Nancy Wynne Hears Interesting News From Philadelphians in Rhode Island-Sees Pretty Costumes. Tells of Persons Returning From Abroad

I WAS interested to hear that Nancy to Mr. Howard Edson, son of Mr. and Cope was one of the soloists at the mantown Cope was one of the soloists at the annual entertainment given by the summer guests at the Firemen's Hall at Saunderstown last week. The enter-tainment was given for the benefit of the Willett Free Library and is looked forward to each year with great interest. Nancy is the daughter of Mrs. Walter Cope, who lives at 200 East Johnson, cope, who lives at 200 East Johnson, street, Germantown. She was a member of the Unique Opera Company, which gave two delightful performances last spring, you remember. Catharine Wharton Morris, who is a great friend Wharton Morris, who is a great friend of Nancy's, was also one of the memory of Music before the ball Mrs. She is spending the summer at bers. She is spending the summer at their camp at Saranae Lake in the Adirondack Mountains, will return home on September 20. Miss Lloyd, who will be formally presented to society by her parches at a tea on Saturday, October 1, will also be the guest of honor at a dinner on Friday, November 25, which her parents will give in the foyer of the Academy of Music before the ball walnut street, and Knoll House, Devon, will give for their daughter, Miss Ellen Douglas Lloyd, of Warsh of the camp at Saranae Lake in the Adricondack Mountains, will return home on September 20. Miss Lloyd, who will be formally presented to society by her parches at a tea on Saturday, October 1, will also be the guest of honor at a direct state of the scale of the scal of Nancy's, was also one of the members. She is spending the summer at Jamestown, which is just across the bay from Saunderstown. The Copes have been going there for several summers. Nancy has a beautiful voice and a concert is always worth while when she is one of the soloists. Nancy, Catharine Morris and Rodolphe Von Schauensce gave a musical affair at New-

DID you know that Mildred Washington Lee, of 1812 South Rittenhouse square, who sailed for France the latter part of June, returned last week from Paris? She spent a few days at the Belgravia and then left for Paul Smiths. N. Y., where she is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. George Fales Baker, of the Belle-vue-Stratford, at Hepburnwood, their nummer home there,

Miss Lee's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Jennings Lee, went to Paris, secompanied by their younger daughter. Forence F. Lee, to visit their son and daughter-in-law, who are, you know, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith Lee. Mrs. Lee will be remembered as Ellen Da Costa Newbold, the daughter of Mrs.
John Da Costa Newbold, of 2221 St.
James place. Mrs. Newbold, by the way, is at present at Atlantic City. You remember, soon after their marriage, which was nearly two years ago. the Lees went abroad and have been living in Budapest, but they are now in Paris, where Mr. Lee's business interests have called him.

I was interested to hear that they have recently received congratulations on the birth of twins. Dr. and Mrs. Lee and Florence and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith Lee will sail for this country about the middle of September.

T HAVE noticed in town lately a great many persons who have just come back from various places. On Monday afternoon I saw Mrs. Standley Stokes on Chestnut street. She was wearing a good-looking dark blue tailor-made suit, which seemed to fit her perfectly. hat was medium sized and of dark blue otraw, trimmed with dark blue silk. Mrs. Stokes was, you know, Ruth Coxe, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brinton Coxe, of Penllyn. Her sister is Mrs. Andy Porter, whose marriage took place in the early summer. Mrs. Stokes has three attractive children, all boys. I believe, and she is erself a very attractive young matron. The same day I passed Mrs. Edward Lowber Stokes, who was, you remember, Mary Brooke. She had on an awfully pretty gray blue sweater over a white skirt. Her hat was about the same shade as her sweater. Virginia Heckscher and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Heckscher, were also in two on Monday. They have been riage took place in June, and they have been occupying the home of Mr. Whitney's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Henshaw Whitney, at 8005 Navahoe avenue. Mrs. Whitney was Louisa Newlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Caverly Newlin, of the Willows, Bryn Mawr. I noticed her one day last week at the Philadelphia Cricket Club playing tennis. She was dressed in white and looked quite pretty.

The Menace of Superfluous Flesh

If you have experienced a steady increase in girth and weight, you know its real tragedy. You realize how your physical and mental activities are curtailed. If you find your-self OVERWEIGHT, it should be a matter of grave concern. You should never regard this as a natural condition, for it can be overcome.
