

TWO PEARLS IN A SHELL: They are Miss M. C. Hagan, of the Ventnor Fire Company, and little Betty Leeds. No wonder the Atlantic City pageant was a success when this sort of thing was included in the rolling-chair parade. Ledger Photo Service

AND HERE'S ANOTHER ONE with a great big white dog. Note the pleased expression on the face of the dog. Tommy Ford, Jr., in his little lifeboat, was not pulling any bluff, so to speak, for he rows the boat out in the ocean just like a real grown-up life guard. He swings a powerful oar, and shoves off whenever he succeeds in evading the parental eye. Ledger Photo Service

A NEW MOVIE CAMERA that hooks over the operator's shoulders and lies against his chest. K. & U.

THIS IS A MERMAID. Any one who had never seen one of these strange and fascinating creatures had the opportunity yesterday, when a seashell garlanded with flowers was rolled along with the captive mermaid inside. Ledger Photo Service

THESE THREE MONKS, straight from dear old Borneo, gave the humans a careful looking over when they arrived in port recently and have since appeared very, very dejected. They only brighten up at mealtime.

MY POLO PLAYERS in practice at the Bryn Mawr Club in preparation for the big matches at the Philadelphia Country Club, which begin tomorrow at Eala. Ledger Photo Service

DUM AND DEE, the well-known Tweedle brothers. These gentlemen live at the Zoological Garden. When caught by the camera man they were buried in thought. Ledger Photo Service

MAJ. GEO. W. EVANS, in Interior Dept., Washington, since Lincoln's time. U. & U.

RASPUTIN'S SLAYER, the Russian Prince Youssouff, who is reported captured by the Bolsheviks. U. & U.

MISS EMMA RAUSCH with prize hen at Atlantic County Agricultural Fair, Egg Harbor, N. J. L. P. S.

JACK AND VIRGINIA EBELL and the prize pumpkin from the County Farm, at the Atlantic County Agricultural Fair. Shows how pumpkins grow in Jersey. Ledger Photo Service

HELEN McCONNELL with a pet goat at the Atlantic County Fair at Egg Harbor, N. J. Ledger Photo Service

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

HOW SILVERWARE IS CHASED by Chris Heck, of 2413 West Thompson street, at the plant of Louis J. Meyer, Inc., silver platers, at 804-6 Walnut street. This is work of the delicate nature. Ledger Photo Service

PRINTING NAME on immigrant latest wrinkle suggested by foreign authorities as a way to end passport frauds, which have grown to large proportions. U. & U.

ED L. PATTON, just ready to bang one, looked up when he heard camera click. L. P. S.

JAMES MEADE, 2402 Oxford street, 31 years in service. Route: Third to Seventh, Vine to Callowhill street. Ledger Photo Service

"THREE LITTLE MAIDS FROM SCHOOL ARE WE" Annie Washmead, Dorothy Fisher and Reba Konetzky are on their way home from the Horace Binney School. L. P. S.

MAIL!