Arcadia-Bebe Danies has a delight by Frances Harmer and adapted with lively touches for the screen by Jercy Heath. The naive and fascinating heroine "cuts loose" from the trammels of an unsympathetic guardianship as yoon as she reaches her legal freedom. She has been brought up by a straight-laced aunt, and what she does to family blue laws is shown over the period encompassed by the title.

Of course, she revels in clothes of prettiest and she also enters some adventuring, her harum scarum escalanding her in a girls' ades finally eformatory for the time being. Her omantie encounter with a handsome young stranger and her escape from "duress vile" furnish plenty of fun-Frank Kingsley, making material. Keith's--Marion Harris, the phone graph girl, heads a most entertaining bill. This vivacious singlug star won over the large house with her sparking personality. She rendered a half-dozen popular numbers as they were meant to be sung. Stunning gowns help complete the picture. Lou Handman capably assisted at the piano. Miss Harris was obliged to render several encores. Lang and Vernon in "Who's Your Boss" took second honors. This team compleximent, BOSS' its aim. Their chatter was laugh-provoking and of the rapid-fire type. Miss Vernon wore a stunning gown.

Frank Wilcox and a company talented players were seen in a rip-roaring council, called "Sch h." The star finds himself in three affairs of the The heart at one and the same time. He cleverly solves the problem and gains his point. Orris Holland and Miss Jane Haven deserve especial mention for their able support.

Bernard and Garry have a tuneful act. Their initations are the best seen here in months. They also scored with good dancing. Ed Jants and commany appear in a fancy dance number, Car-men Rooker.
