

SPECTACULAR JUMP. Looks as if there wasn't a place to land as this horse carries a Bulgarian officer over the barrier at Sofia, Bulgaria, during a recent riding exhibition. It was conducted by the Bulgarian army Underwood & Underwood

DEEPER WATER EVERY DAY. Porte, the baby elephant at the Philadelphia Zoo, photographed as he took his daily bath. The outdoor baths were started in a few inches of water. More water was added daily Ledger Photo Service

WORLD'S CHAMPION ARCHER. Miss C. M. Weston, Cotuit, Mass., the successful competitor at the national archery tournament held in Cambridge R. & H.

MR. AND MRS. EFREM ZIMBALIST, with Efrem, Jr., and Maria, sail on Aquitania. Mrs. Zimbalist is Alma Gluck, the singer P. Thompson

OLD AND NEW WAY. Philadelphia patrolmen must hereafter carry police clubs in their hands and not on a belt or on their hip. "Drum Major" style of swinging club is also prohibited Ledger Photo Service

MANY NATIONALITIES GET TOGETHER. These children were taken to Hunting Park yesterday by the Spring Garden Association, headed by the Rev. Maurice E. Levit. Twenty-three different nationalities were in the outing group Ledger Photo Service

AT DEAUVILLE, FRANCE. Two English travelers are taking a sun bath on the sands of the French resort, where society from many lands now enjoys the season's height Central News Photo

APPOINTMENTS. Rear Admiral William A. Moffett (left), new chief of the Bureau of Naval Aeronautics, and Captain Henry C. Mustin, who has been named as the assistant chief of the bureau Harris & Ewing

A "ONE AND A HALF." This clever diver of the Kingsessing Recreation Center is Thomas Doughten. He carries off most of the diving prizes Ledger Photo Service

GEORGE MILES, an expert horseman, who married Miss Edith Beaver Webb, a wealthy New York society girl International

BUSY OFFICIAL. Secretary of State Hughes shown leaving White House Harris & Ewing

MARGUERITE SISON failed to jump over Marie Kelly in a P. R. R. leap-frog game L. P. S.

DR. STEPHEN PANARETOFF, new Bulgarian Minister, received by President H.A.S.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MRS. HARRIET HINES, 6101 Hazel avenue, operating a machine that forms large banner buttons in the factory of the Philadelphia Badge Company, 342 Market street, L. P. S.

GETTING READY. Ben Carroll, of the Aronimink Country Club, teeing his ball, as he prepares for a drive, on the Delaware County course Ledger Photo Service

ARTHUR McBRIDE, 1251 North Frazier street, in mail service thirty-four years. He serves the Stephen Girard Building L. P. S.

FENCE BUSTERS. Johnny Barrett (left) and Bert Yeasley, two of the men that keep the North Philadelphia Stars among the leading amateur ball teams L. P. S.

INDIAN GIRL MUSICIAN. She has arrived in London with a group from India Central News Photo