EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, AUGUST 22, 1921

The Heart Pirate

By HAZEL DEVO BATCHELOR Copyright, 1981, by Public Ledger Company

This is the first installment of the This is the first installment of the story of a girl who becomes engaged to the wrong man, and who doesn't feel quite right about it. Many a girl has this disturbing experience, feel quite right about it. Many a pirl has this disturbing experience, and the working out of the problem. as well as the unexpected and excit-ing events which take place, will prove deeply interesting, written as they ore in Mrs. Batchelor's most vivid and realistic style.

CHAPTER I

Theodora's Promise

FTER it was all over Theodora had A a sense of disappointment that she somehow could not quite understand. Certainly she waan't at all sure of what she had ex-pacted. for, of course, she had brown for a long course, she hand known for a long time that Jimmy time that ask time that Jimmy was going to ask her to marry him. They had known each other for four wears, and during all that time Jimmy had always come to her troubles. with He pended on her! Over and over Over and over again he had told her that, and this sense of need had aroused all the HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR maternal feeling buried deep in every woman, so that Theodora had come to let Jimmy lean on her more and more. But now that she had promised to marry him, why did she feel as if she had expected more from the man she was to choose from all the world? Was it because Jimmy's proposal had been Jacking in fire. Had he stressed too much the fact that he needed her?

But, then, that was absurd. Theo-But, then, that was absurd. Theo-dora wanted him to need her, she was proud of the fact. And yet that nag-proud of the fact. And yet that nagging little doubt remained to tuntalize age with. In the darkness Theo's ther, and she was angry with herself cheeks flushed and her slim fingers r feeling that way about it. As far as she could understand this feeling was due in part to the fact that care of her, there wasn't any question she felt no different than she had car- of that! And yet there had been that

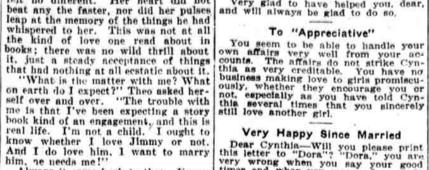

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

Copyright, 1921, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson All rights reserved.

THE green, succulent cucumber pro-

I vides material for the delectable lier in the evening. Nothing was ther in the evening. And the and increase when when a disappointment and, unromantically the same, and why? try as she would. Theo could not ban-Theo had somehow imagined that an ish the memory of it from her mind. moment when Jimmy's face had mirengagement changed everything, that the whole world was different. But real life. I'm not a child. I ought to know whether I love Jimmy or not. And I do love him. 1 want to marry him, ne needs me!'' Always it came back to that. Jimmy needed her and Theo never stopped to probe deeper and to ask berself whether or not she needed him. But the fact remained just the same that she did not think of Jimmy with any kind of a thrill, and even though she scoffed at herself she was vaguely disappointed. Of course, she had been surprised when Jimmy had suggested that she keep on with her work. ''I just thought you might like the extra money,'' he had said rather lamely when he saw the expression in her eyes. ''Of course, I want you to do exactly as you think best: you know what I make, and, of course, we'll have to be careful, it isn't so much.'' here she was, half an hour after Jimmy had asked her to marry him, and she felt no different. Her heart did not

Please Tell Me

By CYNTHIA

To "Brown Eyes"

Very glad to have helped you, dear ad will always be glad to do so,

What to Do

Arraigns the Jazz Lizards

"I'll make it go just as far as I can." Theo had hastened to say, but in spite of herself a little gand had as-sailed her. Was Jimmy disappointed because she had been willing to give up her work? Was it the extra money he had counted on? She wondered Of Arraigns the Jazz Lizards Dear Cynthia—I wonder if you could answer this question for me. Why is it that whenever a fellow takes you out he always asks for a goodnight kiss? If you refuse, you are a poor sport, and if you don't, you are not fit com-pany for his sister. What is wrong with the young men of today? Here's what's wrong: They are just dance-hall-jazz-crazed-vaselined-haired joinnies. Not many of them can hold a good responsible position, so they horrow a had counted on? She wondered. Of course, his salary was not very large, but she feit she could manage. To tell but she felt she could manage. To tell the truth, she had never even thought of keeping on with her work. If she did that, she wouldn't be able to make

Not many of them can hold a good responsible position, so they borrow a half from mother and go to some dance hall, and they spend the whole evening there, inhaling that thick warm air and jazzing around until they can hard in the spend the minute. They needed. But he had been disappointed, hardly stand another minute. They haven't a thought for the future, all they think of is the present dance. I was wondering if some of your male readers could tell me why they always ask for a goodnight kies and why they all like dancing so much. tightened till the nails cut into the palms. Surely Jimmy wanted to take SOMEBODY'S STENOG.

Would Meet Nice Girls

Use Only the Best Cider Vinegar and Dairy Salt-Delicious

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES

Bobby Bouncer By DADDY

CHAPTER I Jack and Janet

TACK and Janet were playing catch with Jack's new rubber ball.

It was a jolly ball, with brightly painted face and a friendly grin from ear to ear. Jack had named his ball an airplane must be a gint and always nized or surrounded by admirers. Bobby Bouncer, because that name rough, mannish and a little bit wild?" And although the athlete may seemed just to fit it.

can bounce," cried Jack. He threw does the thing she likes best and is Bobby Bouncer down on the bard side-walk. Up bounced the ball almost to No doubt there are many women. Bobby Bouncer down on the hard end to the ward the ball almost to the trees. Down it came lightly into Janet's outstretched hands. No doubt there are many women, they wear their line, who feel just as she does. They don't feel any different from they excelled in their particular lines of endeavor," says Ruth Law, other women; they wear their hair in lines of endeavor," says Ruth Law, and it seemed to her that Bobby Boune-er's painted grin was o bit twisted. "I wonder if Bobby Bouneer likes to be bounced." she said. Janet was so kindhearted she didn't like to hurt anything, not even a rubber ball. "Of course Bobby Bouneer likes to be bounced." answered Jack. "That is what rubber balls are made for. Bounce him back to me."

she was sure the friendly grin was by a netter

"'Poor Bobby Bouncer'!' she said in pity. Then, instead of bouncing the ball back, she tossed it to Jack. It was only a gentle toss, but even so the ball bounded was mentioned. "But being a woman and aping a man was not a state of the back of the be filled with glee. be filled with give. "Just for that I will give Bobby Bouncer a big bounce." said Jack. Bo-fore he bounced the ball he whirled his arm around and around and chanted a rhyme : Bobby Bouncer, bounce so high

That you'll bounce up to the sky! With that Jack flung Bobby Bouncer wo down with all his might. Bobby Bouncer thudded on the walk and then bounced up, up far above Jack's head. right into the branches of a tree, And there Bobby Bouncer caught in a crotch between two branches and stuck. Its july face seemed to grin down at Jack tion. with special glec, just as if it were making fun of him. "Oh, isn't that cute of Bobby Squirrel and have him throw Bobby Bouncer down to me." So Jack called to Perky Squirrel. mother - in -

"WHY." asks Ruth Law, the av-iatrix, "do men and women alike take it for granted that a girl who flies down a city street without being recog-

She Declares That a Real Woman Is Always Modest and

Womanly and Her Excellence in Her Line Should

Not Affect Her

Tired of Being Thought "Different"

So many questionable qualities can be thought into that word "different."

"The so-called mannish woman is pest, and as far as I have been able to observe, she never accomplishes anything further than strutting around looking important and doing nothing." Did you think Ruth Law was man-nish? Now you know that she cannot likes a mannish woman? You can ad-

It is herself, bby Bouncer, because that name rough, mannish and a little bit wild? And although the athlete may the emed just to fit if. "Let us see how high Bobby Bouncer" she is just like other women, only she ent." And although the athlete may find

A Sensible Aviatrix Has Grown

Janet's outstretched hands. Janet looked at the ball's jolly face, and it seemed to ber that Bobby Boune-er's painted grin was o bit twisted. Janet looked at the ball's jolly face, er's painted grin was o bit twisted.

Bounce him back to me." Now as Janet caught Bobby Bouncer she was sure the friendly grin was the was sure the friendly grin was was only a gentle toss, but even so the ball bounded out of Jack's hands and bumped him smartly on the nose. "Ouch':" said Jack, and his smile became as twisted as Bobby Bouncer's grin. Only now Bobby Bouncer's grin wasn't twisted. It seemed to Janet to annoyed, and even a little hurt, if some-body with whom you had become rather friendly without exchanging names, should give a surprised gasp when she heard who you were, exclaiming. "Oh. I thought you were so different!" Admiration is chose so different!"

They don't: they merely make her less like a woman. Nine times out of Admiration is always gratifying. Ap- ten it is not athletic skill that she explause is always music in the ears of women who have worked hard to earn ears of ploits.

But there's a limit to everything. Any woman, if she has any womanli-ass in her, gets sick and tired of adora-tion.

Woman's Life and Love By WINIFRED HARFER COOLEY

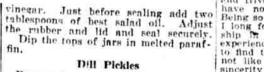

"The real women." Ruth Law thinks,

'are always modest and womanly, re-

A ND now it is the stepmother! I wonder that I have not thought to take up that ancient trial before this. But per-

The output that all, American girt and the complexity is the contact of the complexity pickles and relishes for the coming win-ter months. Before giving you the va-Prepare twenty-five medium-sized curious recipes I desire to impress upon cumbers in brine as directed in sweet you very plainly that the use of various mixed pickles, then wash. Now prepare now revipes it denire to impressive the mixed pickles, then wash. Now prepare pickles is not only a breach of the food and drug laws, but also it may cause serious illness. Do not use any preserve the pickles is not only a breach of the food five quarts of water. Boil and cool, and drug laws, but also it may cause serious illness. Do not use any preserve the pickles green or crite. You will fit that will fit. Place between the pickles green or crite. You will find all types in every country and relishes by just following the rules of the pickles. Let the pickles. Let the pickles and relishes, the cucumbers must be the pickles flavor of the pickle der read dicting of paraffin, making the wax boiling, only just that the wax boiling, only just the brine at least three inches above the stand six days. Now pour over this a the University? You will find charment and fing older momen there, who will see the wax boiling, only just that the wax boiling, only just the brine at least of the wax boiling, only just that the wax boiling only just that the wax boiling, only just that the wax boiling only just the brine at least three wax boiling, only just that the wax boiling only just that the wax boiling only just the brine at least three wax boiling only just the brine at least three wax boiling only just the wax boiling only just the wax boiling only just that the wax boiling only just thathat the wax bo cumbers in brine as directed in sweet

Recipes for Sweet and Sour Pickles and Chowchow fin.

Or would you be ashamed to, on account of your ugly finger nails?

Below a girl who reshaped her nails tells how she did it nends. When placing the cucumber in the brine, sort the cucumbers for size. Except each lot together. Use earthen ware crocks that have lids than can be beeled or wooden 'pails with covers. Usually the hardware merchant has an assoriment of small wooden kegs for plekles. The crocks, kegs and pails must be antiseptically clean. If you have used water and scald thoroughly with plenty cool place before this finishing process, of boiling water. Drain and then place You may fill the pickles into half gallon in the sun. Make a brine of twenty-five pounds of salt to every fifty quarts of water. Divide in the same proportion for small lots. The size of the utensil used to hold the pickles will determine the amount of brine needed. amount of brine needed.

Bring the cucumbers fresh from the garden and do not wash or wine, but Chowchow Prepare fifteen pickles in brine, then just pack in rows in the brine and allow wash and cut in pieces, them to stand in this for about fifteen preserving kettle and add Pince in a days. Remove and then wash the cu-cumbers and scrub and rinse the crock One quart of small white onions, with boiling water. Now the cucum-bors are ready to use in the various asparboiled. One quart of string beans, cut in twoportments of nickles. inch pieces. One medium-sized head of cauliflower. Sweet Mixed Pickles

One quart of water.

One level tenspoon of pinger

One cup of brown sugar.

One-quarter cup of salt.

One and one-half cup of flour,

Two level tablespoons of cayenne

Select twenty-five small three and in bits ... four inch cucumbers. Both the plain and large burr gherkins may be used. Place the pickles in the crock and cover each layer with leaves from the grapevine. When the crock is full, cover with When the crock is full, cover with ture. Add the prepared cucumbers and tain number of them, for their flights that will fit inside the jar over the cu-that will fit inside the jar over the cu-cumbers and then place a weight on the same. A large clean stone or two bricks are best. Let stand for about twelve to fifteen days, depending upon the scum which gathers on too. Do not disturb scum; if thick and well covered take out the cucumbers on the twelfth day; if not, then let them remain for fifteen days. Now wash the cucumbers and let them drain. Place in a porcelain-lined or enameled preserving ket-

Three quarts of best eider rinegar, Two pounds of brown sugar, Our-half cup of salt, Our-half cup of celery seed. pepper, One-half cup of Worcestershire ance.

Tica-thirds cup of mustard seed, Four pieces of ginger root, Two pieces of stick cinnamon, broken

In pieces, One-half cup of Worcestershire Stir with a wire spoon to dissolve the flour. Bring to a boll and cook slowly for ten minutes. Now add to the pickles annee. Our tablespoon of cayenne pepper. in the preserving kettle. Stir with a hirge wooden shoon or stick and heat the One tablespoon of caycane pepper. Brinz to a boil and then cook for fif-teen minutes. Add one large head of faulifower, ent in places of suitable size and perballed until nearly tender. Drain well. Also add ene quart of plekling entors, peeled and coded until tender and then fill to overflowing with the spiced vinceme. Adduct the rabber and lid and seal securely. Now place the fars in water bath and have the water lid and soul securely. Now place the pickling selt: table solt will not do-it fars in water bath and have the water contains starch to make it free-flowing inst to the neek of the far. Bring to a boil and cook for five minutes. Remove and let cool, then din the tops of the jars in metrel meeting. jars in melted paraffin.

ndd

glass fruit jars and fill to cover with the

Read Your Character By Digby Phillips

Long fingers are not the marks of a "practical" person. Nor are they the marks of the man or woman particularly suited to hard physical work or

Unless you find their indications overbalanced by other characteristics, are safe in assuming that the long-fingered person is a dreamer, sensitive both in feelings and appreciation.

Long tingers are, in short (if the pun may be pardoned), the outward and unconcealable sign of an inward artis-tic temperament. If you know somebody with long fingers, just check this up against their temperaments as re-vealed to you in ordinary association. It matters not whether they paint pictures, go on the stage and take their acting seriously, or whether they are architects or even advertising men, you will find that they have little inclination toward order, that they chafe under the restraints of discipline. They want to follow the flights of their own fan-One dozen dried red pepper pods, cut

Cook the string beans until nearly cies, render and cut the cauliflower into pieces of suitable size and cook until nearly tender before adding to the mix-its decidedly better off for having a certrail One quart of water, One-owarter pound of mustard. Two level tablespoons of turmerie, One ownee of relevy seed, Two ownees of mustard seed, The typical long finger is smooth and tapering, smaller at the tip than at the base. If knuckles are large, it's an entirely different type of finger, indicat-ing other mental traits, which will be One-half level teaspoon of allspice.

discussed in a later article. One level tablespoon of white pepper.

Tomorrow-Love Lips WHAT'S WHAT

By HELEN DECIE

"First I cut my nails away down If one girl could do that with "First I cut my hans away down II one girl could do that with a deep in on the sides as though they shapeless hand to begin with, what were a piece of wood; then I soaked would just ordinary care do for a them in warm soap water. Then with shapely hand or just a little extra care the orange stick under the nail at the do for any hand?

* Two Minutes of Optimism By HERMAN J. STICH

Playtime

 \mathbf{F}^{0^+} TUNATE indeed is the num who, at this season of the year, can leave time with the never-ending throbbing. There comes a liquid preparation which trousers, and all the rest of the fetters of foolish fussiness that waste the temper and empty the purse.

The country in summer !- beautiful vacation time, fruit time, harvest time, playtime! Time for reaping health, and calm, and contentment; time for living simply, and sweetly, and wholesomely; time for bathing in new interests and

And in the evening, when the sun sets, comes the voice of the country, sweet and soothing as becomes the loving fullaby of Mother Nature, inspiring introspection and retrospection.

And we have a little misgiving as we recall that the years are passing swiftly. y and that we must think and plan, and work and necomplish, when the year are young and the sinews strong, or we ourselves will be harvested by the great reaper before there is any fruition of our hopes or our ambitions

The Woman's Exchange

To Keep Angora From Flying To the Editor of Womme's Page: Dear Madam—Kindly tell me what to do in order to keep angora from failing ent. J. A. D. There is nothing to stop angors en-tirely from failing out. But washing does stop the keep angora top angors en-

Knitting Bag and

Worsted Holder

does stop the excessive flying about that it does when first new. It mats it down Things You'll Love to Make more and tangles the ends a little.

A Cooking Question

To the Editor of Woman's Pau-Dear Madam-Could you please tell me through your helpful column how to: convert cucumbers into pickles, also, when is the correct time to pick cucum-bers? READER Mrs. Wilson gives some excellent rec-nees in the EVENING PUBLIC LIDENTS of August 20 If you should want further information, write to her in charge of the paper, for she is an expert in the line

In the new of the function for the minimum Remarks to a finance of the source of the source

Adventures With a Purse

I for an occasional headache he was never sick. But what havoc with one's nerves and disposition the occasional headache can play? Tiny dancing demons who tap, tap with a hammer, making the temples throb and the head making the temptes throo and the near lose him would be a caunity. Even nearly fall apart! A great many people as the result of tremendous love af-do not like to take headache remedies fairs, disnater sometimes comes: but because of the injurious ingredients in if our judgment is at fault, at least we them, and will suffer for hours at a have acted according to nature, and not time with the never-ending throbbing, chosen to sell surselves to a man as a There comes a liquid preparation which means of escape from home.

The country in summer, or a portion of it, in the country. The country in summer!
There comes a liquid preparation which is the most southing thing of which I is the most southing the prevent is how for that pain in the head. I in the country is summer, or a portion of it, in the country in summer, or a while with the heavy atmosphere of composite the country in summer, or the country in summer, or the country where he can regard with unconcented the country in summer, or the country where he can regard with unconcented some of this on my head and continued to some of this on my head and continued to some of this on my head and continued to the vise of a loveless marring. Then, indeed, a wife feels that she is in a cage, and paces up and down, and there est of the fetters of foolish fusiness that waste the temper from fifty cents a bottle to $3.50.

stenography

career of independence

Silk pongee is always accepted as complicated, expensive process, good taste and has for years been the The surprising thing about playtime! Time for reaping health, and calm, and contentment: mue for living simply, and sweetly, and wholesomely: time for bathing in new interests and fresh enchantments, and renewing the joys and zests of boyhood days. Once more birds sing, and rustling, falling leaves fill the air with red and green and gold; we poke our fingers in the soft, clean soil and drink deep of the odor of clover and weet-smelling grass as we rest our eyes on endless vistas of growing green and violet haze. start for next spring one of the suits prepared herself all these years, when will want to keep un with such reading would be a very wise buy.

For names of shors address Woman's Page Editor or phone Walnut 3000, or Main 1601.

The Question Corner Today's Inquiries

As a pleasing contrast to outside curtains of soft tan, what star-tling finish can be used on winlow curtains of creamy serim?

What use can be made of the drawn-work top of a pin-enshion cover, when a tray is substituted for the cushion?

How should the girl with a heavy chin wear her hair. In order to give her face a softer, more femi-ine look? Why is the name of Mrs. Martha Custis famous in history? In what way is a pair of strans over the shoulders of a child's dress made to do double duty?

How is a dainty s'ho-on sweater finished around the neck?

Saturday's Answers In a room that is lighted by one window opposite a door, the charming old English custom of stretching a panel of glazed chintz taut in each door panel will add light as well as decoration. When making a bouquet of flow-ers in a garden where there is a purposes is attached to a length of rubber tubing and is perforated white silk or wool. A piquant new sweater is knitted in an openwork stitch, with short sleeves and high neck, with a crocheted Peter Pan collar and turnback cuffs of white, When there is no lace to be found suitable for edging white collar and cuffs on a colored frock, a bias edging of the material itself is always appropriate and pretty.

her and says so openly. It seems to her an insolvable problem. What shall she do? She sees no way in which to Shall she marry the first man

Why does not this girl leave her stepmother and go to work? She will asks her-just to get away from just begin to live when she has tasted will be more than thankful she did not marry the wrong one.

The next problem really is very simple, and I think the only reason the shakes the bars impotently, for divorce Good looks alone will not; but the is not as easy as preachers shout, but a fact that she realizes that education is important ought to keep her alive and vital. Men are not choosing wives for she knew size was unhappy at home, as her husband and friends enjoy, and It is not expensive or difficult to get a doubtless she will join some woman's tusiness education. If she is ordinarily club, and come in contact with bright, bright, a six months course in a cone helpful women who are taking an mercial college will give her enough active part in local matters. Marry him, of course, and eatch up and trying to begin a Marry him, of course, and eatch up for ordence. Stonographers, with him in general culture, as you can since the war command large salaries but be sure to be a good pul, a good As fast as the good stenographer "sport" (in the best sense), and a proves herself a bit higher than the charming, broad, fine individual, and and common run, her salary increases to one will ask to see your college One hears continually of salaries rang- diploma ; ing from $25 to $50 a week. Most university women nowadays ing from $25 to $50 a week. Most university women nowadays Surely if a girl's father knows that take up scholastic work either to be an she is anxious to be self-supporting and efficient wage enture or to be of value rbl him of the budet of her board in some line of social service. They and clothes, for life, he will provide are not merely accumulating vast merely merumulating vast dead languages, or piling up her with the funds for a simple bust- stores of dead languages, ness course. Or she can berrow money a mass of beterogeneous facts, > Don't confuse the new methods with the old methods of making Corn Flakes. Ask your grocer for-

> > Post Toasties best corn flakes

Just saying "corn flakes" may not get you Post Toasties. Take no chances. Say Post Toasties.

