Nancy Wynne Hears of the Recovery From Illness of a Debutante—Sees Mrs. Graham Dougherty in a Distinctive Gown

I WAS so glad to hear that Cornelia Rankin is getting about again after having had an operation for appendicitis. She spent last winter in Paris, where she was studying, and returned with her mother early in the spring.

MRS. GRAHAM DOUGHERTY was in town the other day. I saw her on Chestnut street and she was wearing a quite unusual frock. It was of light tan or beige color covered with light tan or beige flowers and leaves.

I HAD a glimpse of Barbara Boyd the other day on a Walnut street car. She had on a pretty light blue summer dress and a hat of light colored straw.

EVERY DAY we hear of different persons returning from all corners of the world, and today Mr. and Mrs. Harrison K. Caner and their son, John Caner, and Elizabeth Strubing, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Strubing, of St. Martins, are to arrive from Alaska and the West, where they have been traveling all summer.

THE family of Mr. and Mrs. T. Henry Dixon will also return to Chestnut Hill today. They have been at Winter Harbor, Me. Betty Welch, whose engagement to Arthur Paul has been announced, is Mrs. Dixon's daughter, you know. Her sisters are Mrs. Louis Medina, 3d, and Mrs. W. Heyward Mera, Jr. They are nieces of Mrs. Archibald Thomson.

THERE was no one to wait on them when they entered the exclusive little shop, for the only salesman in sight was attending to some one else. So they strolled about, gazing at good-looking hats, tempting scarfs and fascinating dresses until he was finished. As they stood before a show case in which a headless lady posed in a gown of sequins and lace a small child, evidently the son of the salesman, appeared from behind the counter. He

Mrs. J. A. Pearce Crisfield and her daughter, Miss Josephine Crisfield, formerly of Chestnut Hill, now of 2203 Massachusetts avenue, Washington, who have been spending several weeks at North-east Harbor, Me., are returning a few days in this city at the home of Mrs. Charles G. Ayres.

Mrs. George Fox and her daughter, Mrs. Emily B. Fox, of Chestnut Hill, who are spending the summer at East Gloucester, Me., will return home on September 15.

Mrs. Mary Toner, of 1935 Ritner street, has been spending a few days with friends in Chelsea.

Mrs. Helen Alexander Ramsey, of Swarthmore, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Suzanne Carr, to Mr. Harry L. Young, of Germantown, on next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in St. Luke's Church, Germantown, avenue and Couster street. A reception will immediately follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. George Emlen Starr, of Lincoln drive and Mermaid lane, Chestnut Hill, is spending a fortnight in New York, where she is visiting her mother, Mrs. Charles G. Ayres.

Mrs. Virginia C. Powell, of Cumberland, Md., and Mrs. J. Howard Pile, of Ruthersford, N. J., have been spending the summer months with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Elvidge, of Germantown, who have a cottage at Cape May.

Mrs. W. W. Hirst and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Hirst, of 178 Manheim street, have returned from spending a few days in Eddystone, Pa.

Mrs. W. W. Hirst and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Hirst, of 178 Manheim street, have returned from spending a few days in Eddystone, Pa.

Wood, at Ocean City, where she will remain over Labor Day. Mr. Charles T. Shaw, of 528 East Washington lane, joined Mrs. Shaw and her family on Wednesday at Stone Harbor, N. J., where they arrived after motoring through the State. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw will return on Tuesday.

ALONG THE READING Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Hirsch and Miss Margaret Hirsch, of Stratford avenue, Merion, sailed last week for Europe, where they will spend some time traveling.

Mrs. David Kirschbaum and Miss Ruth Kirschbaum, of Elkins Park, have returned from Charlevoix.

YARLEY Miss Sara P. Eastburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eastburn, will enter Vassar College in the fall.

Mrs. Joseph E. Smith has issued invitations for cards for this afternoon. Mrs. S. E. Swayne and Mrs. Juliet Shirk, of Richmond, Ind., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Barnes.

Mrs. Alfred Ely and Miss Charlotte Ely, of Atlantic City; Mrs. Eliza Scott-tergood and Mr. Thomas Scattergood, of Germantown, were guests of Mrs. Alfred Danzer this week.

NORRISTOWN Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Tyson, of 652 Stanbridge street, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Tyson, to the Rev. Adam Edward Scheilhaus, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Scheilhaus, of Chambersburg, Pa., on Wednesday, September 21, at 1 o'clock, in Christ Reformed Church.

DELAWARE COUNTY Mr. and Mrs. J. Everett Ramsey, of Swarthmore, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helen Alexander Ramsey, and Mr. D. W. Bronk, on Saturday, September 10.

Mrs. George T. Ashton, of Swarthmore, is spending a fortnight at Whitman Point, N. Y., accompanied by Miss Ethel Newcomb.
