Nancy Wynne Tells of Visits and Entertainments of the Smart Set-Miss Da Costa Given Dinner by the . George Brookes at Southampton

LUCILLE CARTER is entertaining Mr. Anthony De Luca, Mrs. Baldino's brother, are spending two weeks in North Wildwood, N. J. at her mother's place in Southampton. She has been doing a lot of entertaining up there this summer, and, believe me, Lacille knows how to do it. She is the daughter of Mrs. George Brooke, of Almonbury House, Ithan, you know. On Saturday night Mr. and Mrs.

Villanova, and a cousin of Christine Cadwalader, who will be a debutante this year. Her mother, who died several years ago, was Juliet Biddle, the daughter of Mr. Henry Williams Biddle, of Rochsolach, Paoli, and a sister of Mrs. Williams Biddle Cadwalader, who was Mildred Biddle. I hear that Jessie will stay with Lucille for two weeks.

An interesting house

A linteresting house party was given over the week-end by Mr. and Mrs. Roland L. Taylor at their summer place in Winter Harbor. Me. The Taylors have a beautiful place at Gwynedd Valley and have given a great many entertainments there for their daughters. One daughter, Marjory, married Gordon Hardwick about two years ago, and they have the sweetest married Gordon Hardwick about two years ago, and they have the sweetest child. Those who spent the week-end at Winter Harbor were Elizabeth Anne, the Taylors' other daughter, Mary Fahnestock, Adelaide S. Newlin, Alfred Reeves Hunter, William Newbold Ely, Jr., and Charles Stewart Wurts, Jr.

TF ANY ONE is disappointed because they won's be going to the Denckla-Dolan wedding September 30, it now being an accomplished fact, any one may be cheered up by the knowledge that there are to be a lot of pretty wed-dings around that time, so there'll be that there are to be a lot of pretty weardings around that time, so there'll be plenty to go to. Atlee Downs and Bob Fisher are to be married in early October, I hear, and Julie Baker's wedding is to be on the 15th, and I hear Betty Elliott's date is some time that month, and there's still another, but they have not divulged the fact to the general pub-

the doings at Deauville in France this summer. I was talking last weeks to a woman who spent several weeks there, and the astonishing part about it all is that the transport bathland and the standard part about it. T HAVE never heard anything to equal all is that the strange bathing costumes have not only been worn by chorus girls and actresses, but by some of the people you know and I know. One girl, I'm told, appeared on the beach in a one-plece garment of brilliant scarlet satin, skirt of the garment coming down to about three inches above the knee, and the stockings thereof simply were not. It was a case of "ain't goin' to be no stockings," and they ainted. She did not seem to mind the stares either. I was told, but over here she's just as proper as can be. Can you beat it? The cause of this mad race down a country road was one of those little things that bring about great effects. things that bring about great effects. Bob Hathaway had gone to call on Margaret Elliot with the firm intention of proposing to her; a thing which he had been on the point of doing for the last two months. To do her justice, Margaret was perfectly aware of this intention on the part of young Mr. Hathaway; and in her mind she had decided what her answer was to be. But Bob, unfortunately for him, was an enthusiast on the subject of his big Bram-Bob, unfortunately for him, was an en-thusiast on the subject of his big Bram-bie roadster, while Margaret had but one passion—her own Gancia Eight, which she drove, tended and repaired herself.
