

ATLANTIC CITY'S GREAT FETE today and tomorrow is being graced by pretty girls, handsome floats, parades, races and costume events. Prominent among those in gala attire are the members of the Ambassador Swimming Club, whose bathing suits, it must be admitted, more nearly resemble dresses for a fancy dress ball than suits for salt water. Miss Nellie Orr (right) is Miss Philadelphia at the carnival. She was snapped as she arrived. L. P. S.

WALTER GREENAWALT, Penn football candidate, engaging in hard practice at Cape May. L. P. S.

SOME OF THE CHARMING GIRLS at the La Grange Vacation Home, at Glenside, Pa. They are winding up their annual two weeks' holiday at the establishment maintained under the patronage of Miss Rosina Fels, for the benefit of young business women. L. P. S.

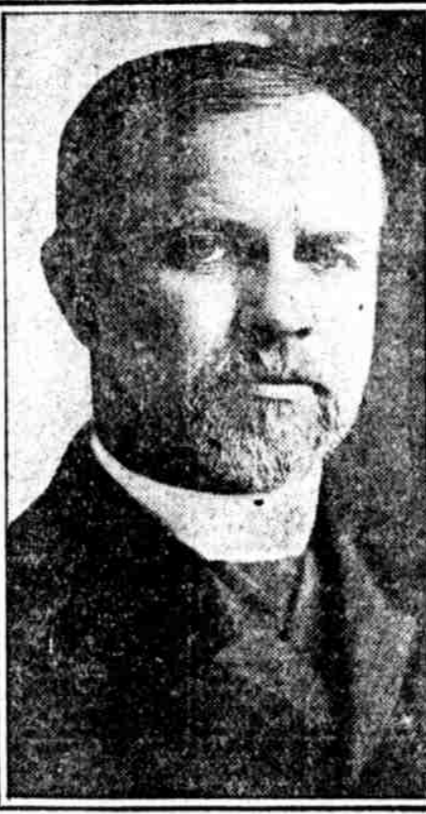

A TOY BALLOON FOR BABY. Even when visitors as young as this go to the Philadelphia County Fair, at Byberry, they find their wants well provided for. L. P. S.

THIS IS BETSY ROSS. She is finishing the first American flag as she sits on one of the floats that made brilliant the parade last night of the Independent Order of Americans along Broad street. Ledger Photo Service

LAFAYETTE WAS present in spirit yesterday afternoon when the Washington-Lafayette flag was raised over Independence Hall at the same hour a similar flag was raised in Paris. L. P. S.

THE OLDEST MEMBER. John J. Barnes, seventy-nine years old, of the Independent Order of Americans. He is shown standing with Mrs. McKay at the Hotel Walton. L. P. S.

LUCKY, PLUCKY LADS. These Boy Scouts will accompany Shackleton to the Antarctic. Patrol Leader Marr, 18, of Scotland (right); Norman Mooney, 17, of the Orkneys. L. P. S.

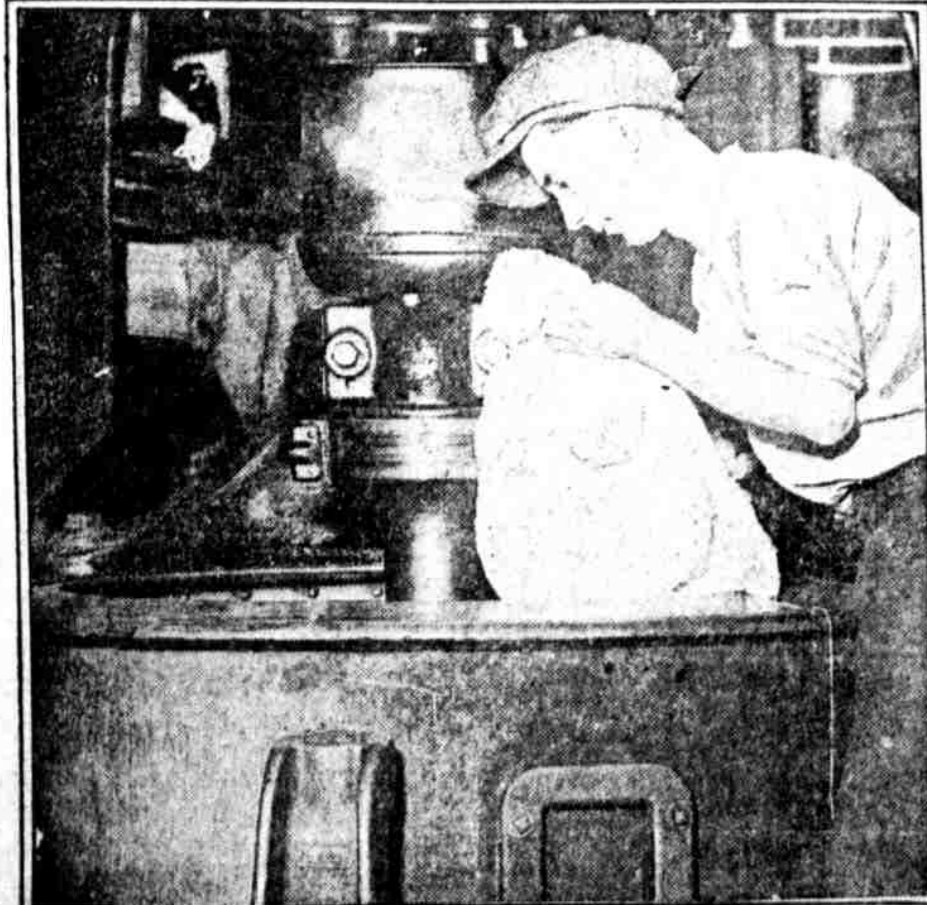

A BOLSHEVIK BEAUTY is here seen buying a straw hat at the Sukhorevka market, in Moscow, where trade along capitalistic lines is permitted by the Red authorities. The hat cost 50,000 rubles. K. & H.

REV. DR. FRANK P. PARKIN talks on work of the American Bible Society on Editorial Page. L. P. S.

QUEEN ANNIE STANLEY, the deposed ruler of 75,000 American gypsies. She now lives at Stickney, Ill. L. P. S.

A SOUVENIR CAT, brought from England by Miss Cherrie Guild, of Boston. With her on the Carmania is Miss Helen McCrae, of Philadelphia. L. P. S.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

HIZZING OUT THE MOISTURE at the Oxford Dye Works, 1410 East Ford street. Oliver Kerr, of 1357 East Palmer street, handles 6000 pounds of dye a day in this machine, which operates by centrifugal force. L. P. S.

"KEEP YOUR EYE on the ball, Higgins." Yes, this is F. J. Higgins. L. P. S.

THE MONMOUTH CLUB OF GLOUCESTER CITY owes much of its success among New Jersey baseball teams to Manager L. Powell and to Captain J. Augherson, also a star player of this Jersey nine. L. P. S.

BEN C. SNYDER, president of Keystone Branch No. 157, National Association of Letter Carriers, official carrier of Postoffice Building. L. P. S.

MISS EMMA GREAVES is showing what can be done in the furniture decoration line at Case College, Flourtown. Ledger Photo Service

MAIL!