Heads of Industrial Institution for Women Are Charged With Cruelty

TWO PHILA. GIRLS VICTIMS

Warrants for four officials of the Industrial Home for Women at Muncy will be sworn out and served Monday. The documents are based on affidavits which describe cruei treatment to women in the institution.

Mrs. Charles A. Plummer, 761 North Fortieth street, a member of the Penn-sylvania Prison Society, announced this today when it became known authorities in charge of the institution had been completely exonerated by the board of managers of all charges of cruelty. Mrs. Plummer has in her possession affidavits from two girls who describe how they were handcusted to the bars of a cell and compelled to stand there for three days. Their hands became swellen and the cuffs were removed for a time and then put on again for two days with their hands behind their bucks, the girls charge. Both name three officials of the institution who, they say, treated them inhumanly and cruelly, and assert the present management is
