

LOOKING SKYWARD. The Wellington Apartments at the northeast corner of Nineteenth and Walnut streets. The etching shows the corner of the structure all the way to the roof. Ledger Photo Service

MISS FREDA LINSK, Germantown, wearing sweater with new Navajo design. L.P.S.

ON TO MINGO. Three long troop trains bearing the men of the Twenty-sixth United States Infantry, passed through this city on their way to the fighting in West Virginia coal fields. They paused for a while at the Zoological Gardens, just after passing over the Schuylkill. On the left are flat cars bearing the wagons of the regiment. A rolling kitchen, with the cook all ready to prepare chow, is at the right. Ledger Photo Service

WESTWARD HO! Miss Ruth Ecker, of West Philadelphia, starting on the trip she will take all by herself across the Continent. A girl friend made the trip last summer and dared Miss Ecker to duplicate the feat. Ledger Photo Service

CLOSING DAY AT WEST CHESTER FAIR. A big program has been arranged for today, the wind-up of the big annual event, the smallest calf in the show, winner of a prize, was exhibited by Robert Ebert, of Malvern, Pa. Wolfaner, Jr., a speedy harness horse, fully aware that West Chester expects every horse to do his duty, was snapped as he warmed up. Ledger Photo Service

SWEDEN'S CROWN PRINCE at the fete and baby show at Ascot. His fair companion is Lady Patricia Ramsay. C. N. P.

BANDIT BEAR. Jesse James, highwayman bruin of Yellowstone Park. Jesse holds up automobiles and refuses to budge until given sweets. W. W. F.

IN ASBURY PARK BABY PARADE. Bobby Dodd, of Philadelphia, took the part of Old King Cole in the big annual event for babies. Betty Logan, of Brooklyn, was adjudged the prettiest of them all. Central News Photo

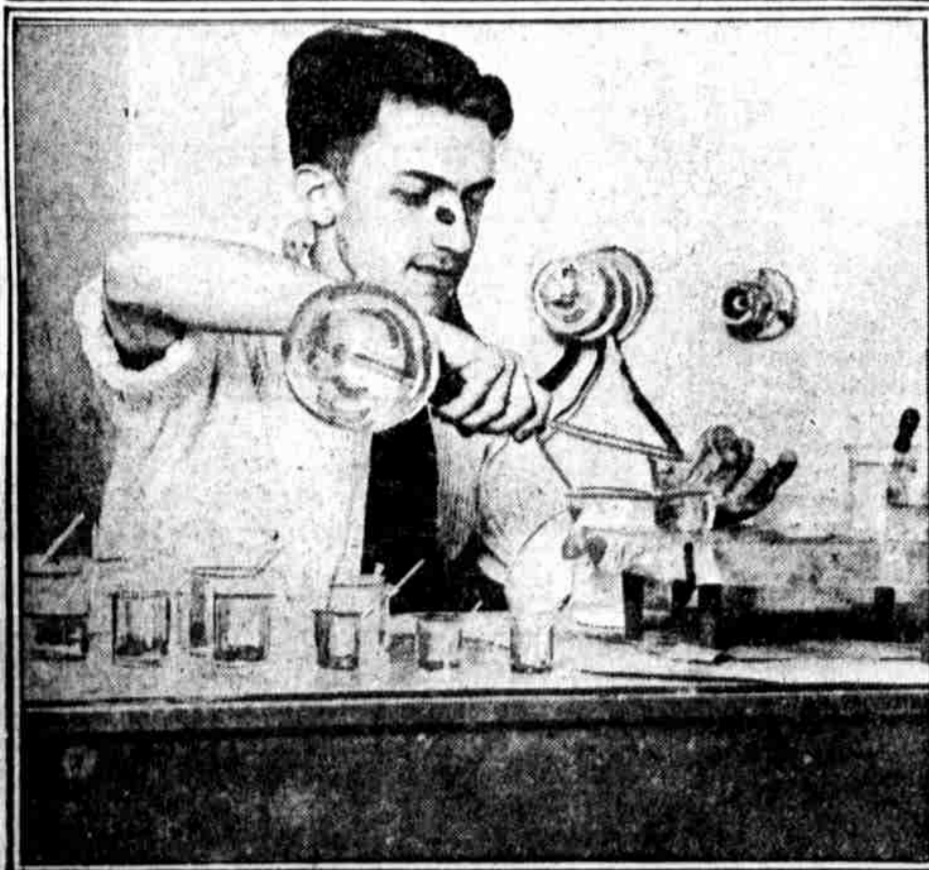

FRANKFORD CHILDREN AT PLAY. Little Irene Nice is one of the hundreds of children who try their skill on the equipment at the Alexander Henry School playground at Unity and Paul streets. Harold Baker is shown guarding the wicket in a tower ball game. Ledger Photo Service

CALLED "FRECKLES." But Thomas Campbell says he's the best 12-year-old swimmer in Fairmount Park circles. L.P.S.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

WORKING ON RADIUM. A. R. Baker, 46 Walnut street, Clifton Heights, preparing the precious metal for sealing in tubes and needles in the laboratories of the H. L. Cummings Chemical Company, Lansdowne, Pa. Ledger Photo Service

PROBES FATAL CRASH. Aviator jury assisted at inquest into the death of three in Harbor plane wreck. They are, seated, Frank Wills, William Sheahan and Frazer Kolb. Standing, Caspar Drueding, Charles Van der Vur and Walter Johnson. Peter Mikonis, owner of the plane, is on the witness stand. Ledger Photo Service

JAMES STAFFORD, 2330 North Turner street, has had eight years' service. Route: Broad to Fifteenth, Arch to Penn Square. Ledger Photo Service

MISS LILLIAN McCATE walked and begged automobiles from Chicago to New York. Total expense, $11.96. L.P.S.