

TOKIO MAKES FINAL SHANTUNG OFFER

Asks China to Negotiate for Restoration, Planning Conciliatory Terms

WOULD WITHDRAW TROOPS

By the Associated Press
Tokio, Sept. 9.—Japanese diplomacy now is being vigorously devoted to the securing of a settlement of three outstanding problems before the opening of the Washington conference on Far Eastern questions and the limitation of armaments, namely, those of the Island of Yap, Shantung and Siberia. According to information received in Tokio, the main lines of a solution of the Yap problem seem to have been agreed upon in Washington, but latest details concerning the rights of the various Powers on the island itself have yet to be worked out. It is understood Yukichi Obata, Japanese Minister to Peking, has received explicit instructions concerning a renewed attempt to induce China to open negotiations regarding Shantung. The Kokumin Shinbun today interprets Japan's last move as a kind of ultimatum to China, being in the nature of a final opportunity for China to inaugurate direct negotiations. If China refuses, the newspaper thinks, Japan will stick to her fundamental ideas of settlement if the question is brought up in Washington. Officials here describe the Japanese plans for restoration of Shantung as conciliatory. They point out that Japan waives any request for international or exclusively Japanese settlement, being content to make Tsingtao an open port, but insisting on joint management of the railroad, mining and other economic enterprises hitherto directed by Germany. Under the Japanese plan, China would regain full sovereignty over Shantung, the Japanese troops being completely withdrawn. The negotiations with the representatives of the Far Eastern Republic of Siberia at Dairen concerning Siberia are being pushed actively. Japan apparently seeking an economic and commercial treaty with the Far Eastern republic, so that she can go to the Washington conference with an accomplished fact.

WIFE'S PLUCK SAVES $6000

Opens Safe for Robber Who Holds Pistol at Her Head
Windsor, Ont., Sept. 9.—(By A. P.)—George Allen is $6000 richer today because Mrs. Allen had the nerve to perform a feat of legdemeanor with a bandit's pistol pressed against her head. Kneeling before a safe in her home at the robber's command, with a pistol at her head, Mrs. Allen opened the safe and swept $6000 into her lap. Then she handed the robber $900 with which he escaped in an automobile.
