

JUMPS LIKE NED GOURDIN. Fräulein Furchheim is shown winning the broad-jump event during the athletic meet held in the Berlin Stadium. Underwood & Underwood

P. R. T. FOLK HAVE BIG DAY. The third annual picnic and athletic carnival of the Co-operative Welfare Association of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company started yesterday at Willow Grove. It continues today. The tug-o-war team from the Allegheny barn is doing its best as the camera man caught it. Harry Uhler and W. J. Merz, of the accounting department, won the three-legged race. The ladies had to burst ten toy balloons in their contest. Ledger Photo Service

WORKS HIGH ABOVE ALL OF US. William Alexander caring for City Hall tower arc lamps, a job he has held for nineteen years. Ledger Photo Service

AMERICAN LEGION PILGRIMS. They are seen as they left the steamship George Washington in port at Cherbourg, France. French naval and army officials were at hand to welcome them. They visited many of the battle fronts where Americans fought. International

FORTY-THREE MILES AN HOUR. Baby Gar (at left) went that fast to win the Wood-Fisher trophy at Detroit in the race against Aye Aye Sir (right) and two other boats. The winning commander was Commodore G. A. Wood, of Detroit. Underwood & Underwood

FRANKLIN SPENCER EDMONDS talks on the Veterans League on the Editorial Page.

DIGGING IN THE SAND. Sidney Feinberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Feinberg, Philadelphians, keeping busy during his stay at Atlantic City.

AFTER HE REGISTERED. United States Senator Peppose, seated in his automobile, as he left 246 South Twelfth street. Ledger Photo Service

ACTIVE IN IRELAND. Mrs. Eamonie Valera, wife of leader of forces which favor an Irish Republic. U.S.

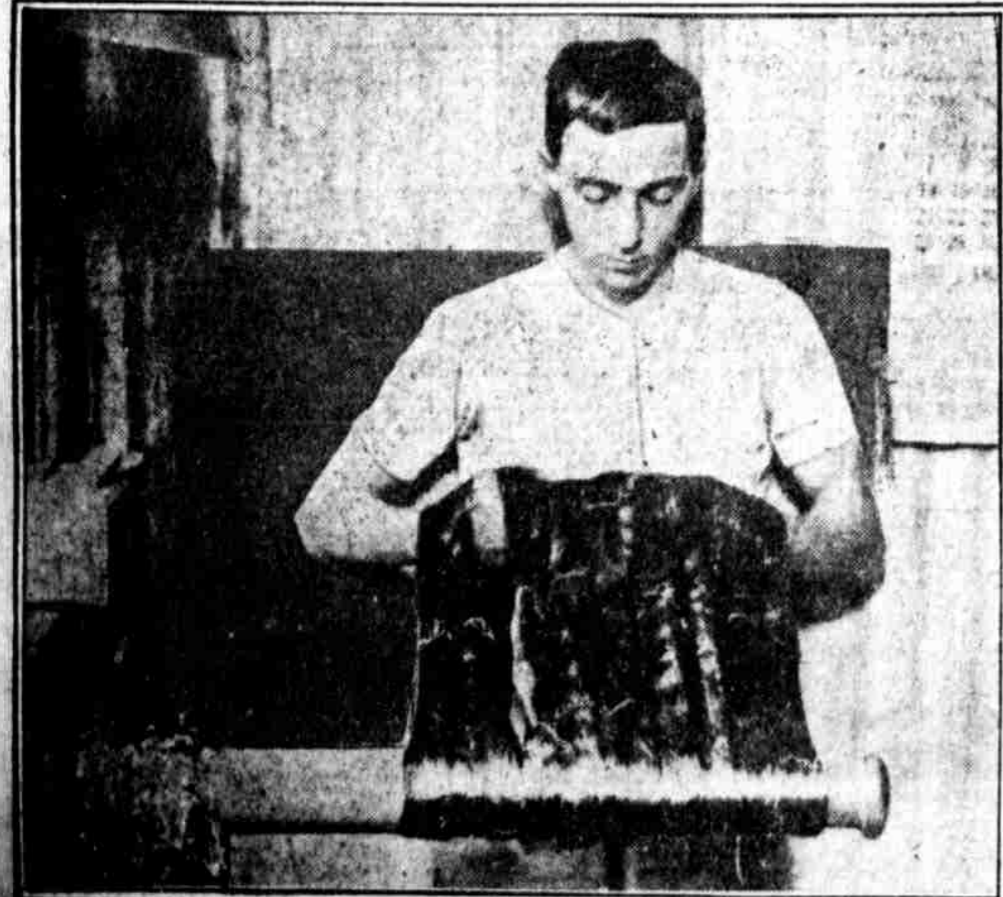

WINNERS. Frankford children and parents have big time during doll show of the Alexander Henry School, Frankford. Catherine Roden won first prize for the best-decorated coach and Lillian Smith for best-dressed doll. Ledger Photo Service

R. H. CLIFFORD. Ought to be good. He's second cousin of Jack Hutchison. Ledger Photo Service

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

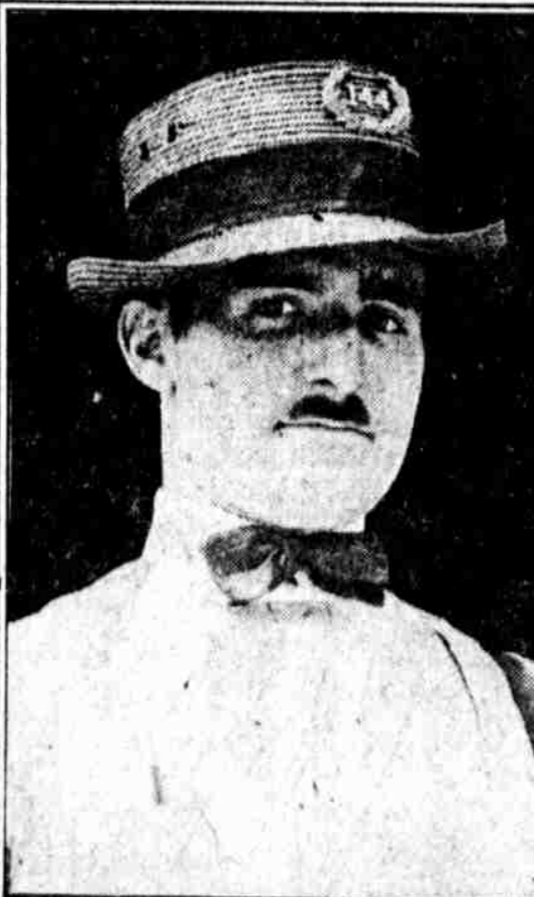

KIRCHHOFER, 624 North Front street, finishing and inspecting skein silk from the Adams Dye Works, Womrath street and Torresdale avenue, Frankford. After this process the silk is packed for shipment. Ledger Photo Service

MASCOT AND FIELDER. Two well-known members of the Shanahan baseball nine, which has headquarters at Forty-eighth and Brown streets. They are Edward McLean (left) and Frank Robinson. L. V. S.

MAIL!

WILLIAM FRANK, 2042 East Monmouth street. In service five years. Serves Twelfth and Broad, Vine to Callowhill street. L. V. S.

NOBLES PLAY GOLF. Members of the Baltimore Shrine met the golf players of Lu Lu Temple at Lu Lu Temple Club yesterday. Potentate Edward Brownly, Baltimore (left) and Potentate Kendrick are keeping score. L. V. S.