One of the most interesting features of the show is the cafeteria, just outside the clubhouse. This has been such a success for the last two years that they have decided to have it again this year. The committee in charge will be under the supervision of Mrs. George Thayer, Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mrs. Henry C. ess for the last two years that they Mrs. Alexander Blown, Arts. Henry C. Earnshaw, Mrs. George B. Evans and Mrs. Arthur Billings. A new and attractive feature will be

SAW Mrs. Jack Thayer the other day on Chestnut street, looking very well indeed. She was wearing a dark blue crepe de chine frock made on long lines and held in at the waist with a lines and held in at the waist with a gray ribbon. Her hat, which was close. fitting, was also dark blue, and trimmed with pale gray. Mrs. Thayer was Lois Cassatt, you remember, before her marriage. She has two attractive boys, and I understand has been spending the summer at Jamestown. Colonel Cassatt, Mrs. Thayer's father, has always taken great interest in horse shows and
