

COMMODORE MAITLAND, the British air expert, who perished when the ZR-2 broke in two and fell into the Humber River. U. S. P.

THE END OF THE ZR-2. This photograph, taken shortly after the disaster, shows one of the two portions of the world's largest airship after it had broken in two and fallen into the River Humber, at Hull, England. The steamers are cruising about the floating mass of envelope and framework, salvaging the wreckage. Central News Photo

LEON TROTZKY and A. Impazmin (right), an associate, photographed in Moscow while the Third Internationale was sitting. This is one of the rare occasions when Trotzky has posed. K. & H.

ANOTHER LUCKY DOG—Presented to President Harding by June Ellsworth, twelve years old, of New York. U. S. P.

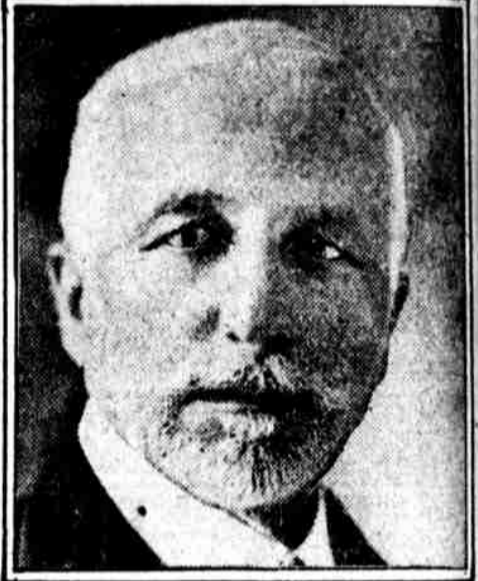

THREE FAMOUS SMILES. One by Douglas Fairbanks, a second by Mary Pickford and still another by Charlie Chaplin, all on their way to England, where an enthusiastic greeting awaits them. Wide World

MRS. JANE DEETER RIP PIN, head of the Girl Scouts of America. U. S. P.

WHAT A STREET CAR DID. A three-car trolley express jumped the track and ran smack into the front of a hotel. The Victoria Hotel, Springfield, lost its front in this manner. International

SIGNOR TOMMASO TITTONI, president of the Italian Senate, who is now in the United States. Harris & Ewing

KEEPING COOL. Mrs. Harold Bien and baby Marjorie have discovered the secret of hot-weather comfort down at Atlantic City. Baby Marjorie objected strenuously to being photographed. Ledger Photo Service

JOHN McCORMACK, the famous singer, is a devotee of tennis. He extended congratulations to Bill Johnston at Forest Hills, L. I., after a victory in the Davis Cup match. C. N. P.

COL. WILLIAM N. HASKELL, chief of Russian Relief Administration. C. N. P.

BOYS OF THE NEW JERSEY DIVISION of the Century Road Club of America. They rode from City Hall, Jersey City, N. J., to City Hall, Philadelphia, in five hours and thirty minutes, beating last year's record of six hours ten minutes. They were snapped late yesterday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

BOASTING PEANUTS. J. Garbarino, who operates peanut-roasting stands at the store of Lumis & Co., 148 North Delaware avenue. He is filling a bag with roasted peanuts. Ledger Photo Service

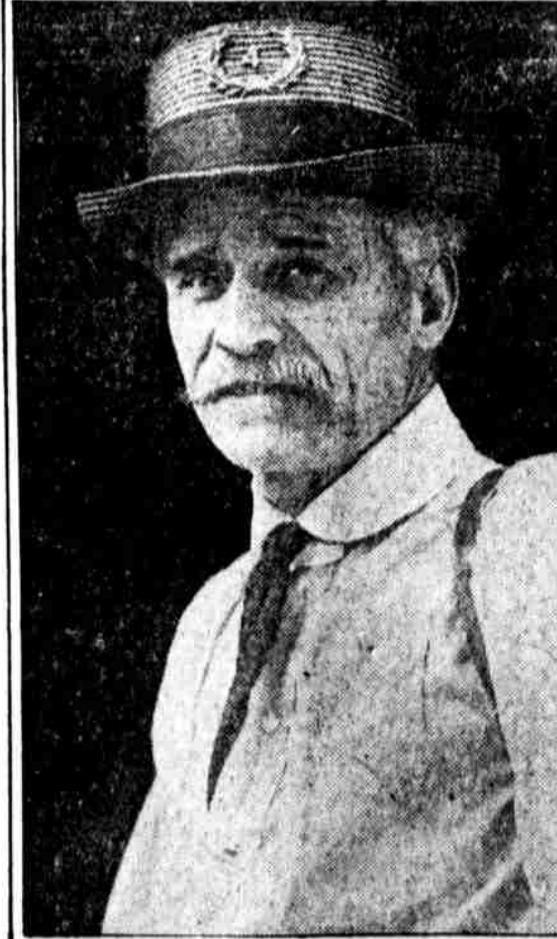

MISS LYDIG HOYT, breathlessly watching William T. Tilden, champion of the world, as he made his desperate effort at the Davis Cup tennis match. Central News Photo

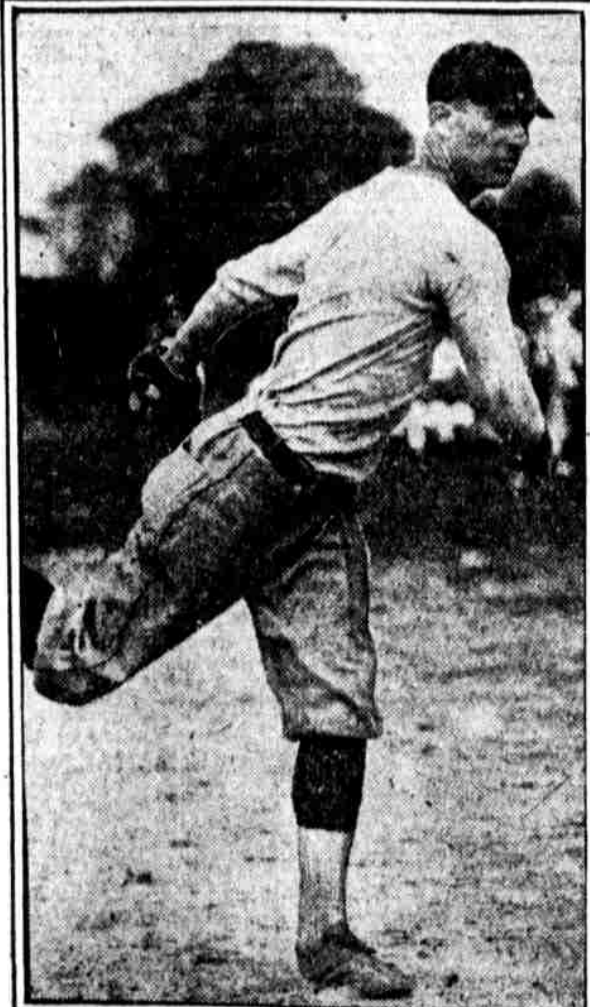

MISS MARY DU PONT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lamont du Pont, of Wilmington, a favorite in local horse shows, sticks to her hobby while visiting Hot Springs, Va. U. S. P.

MAIL!

MICHAEL TOLAND, 2519 North Thirty-third street, has been in service 32 years. Route: Arch to Race, Second to Third streets. U. S. P.

OPPOSING TOSSERS. Irvine (left), who pitched the Collingswood nine to victory over the Audubon team in the big match of the season. At the right is Atkinson, who was on the mound for the losers. Five thousand people saw the game. Ledger Photo Service

