

WONDERFUL FUNNEL DECORATIONS. Mrs. L. Hogan, wife of a paymaster in the British navy, arriving at San Francisco from Tahiti, a South Pacific island

ORDERED TO MOVE. Camp Dix, New Jersey, was a busy place yesterday as the Twenty-sixth Infantry, U. S. Army, put the finishing touches to its preparation to proceed to the coalfields of West Virginia. At the left the sergeant is giving the boys instruction. In the door of the Red Cross ambulance is Sergeant Stanley, of Ambulance Company No. 2. Some of the mules and wagons of the ambulance are shown at the right

FAIR DAYS ARE HERE. The annual West Chester Fair is in progress this week, with much horse racing and other things that go to make up an honest-to-goodness fair. The camera caught the finish of the first heat of the 2:18 trot. The winner was Brown Cap, with Carville a close second. Caroline Moore and Hilda Miller are shown feeding peanuts to a horse

MRS. LUCINDA BACON returning to America. She was voted the best-dressed American woman in Paris

SHE WENT TO ENGLAND—But Miss Clare Hurst for some reason or other sailed from New York two months ago without her passport. Of course, she had to return

COUNT PLUNKETT at Mansion House, Dublin, to assist in peace making

DOROTHY MacKAY winning roller-skating race at the Alexander Henry School, Paul and Unity streets, Frankford

"UNCLE JOE" CANNON chatting with Miss Christine Humphreys during the launching ceremonies of superdreadnought Washington

BOB CRUIKSHANK in the Pennsylvania open golf championship on the Merion golf course

GEORGE W. WARD talks on paper deflation in business in an Editorial Page interview

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

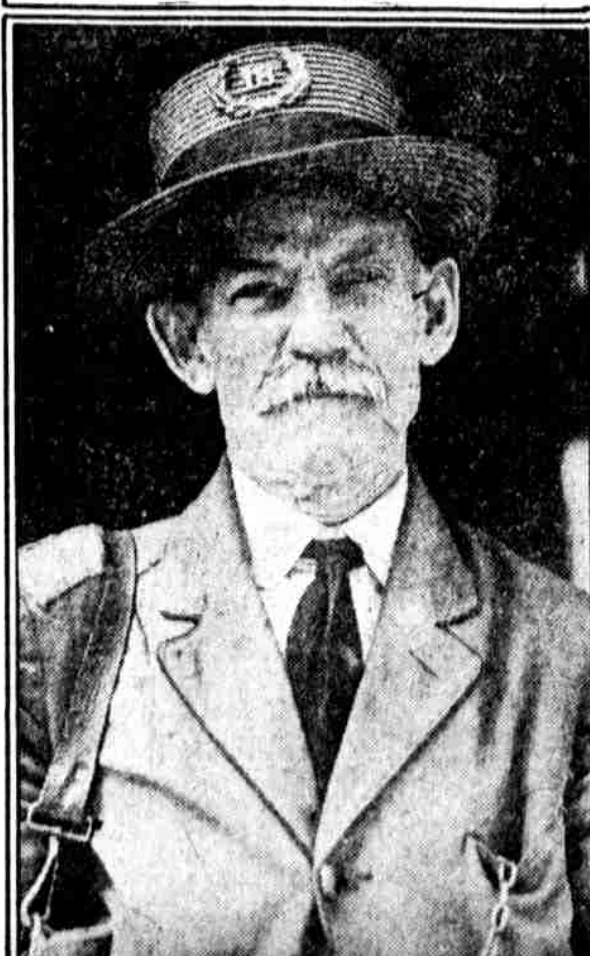

SEWING CAPS. Samuel Kosoff of this machine completes the sewing of eight dozen caps at the factory

CITY OFFICIALS FISH. Fire Marshal George W. Elliott and Real Estate Assessor Frank J. Gorman with two drumfish at Ocean City weighing over 60 pounds each

MAIL

CHARLES BOWWELL, 5308 Walton avenue. Has had 38 years' service. Route: Front to Third Race to Vine & 7th

NOW FOR FOOTBALL. Bill Hollenback (left) assistant coach of the Penn squad and John W. Heisman, coach of the first meeting of the University of Pennsylvania football officials held yesterday