No Doubt About It—You Can Buy to Great Advantage Here Right Now!

One of Our Most Helpful Friends of Early Years

was Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Beyond all estimate to a growing boy is the value of a thoughtful, suggestive, encouraging man from whom he can get ideas and the inspiration of his own example and methods of study and practice.

To waste time with people from whom we can learn nothing is a losing business. It is a fact that it is a general experience that we can learn more from persons older than ourselves.

[Signed] John Wanamaker

September 6, 1921.

Young Women's Silk Dresses $16.50 to $75

Street and afternoon dresses of crepe de chine, Canton crepe and crepe marocain, in navy blue, black and brown, in dozens of pretty new models.

14 to 20 year sizes, and priced $16.50 to $75.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Balloon-Shaped Mesh Bags

Something new and attractive in the world of bags is a balloon-shaped affair, with a flat strap handle of silver, or one of links. Tiny silver tassels make these bags even more charming. Some have pretty jeweled catches.

Silver plated with soldered mesh, $14 to $34.

(Jewelry Store, Thirteenth and Chestnut)

When Is a Blouse Not a Blouse?

When it is one of these fascinating new Autumn over-blouses, one might say. They are little costumes in themselves. The simplest of them is designed to transform a sober suit skirt into a pretty dress.

No longer do they pause at the waistline, but continue straight on down to the hips and below. They disport the exaggerated sleeve, the sleeve slashed open from shoulder to wrist, the sleeve with long pendant draperies, the demure bishop sleeve—every modish arm-covering whim, and every new collar conceit.

The soft, crepe silks are best suited to these blouses that go often under coats—crepe-back satin, Georgette, crepe meteeur, crepe de chine, Canton crepe—in every degree of simplicity or elaboration.

As to color, it is merely a matter of personal choice!

(Third Floor, Central)

A New Black Patent Leather Slipper at $10

Black patent leather in a smart stamped model, with open-work strap, medium toe, turned sole and low French heel.

The same slipper in nut brown calfskin at the same price—$10.

(First Floor, Market)

Schoolgirls' "Regulation" Dresses in Novel Effects

Some are all blue serge from neck to hem. Others have skirts of blue serge pleated to an underbody, topped by cuffed-in middie blouses of vivid red or green or brown flannel or jersey.

All-blue serge regulation dresses in middie-blouse model are $10 to $27.50.

Regulation dresses with skirt of serge and middie of colored flannel are $13.50 and $17.50. With middie of colored knitted jersey, $21.50.

Cotton middie blouses in white or blue, with braided collar and cuffs and embroidered chevron, $1.75 to $3.75.

Middie skirts of pleated blue serge, $2.75 to $7.50.

Sizes 6 to 14 in all.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

A New American Lady Corset Features the "Pli-o-Top"

It is so named because the top of the front steel is very pliable, and is in fact made separate from the elastic band which runs around the top. This model has a long skirt and is moderately boned. Price $5.

Other new American Lady corsets are the following:

Topless model of brocade has elastic band almost all the way around top, $5.

Topless model of brocade is lightly boned and has a moderately long skirt. A very popular corset. $4.50.

Pink coutil model with long skirt is for tall figures. $3.50.

Model for medium figures has low bust and is long below waist. Light boned but not heavy. $3.50.

Light-weight model with low bust and long skirt is lightly boned. $2.50.

Lightly boned model with long skirt has low top with slightly higher back, a piece being set in at waistline. $2.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

Women Who Wish Beautiful Silk Crepe Gowns Will Be Interested in This—150 Priced at $48.50

They are gowns that we usually sell for from $9 to $30 more. An unusual purchase opportunity brought some. Their duplicates we took from our freshly filled cases and marked to match, so that all of a kind might wear the one price of $48.50.

Their exceptional quality is in the exquisite lines and perfect making; and in the richness of the materials—Canton crepes and crepes de chine of unusually rich, heavy texture, and a few handsomely braided Georgette crepes.

They are all-black or rich dark blue.

The seven distinct models include both chemise dresses, exquisite in their straight-line simplicity, and gowns blousing over low girdles.

We commend them to women seeking black or navy blue gowns of rich distinction at a moderate price.

'Tis Well to Stop, Look and Listen in the Phonograph Store

if your home lacks facilities for producing excellent music to brighten long, housed-in evenings of the coming Winter.

Prophets say it will be a hard Winter, but for home entertainment it will be an easy one, PROVIDED—the phonograph!

Four famous makes, none finer, are assembled here in great selection of both plain and period designs: Victrola, Brunswick, Sonora and Cheney. All sold on convenient terms.

(Second Floor, Central)

Last of the Knitted Capes at $5

Boardwalk and evening capes of pastel colored knitted wools. Also some knitted bathing capes in colors to match the bathing suits. Take any of them now at $5—a fraction of season prices.

(First Floor, Central)

Beaded and Embroidered Georgettes, $6.75

This a special price on a little assortment of very pretty flouncings. A few pieces show the favored eyelet embroidery.

The colors will be excellent for Fall frocks. 40 inches wide.

(Main Floor, Central)

Brocaded Breakfast Coats at $3.85

Brocaded corduroy in cherry red, old rose or a pretty blue. Long enough for negligees. Made in flare-skirt effect, with pockets and tie sash. Wonderful for $3.85.

Silk breakfast coats in rose, blue and pink, in dainty corded model, with collar, pockets and tie sash, $13.50.

(Third Floor, Central)

Crepe de Chine Gowns to Sleep In

"Nightgowns" scarcely describe such pretty slumber-ropes. They are made of extra-heavy crepe de chine in pale blue or flesh pink, in simple untrammelled styles with only a rosebud for decoration, or inset with lace and finished with satin bows. Priced $5, $5.50 and $6.85.

Envelope chemises to match the plain "tailored" gowns are $3.75.

(Third Floor, Central)

Many Frocks in Mode Demand Guimpes

New net guimpes, with square necks or Peter Pan effects, are lace trimmed. The short sleeves are made on kimono lines.

They are specially priced at $2.50.

(Main Floor, Central)

Men's New High Shoes at the Modest Price of $8

These are black and tan calfskin blucher shoes with full, round toes, wide shanks and low heels.

They are perfectly plain, with straight tips. Unusually good-looking shoes for the price and very comfortable.

(Main Floor, Market)

Men's English Flannel Bath Robes $12 Because They Are Soiled

If perfectly fresh, they would be half as much again, and a dip in the tub will make them fresh and clean.

Made in our own workrooms of English striped flannel, and one of the most desirable of bath robes.

About 100 to be disposed of.

(Main Floor, Market)

New Fiction Mademoiselle of Monte Carlo,

by William Le Queux. Price, $1.75. This latest novel of a master of mystery is of fascinating but dangerous characters.

"Broken to the Plow," by Charles Caldwell Dobie. Price, $2. A powerful story of the rise of an underdog.

"Leonie of the Jungle," by Joan Conquest. Price, $1.75. A novel of Oriental atmosphere, dealing in love and tragedy, but abounding in humor.

(Main Floor, Thirteenth)

Beautiful New Oriental Rugs at Greatly Lowered Prices

(The Chinese Rugs Are Back to Pre-War Figures)

We have just unbaled a lot of fine Oriental rugs, the prices on which will remind you of old times.

So this is an answer to the question asked almost every day, "When are Oriental rugs coming down?"

In this shipment are Chinese rugs, Persian Mahal, Sarouk and Mossoul rugs and Beluchistan rugs. There is also a little lot of Kazak rugs which are not new, but are unusual value.

The Persian rugs are beautiful examples of their respective weaves, rich in coloring and intriguing in design. They are lower in price than such pieces have been for some time.

The Chinese rugs are chiefly in the blue and ecru combinations favored in this type of rug and their prices are about what they were before the war—in some cases even low for that period.

If you want a new Oriental rug or two for the Winter home soon to be reoccupied, you should not miss seeing these.

Distinguished English Dressing Cases for Men

One naturally thinks of English leather articles as distinguished. They are in reality the height of excellence, and express the finest craftsmanship.

These cases are made of natural color pigskin and are beautifully lined with brown suede. The fittings, which are all of the highest grade, are of real ivory, ebony-and-silver, ivory-and-silver and silver. The brushes are exceptionally good.

Prices are $50 to $250.

(Main Floor, Chestnut)

Artificial Silk Socks at 50c and $1

These men's half hose look and wear like real silk, but cost much less.

50c a pair for drop-stitch rib artificial silk socks in black, cordovan and suede.

$1 a pair for full-fashioned artificial silk socks with hand-embroidered clocks of real silk in effective two-color combinations.

Trunks in the September Sale of Housewares

It has been difficult to combine strength and lightness in trunks. In the Housefurnishing Sale there are steamer size, three-quarter size and full-size wardrobe trunks that weigh less than ordinary wardrobe trunks and are fully equipped with hangers and drawers.

Then there are dress trunks and steamer-size trunks—all at lessened prices. Just the trunks for "going away" to school and for traveling, too.
