

A HUMAN YACHT. English men and women have adopted the new water sport. This sail arrangement is riveted to an ordinary army belt, which Miss Clara Woodman is wearing as she is carried through the water. Kaiser & Herbert

HUTCHISON IN EXHIBITION. Jock Hutchison (left), the British open golf champion, was watched by hundreds on the links of the Lancaster Country Club yesterday. He paired off with J. H. Clifford (right). L. P. S.

"NEVER AGAIN WAR." This slogan is being used by women throughout Germany in their effort to adjust the country against militarism. In this group American women are assisting. K. & H.

PRESERVING FAMOUS TREES. Expert tree "surgeons" are busy on the Capitol grounds, in Washington, doing all that can be done to save trees by famous Americans. H. & E.

THE PILOT. A. W. Tate, of the Maple Leaf VII, the new British challenger, which will race against Miss America for the International and Harmsworth trophies at Detroit, on September 3d. Kaiser & Herbert

AT FAMILY PICNIC. Employees of the Curtis Publishing Company, their families and friends enjoyed an outing at the Curtis Country Club, Lawndale, on Sunday. The children kept the battery of swings busy. Ledger Photo Service

POODLES IN SHOW. It was held at the Hotel Walton in aid of the Visiting Nurses' Society of Philadelphia. At the left is Mrs. Thomas W. C. Hartmann, with Champion Miss Beautiful and Sporting Lady. The best dog of the show was picked from the Hartmann entries. At the right is Miss Esther Sitzer with Sparrow. Ledger Photo Service

FIRST AND SECOND. Charles Crownover, of Girard College, won the 100-yard swimming race for the William P. Sackett cup. W. Johnson Marling, of the Red Cross Corps, Boston, was a close second. L. P. S.

GATHERING DATA. Alvey A. Adee, Second Assistant Secretary of State, is supervising the work of getting information ready for the American commissioners at the Disarmament Conference. International

DR. FURMAN ANGEI discusses mental diseases in an editorial page interview. Ledger Photo Service

EDWARD TOLAN won this race, the sixty-five-yard dash, against a large field in the dual meet between the athletes of the Sherwood Recreation Center and the Kingsessing Center. Tolan represented Kingsessing. Ledger Photo Service

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

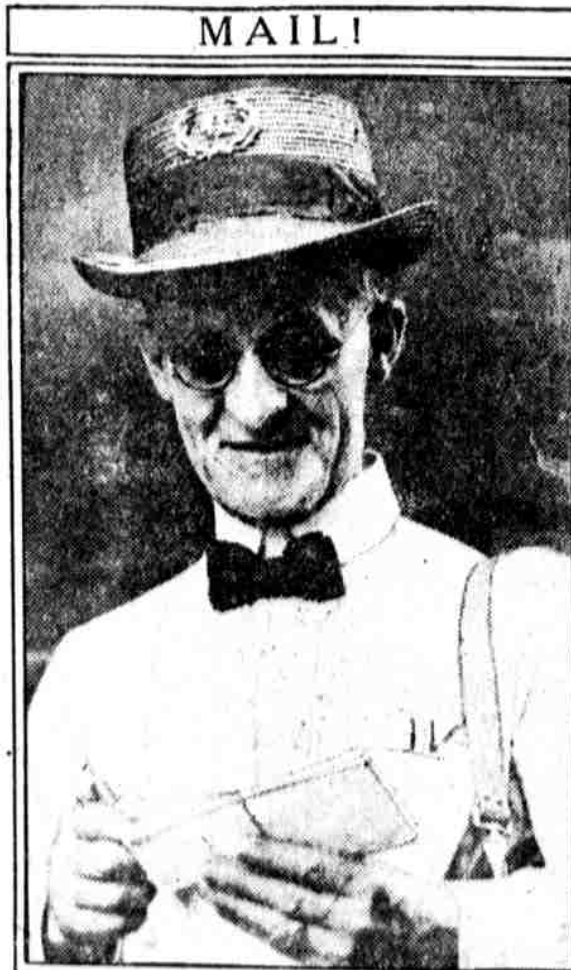

WILLIAM WYTHE milling dies for paper box staying machines in the factory of the National Metal Edge Box Company, 1229 Callowhill street. L. P. S.

SCHOOL FOR FIREMEN. This fire tower is being used to train men for the new paid department of Wilmington, Delaware. L. P. S.

MISS LISA NORRIS, Philadelphia, and G. H. Dempsey, Boston, during costume ball at Narragansett Pier, R. I. L. P. S.

CHARLES E. BHN, Haddon Heights, has been in the postoffice service 27 years. Route: Tenth to Eleventh; Chestnut to Walnut street. L. P. S.

IN DIVING COMPETITION. Fred Daniels dived a high dive in the meet between the Kingsessing and Sherwood Recreation Centers. He won a prize. Ledger Photo Service