IUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Tells of Philadelphians of Social Importance Arriving Home From Various Resorts Today—Hears of Baseball in Cape May

Airy

England.

NORTH PHILADELPHIA

ELEANOR GUMMEY has returned from abroad with her nunt. Mrs. Sidney W. Keith, and Mrs. Keith's home. L from abrond with her nunt, Mrs. Sidney W. Keith, and Mrs. Keith's son, Sidney. They arrived home Tues-from a W. Keith, and Mrs. Keith's ney W. Keith, and Mrs. Keith's Sidney. They arrived home Tues-and Ecanor has joined her parents, and Mrs. Charles Francis Gummey, their place at Gwynedd Valley. Their place at Gwynedd Valley. Their place at Gwynedd Valley. The place at Gwyned at their place at Gwynedd Valley. They have been traveling in Europe since carly in July and had a wonderful Mr. and Mrs. William H. Morice and their family, of St. Martins lene, Chest-nut Hill, who spent July at their camp at Silver Lake and August at Cape trip, I hear. debutantes, having come out at a tea in October, at her parents' nown house, 2126 Locust street. She also was given a large ball at the May, will return tomorrow. Bellevue-Stratford on New Yoar's Eve. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Conner Weeks, of 7802 Lincoin drive, Chestnut Hill, will leave tomorrow for Cape May, where they will spend the week-end as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Arthur Brown, of Chestnut Hill, at their cot-tness. NUMBER of persons are expected A home today from various resorts. Mrs. Thomas McKean and her daugh-Nancy are expected to arrive from tage. their White Grass ranch, at Teton, in Miss Katharine Brinley, of the Glad-stone, who has been spending the sum-mer at North Haven, Me., will return home on September 8. wyoming, where they have been spend-ing the summer. The McKeans have a stone, beautiful place at Rosemont, where they do a great deal of entertaining. Nancy was one of last season's debu-Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Macfarlane, of this city, who have been at the Chel-sea Hotel, Atlantic City, for several weeks, will spend the month of Sep-tember at Devon Manor, Devon.

tantes and a great many affairs were given in her honor. Mrs. L. Maves and her family, who have been spending a month in Stone Harbor, will return to their home, 5812 De Lancey street, shortly after Labor Day. Miss Anna Bracken, of 612 North Thirty-eighth street, has been spending a fortnight in Stone Harbor as the guest of Miss Edna Maves. Augusta Harrison is also expected to return today to her parents' home, Chuckswood Farm, Villanova, from a visit to Mrs. Geraid Holsman, of 2018 Locust street, at her summer home in York Harbor, where she has been for ten days. Augusta is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Custis Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myers announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Della B. Myers, to Mr. Raymond W. Zinn, son of Mrs. John M. Zinn, of Mt.

Ir. and was a debutante last year, too. She and her mother and sister Ellen will sail some time in October for Europe to spend the winter. Mr. Harrirope to spend the winter. Mr. Harri-son, Ellen and another sister, Mary Spottswood, are spending several weeks in Wyoming on the ranch of Mr. and Niss Sophie Delany, daughter of Mrs. Charles Delany, of Primos and North Broad street, is spending a few weeks at Marblehead, Mass. Mrs. Maxwell Struthers Burt. They are expected home about September 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward A. Batchelor and their daughter, Miss Margaret Louise Batchelor, have returned to their home in Moylan from a month's stay in New are expected nome about september 15. Eleanor Robb is another returning home today. She has been visiting Pergy Rosengarten, at Winter Harbor, Me., at the Rosengarten cottage there. Friends of Mrs. S. H. Conover, of the Friends of Mrs. S. H. Conover, of the Yarmouth, West Philadelphia, will be glad to hear that she is recovering from a severe illness in New Hampshire. Me., at the Rosengarten cottage there. Peggy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell G. Rosengarten, of 2047 Locust street, you know. Eleanor's marriage to Tom Lineaweaver will take place on October S, and will be one of the most important events of the early Miss Helen J. Simon, who spent some time as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Her-bert Buxbaum at their summer home in Atlantic City, has returned to her home.

autumn. The ceremony is to be at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, and it is interesting to know that Bishop Poyntz, of North Dakota, who officiated at the marriage of Eleanor's parents, will perform the ceremony. He will be assisted by the Rev. George Calvert Carter. Eleanor Mr. Joseph H. Taulane and his sis-ters, of 2260 North Broad street and Jenkintown, will leave on Friday on a tour to the Blue Ridge Mountains, Va. is the daughter of Mrs. Henry Bur-nett Robb, of 1726 Spruce street, and tour to the Blue Ridge Mountains, Va. The marriage of Miss Cecil M. Bowles, daughter of Mrs. Lulu M. Bowles, 2119 North Eighteenth street, to Mr. Joseph A. Mulvey, of Providence, R. I., will take place some time in September at the home of the bridegroom's parents. A reception will follow for the family only. After a trip through the White Mountains Mr. Mulvey and his bride will make their home in Providence. Miss Elizabeth M. Lavit of 2128 L terest in the weekly baseball games at Cape May. Last week the Phila-delphia Racquet Club played the Cape May team, and defeated them in the Miss Elizabeth M. Levit, of 2138 North Front street, has just returned home after having spent several weeks in Charleston, W. Va., Baltimore and Washington tenth inning. Among those on the Racquet Club team' are Bert Bell, North Washington. Hutchie Scott, John Scott, Bow Wheeler and John Hart, Jr. Another Wasnington. Miss Martha Jaffe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jaffe, of 2212 West Dauphin street, whose marriage to Joseph C. Fleisher will be solemnized on Sunday, after a trip to the Ber-muda Islands, will be at home at Thir-teenth and Master streets. interesting match on the golf links was a foursome played by Bert Bell, Theoa foursome played by Bert Bell, Inco-dore Lillie and Mr. and Mrs. Heck Wetherill. One day the girls were dressed as twins, in yellow sweaters, white skirts, tan hats and tan stockings.

Acrefair, Haverford. EVERY ONE is showing great in-

white skirts, tan hats and tan stockings, and they certainly looked attractive. Mrs. Harry McMichael, who is at Cape May with her aunt, is wearing a stunning blue tweed skirt, and a blue sweater to match, with a tan felt hat. The felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are very popular and are the filt of the felt bats are so pretty at the sen shore.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA THE men at the organ began playing The men at the organ began playing a fluted confection suitable for "soft music by the orchestra," as the sad scene in the five recler "faded in." Sniffes were here and there, and hand-benchick becau to spending August at the Delaware Water the week. A SUMMER BRIDE

MRS. C. S. EDMUNDS

Who before her marriage early in the summer was Miss Bessle Leonard, of 2419 North Fifth street merly of Minersville Pa., now of Wingo-hocking street, and Mr. J. Gordon Musseiman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Musseiman, of 111 West Louden Mrs. Charles T. Shaw, her daughter.

Mrs. Charles T. Shaw, her daughter. Miss Sarah Shaw, and her son. Mr. Charles T. Shaw, Jr., of 538 East Washstreet, on Saturday afternoon last, in this city.

The marriage of Miss Roberta Ray-nor, daughter of Mr. William H. Ray-nor, of 220 Dorset atreet, to Mr. Wil-liam L. Hook, East Ashmead street, will take place very quietly in the Wake-field Presbyterian Church, on Wednes-day afternoon, September 7, at 5 o'clock There will be no reception.

Miss Leah Cornels, of Woodbury, N. J., is the guest for some time of Miss Dorothy Butterworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Butterworth, of 41 East Mt. Pleasant avenue.

Musselman,

Mr. and Mrs. David Pereira, of 300 Earlham terrace, who have been touring in Europe all summer, sailed for this ountry last week.

Mrs. John Whiting, of Pomona ter-race: Mrs. John McCarty, Miss Lillian McCarty and Mr. Chester E. Albright, 2d, of 50 West Ashmead place, will motor to Muncy, Pa., tomorrow to be motor to Muncy, Pa., tomorrow to be the guests over the week-end of My. Albright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wil-liam Albright. Mrs. Chester E. Al-bright, 3d, who has been the guest of her mother-in-law and father-in-inw since early summer, will return with Mr. Albright on Tuesday. Dr. and Mrs. Willis Manges, of Wal-lingford, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ren-nick Kerr, of Moylan, will return in a few days from New England, where they have been motoring for a fortnight. Mr. Albright on Tuesday.

Mrs. Carrie E. Simon, of 1318 Wingo-hocking street, has been visiting her uncle and aunt, the Rev. and Mrs. Charles I. Hoffman, at their cottage at Bradley Beach, N. J.

MISS BLANCHE MASON WEDS MR. JOHN K. STARKWEATHER

Marriage of Miss Katharyn Seltzer and Mr. William S. Musselman An interesting marriage to society in this and other cities will be that of Mine Blanche Lyman Mason, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Charles J. Mason, of Scarsdale, N. Y., and Mr. John Kent Starkweather, of Germantown, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Starkweather, of Denver, Col., which will take place at 5:80 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mason, followed by a

of Mr. and Mrs. Mason, followed by a reception. The bride, who will be given in mar-riage by her father, will be attended by her sister, Miss Harriet Mason, as maid of honor. Mr. Carroll J. Waddell, of this city, will act as best man. After a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Starkweather will be at home at the Cresheim Valley Apartments, German-town.

MUSSELMAN-SELTZER

MUSSELMAN--SELTZER Miss Kathryn Reese Seltzer, daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio S. Seltzer, of 100 West Fornace street, and Mr Wil-liam Stanley Musselman, som of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Musselman, of 909 West Marshall street, Norristown, were married at noon today in St. John's Episcopal Church, Norristown. The re-tor, the Rev. H. St. Clair Hathaway, of-ficiated at the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was sttended as maid of honro by Miss Dorogiven in marriage by her father and was attended as mail of honor by Miss Doro-thy Price. Miss Sara Louise Seltzer, the brille's sister, was flower girl. The bridegroom had his brother, Mr. Percv Musselman, as best man, and the ush-ers were Mr. Francis Hoffman, Mr. He-bert Keller, Mr. Earl Hoffman and Mr. Irwin Lape.

bert Keller, Mr. Earl Hoffman and Mr. Irwin Lape. The bride's gown was of white Can-ton crepe, and her vell of tulle was held with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses. The maid of honor wore a frock of white organdle and Irish lace and a white satin hat. She carried a bouquet of yellow snapdragons and lavender asters. The flower girl's dress was of white organdle with yellow and lavender ribbons. A wedding breakfast followed the church ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip to New York and Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. Musselman will live in Norristown. Heck, wats you know about that? sed Sid, and I sed, G, that was a dirty trick to play on ourselves. And we went back feeling fearse, and Bert was setting on Sids frunt steps, saying, O. you awt to of saw the perrade, Sid, it was grate, bands and hooken ladders and everything. Aw shut up, sed Sid. Wich Bert wouldent, so me and Sid went and sat on my frunt steps.

MOORESTOWN

Miss Ester French gave a swimming party at Cedars Lake on Monday eve-ning. Mr. and Mrs. William French chaperoned the party. About thirty guests were present.

BITE FALSE TEETH? For Large SUREI Banquets or Dr. Wernet's Social Evening Powder Parties There is no more KEEPS THEM TIGHT Relieves sore gums, sweetens luxurious cafe in town. The best of foodthe breath. A white powder. At music-dancing. best Drug or Department Stores. Large and small 30c., 60c., $1.00 or write direct to rooms for private Wernet Dental Mfg. Co., 115 Beekman St., N.Y. parties. Shore dinners our specialty. Open Daily and Sunday J.M. Gidding & Mo. Ritz-Carlton ment was made at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Harkins in honor of their daughter. The marriage will take place in the fall.

place in the fall. Mrs. Mary Sulzback, of 208 East Chestnut street, gave a reception at her home to meet her son-in-law and daugh-ter, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hayes, who were recently married. Mrs. Hayes be-fore her marriage was Miss Florence Sulzback. Mrs. Sulzback was assisted in receiving the guests by her daugh-ters, Miss Ellzabeth Sulzback, Miss Helen Sulzback and Miss Catherine Sulzback. By Lee Pape Me and Sid Hunt wunted to go erround to the fire house to see the engine get washed and Sids little brother Bert Sulzback.

Mrs. A. G Solomon, of Powell street, wunted to go with us and we dident wunt him to, and after a wile I winked at Sid and sed to Bert, Well, you can entertained the members of her sew-ing club at a picnic at the Commercial Club House, Port Indian. come if you wunt but if you do youll miss the big perrade, so dont say we dident warn you. Wat perrade? sed Bert, and I sed. FRANK J. SEMPLE, JR., WEDS Dident you heer about the big perrade, Haverford Man Takes Miss Kathryr it will go past eny minnit now, gosh. Sid, he dident heer about the perrade. Brooks, Overbrook, as Bride wats you know about that. Some kids never heer about eny Miss Kathryn Brooks, Overbrook, and Frank J. Semple, Jr., of Haverthing, thats wat they get for allways and Frank J. Semple, Jr., of Haver-wunting to go places insted of staying ford, were married yesterday at St places ware theyre at allreddy, sed Sid. | John's Episcopal Church in Gloucester, Theres going to be a band and every - | Mass. The ceremony was performed by thing, I sed, and Bert sed. Ony one band? and I sed. Ony one nuthing, theres libel to be 8 or 9 for all 1 know. and the Rev. J. H. C. Cooper, rector

LITTLE

BENNY 'S

NOTE BOOK

Well then I guess I think Ill wait, sed of St. John's. Bert. Wich he did, and me and Sid The bride is The bride is a daughter of the late went erround to the fire house and there wasent eny fire engine or nremen er-round, Sid saying, G, there must be a fire somewares. And we sat down and leened agenst the wall to wait without water the best man at the wedding. Frank H. Moss, of this city, gave enything happening to wait for, and nfter a wile I sed. Gosn, this is no good, lets go back. Wich jest then 2 fire en-gines full of firemen came up, me say-ing to one, Ware was the fire. No fire ware he the method

No fire, we were in the perrade, ware have you bin, asleep? sed the fireman.

CORNERED

THE OLD NEST

PALACE 1214 MARKET STREET

Clara Kimball Young

In Sada Cowan's photo-

"CHARGE IT!" Dedicated to All Woman Who unn't

ARCADIA CHESTNUT BAL 18TH

WANDA HAWLEY

VICTORIA MARKET ST. ab. PH

"THE SNOR"

NORRISTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. James O. Harkins, of 236 East Oak street, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Missa Bessie V. Harkins, and Mr. Thomas J. Hill, of Olney. The formal announce-Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Luce, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Le Coney, Mr. and Mrs. William Grobler and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Dix were guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Amour Cox at their cottage at North Beach Haven.

ington lane, are on a motor trip throug: New Jersey. Mrs. Melvin Keiger, who has been visiting in Shamokin, PA., for several weeks, has returned to her home at 6806 Clearview street.

Mrs. Ralph P. Coleman, of 311 Dorse: street, has returned from Atlantic City, where she was the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Haeberle.

DELAWARE COUNTY

Mr. and Mrs. V. Gilpin Robinson, of Hill View, their home near Landsdowne, will leave by motor in a few days for an extended trip through the Adirondacks. Mr. and Mrs. James Watts Mercur, of Wailingford, have been entistaining Mrs. Steiner Schley, of Frederick, Md., for a few weeks, while her daughter, Miss Lillian Schley, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Albech, Mr. and Mrs. Mercur's daughter, at her home in Wallingford. Mrs. and Miss Schley left a few days ago for Frederick.

