

Door Wide Open for Irish Peace

Lloyd George's offer cannot be finally refused and was renewed without a conference.

LOYD GEORGE REPLY TO DE VALERA'S NOTE

London, Sept. 9.—(By A. P.)—The text of Prime Minister Lloyd George's reply to Eamon de Valera's last note follows:
"His Majesty's Government have considered your letter of August 30 and have to make the following observations upon it:
"The principle of government by the consent of the governed is the foundation of the British constitutional development, which we cannot accept as a basis of a practical conference on interpretation of that principle which would commit us to any demands which might present, even to the extent of setting up a republic and repudiating the crown.

"You must be aware that a conference on such a basis is impossible. No applied, the principle of government by consent of the governed would undermine the fabric of every democratic State and drive the civilized world back into tribalism.

"On the other hand, we have invited you to discuss our proposals on their merits in order that you may have no doubt as to the scope and sincerity of our intentions.

"It would be open to you in such a conference to raise the subject of guarantees on any points in which you may consider Irish freedom prejudiced by these proposals. His Majesty's Government are loath to believe that you will insist upon rejection of their proposals without examining them in a conference.

"To decline to discuss a settlement which would bestow upon the Irish people the fullest freedom for national development within the empire can only mean that you repudiate all allegiance to the crown and all membership in the British Commonwealth.

"We were to draw this inference from your letter, then further discussions between us could serve no useful purpose, and all conferences would be in vain. If, however, we are mistaken in this inference, we still hope, and if your real objection to our proposals is that they offer Ireland less than the liberty we have described, that objection can be explored at a conference.

"You will agree that this correspondence has lasted long enough. His Majesty's Government must, therefore, ask for a definite reply as to whether you are prepared to enter a conference to ascertain how the association of Ireland with the community of nations known as the British Empire can best be reconciled with Irish national aspirations.

"If, as we hope, your answer is in the affirmative, I suggest that the conference should meet at Inverness on the 20th instant."

secret for more than two months. At last, a special meeting was held, at which guidance on the subject was given.

"Towards the end of the meeting," said Mr. Hamford, "the Spirit, speaking through Mrs. Endicott, said: 'My son, give out the message that I have given to you for the edification of My Church.'
"The prophecy was thereupon printed, and copies were distributed at street corners and left in railway waiting rooms and other public places. The leaflets, however, contained words of comfort:
"'This prophecy should not bring consternation to any true believer. * * * It would be open to you in such a conference to raise the subject of guarantees on any points in which you may consider Irish freedom prejudiced by these proposals. His Majesty's Government are loath to believe that you will insist upon rejection of their proposals without examining them in a conference.

with stammering lips and in other tongues will I speak to the people."
His first act of actual prophecy, he continued, occurred in February of this year. It concerned, he declared, an important matter which eventually came to pass as he had foreseen. All of the prophecies which he afterward made had been fulfilled, he said.

City Is "Doomed"; "Saints" All Ready

At the prayer meeting which followed the interview with Carr, nearly all of the "saints" went into similar raptures. They began to mutter words, none of which could be distinguished except the "Amen's." They raised their voices until soon all were shouting. This babel continued for about a half hour and suddenly ceased. Down the street somewhere a churchbell was tolling. The silence continued awhile and then a woman said, very softly:
"'Have mercy on Thy people.'
"The 'saints' arose and embraced, giving each to each the kiss of peace.

"The 'saints' arose and embraced, giving each to each the kiss of peace.
"Tonight a mammoth procession, bearing 100,000 Japanese lanterns, serenaded Prince Hirohito's palace. He again addressed the multitude, emphasizing the urgency of establishing world peace, and alluding to the necessity of doing everything possible to contribute to the success of the forthcoming Washington conference on limitation of armaments.

TOKIO GREET'S PRINCE
Thousands Roar Cheers to Heir Apparent on His Return
Tokio, Sept. 9.—(By A. P.)—Tokio's 2,500,000 people today gave a characteristic expression of Japanese loyalty to Crown Prince Hirohito, the heir apparent, whose recent successful tour of the Occident has appealed to popular imagination.

Major Goto gave a popular reception in honor of the Crown Prince, who the people now regard as the real head of the empire, owing to the illness of the Emperor. Thousands roared cheers of greetings as the Crown Prince, with his democratic bearing and easy oratorical manner, addressed the multitude, voicing his satisfaction over the efforts at mutual improvement in keeping with Tokio's place among the world's great cities.

"I will do what I will in my own time. Vengeance is mine, saith the Lord. I will repay—repay."

DETECTIVE CAREER ENDED
Harry Groff Spills Revolver and Same Explodes
Harry Groff, of Ueber street near Fairmount avenue, might have been a successful private detective if in pulling his handkerchief from his pocket at Ridge avenue and Jefferson street yesterday he had not caused his revolver to fall to the sidewalk and explode.

Groff, a Negro, would no doubt have made good in his own way but for the accident. The bullet whizzed by Groff's shins, missed several school children, and struck a brick wall.

Patrolman Carter, of the Nineteenth and Oxford streets station, heard the shot and saw Groff run through an alley.

Send Your Child Back to School in Famous "SHOOR-TRED" Shoes
For Foot Health—for Economy and For Insurance Against Distortion

You cannot expect your child to be an efficient scholar if his or her feet are imprisoned in shapeless, uncomfortable shoes. "Shoor-Treds" are especially built to care for growing feet, strengthening them and correcting slight distortions through exercise. And service—their uppers are especially tanned to prevent scuffing—and their soles give double wear. "Shoor-Treds" are outgrown in the majority of cases—not outworn. Fall prices as follows:—

- Sizes 6 to 8—Children's ..... $4.25
Sizes 8 1/2 to 11—Children's ..... 4.75
Sizes 11 1/2 to 2—Misses' ..... 5.50
Sizes 11 to 2—Boys' ..... 5.00
Sizes 2 1/2 to 6—Big Boys' ..... 5.50
Sizes 2 1/2 to 7—Young Girls' ..... 6.75

The Geuting "Shoor-Tred" is also carried out in foot-wear for dress, dancing and gymnasium—even in our famous "Foot-lite" Ballet Slippers.
