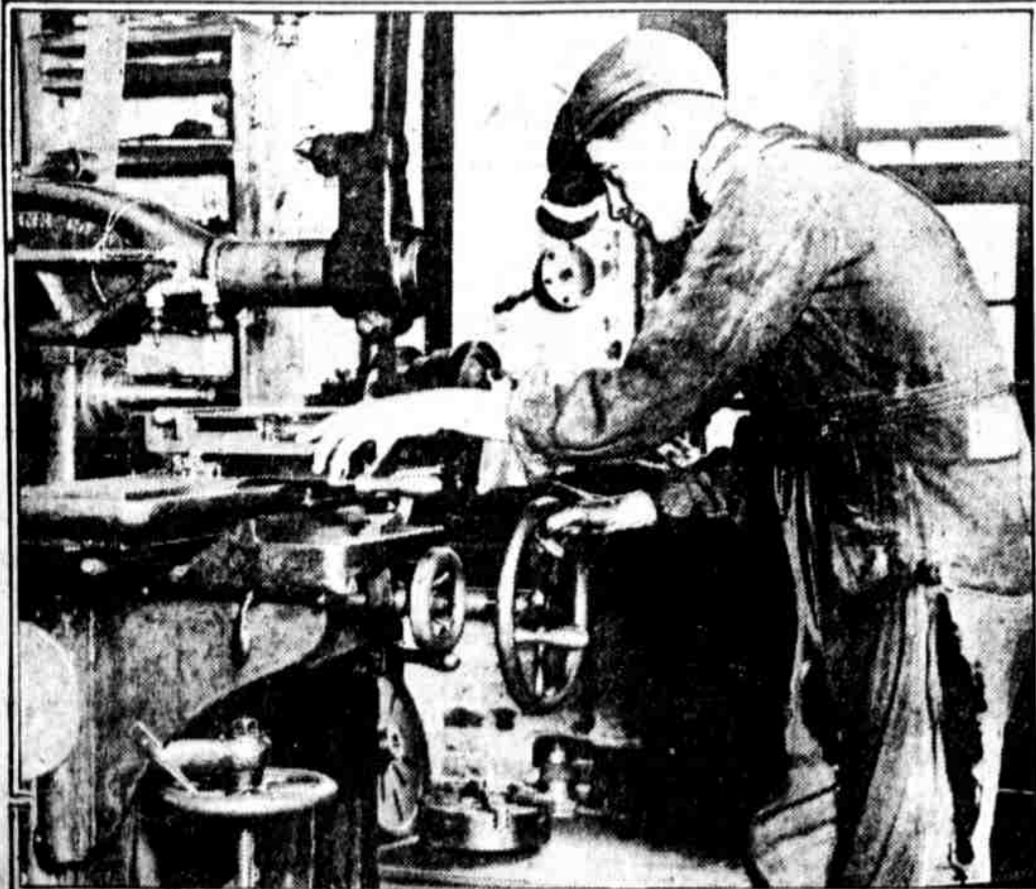

BASKETBALL. Beatrice Freiberg, Cecelia Gider and Ruth Nusbaum in a hard battle after the ball at the Furness School. I. P. S.

THE SPEEDJACKS. Their ninety-eight-foot boat left New York yesterday for a trip around the world, a distance of 40,000 miles. Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Gowen, of Chicago, and a crew of six men will attempt the voyage. Central News Photo

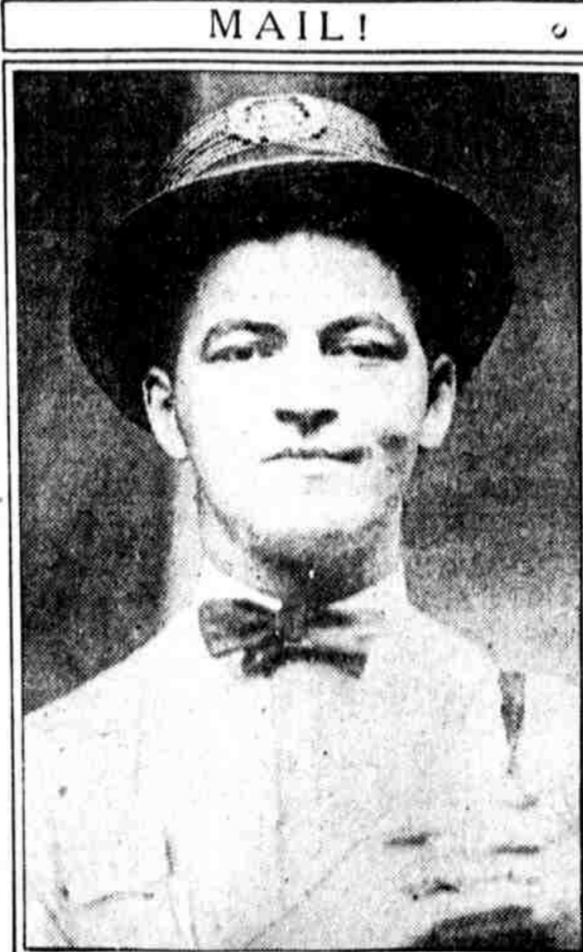

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

ALBERT VOGT, 37 North Sixty-second street, running a milling machine that cuts keyways in brake shafts at the rate of ten an hour in the factory of the Meteor Motors Corporation, 3607-15 Lancaster avenue. Ledger Photo Service

CAPT. HUGH MACILVAR, of Salvation Army, with Camden children, part of group taken on outing to Clementon Lake. I. P. S.

FRANK MORRIS, 416 South Twenty-fourth street, has been in the mail service for seven years. He serves the Drexel Building. I. P. S.

INA CLAIRE, the American actress, aboard the Paris on her return from France, where she spent vacation. I. P. S.

THROWING OUT HER NET. Helen McMahon trying to gather in a few minnows at Concourse Lake in Fairmount Park. Her sister stands close. I. P. S.