

TEMPLE BELLS ARE TINKLING where this little lady came from. She is Miss Clara Kosha, daughter of the Siamese Minister to Rome. R. V.

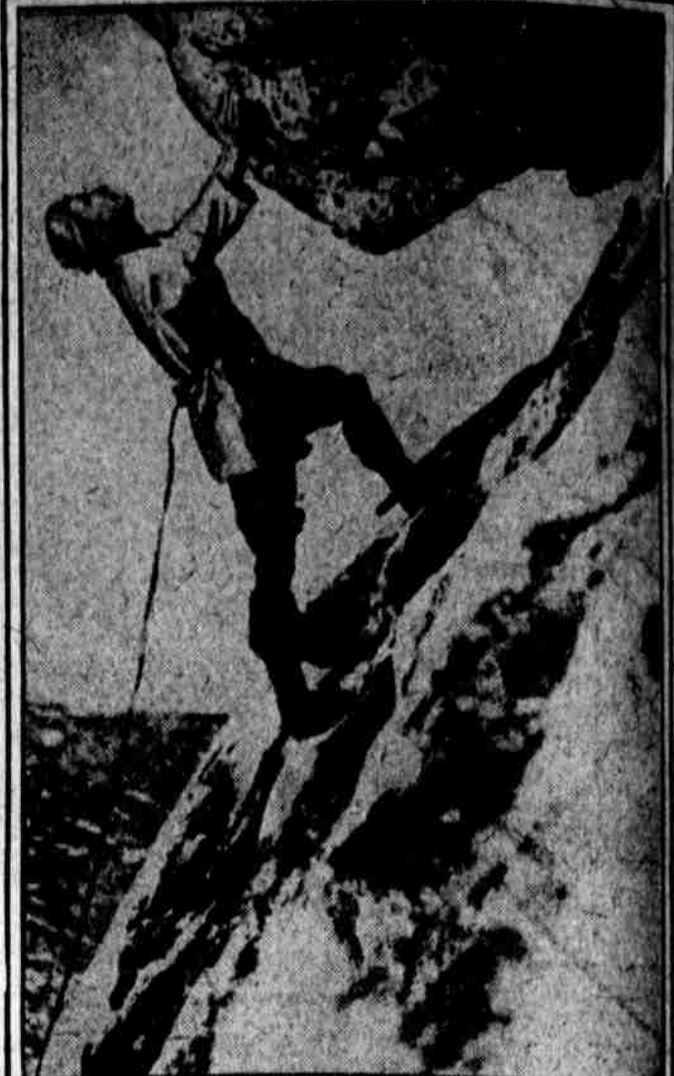

LOTS TO TALK ABOUT BESIDE TENNIS. The lulls in the championship contests gave opportunity for many a chat. Mrs. H. F. Abbott is on the left; then Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Joseph J. Chapman and Mrs. Arthur Lowery. Ledger Photo Service

WM. POOLE, of 57 North 59th street, Philadelphia, rode to Washington in 18 hours. H. & E.

THIS DEAR OLD LADY is the widow of General John A. Logan, of Civil War fame. She is 83 years old. Underwood & Underwood

"HOLD ON, BILL." Being tied to the men below him will not help this lad much if he starts to slide down the Alpine peak. Wide World

WHATEVER IT WAS, it must have been funny. Miss Sara Bailey and Miss Dorothy Frowert, two Philadelphia girls, at the tennis matches. L. P. S.

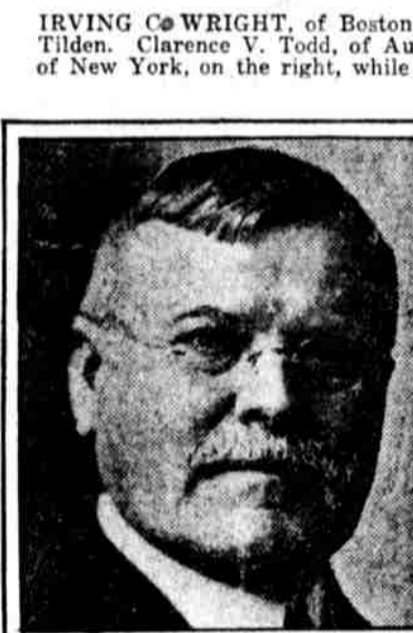

HERE IS OUR OWN BILL. This shows Tilden just about to drive a hot one across to Wright as he opened the first national lawn tennis championship to be played in this city at Manheim. Ledger Photo Service

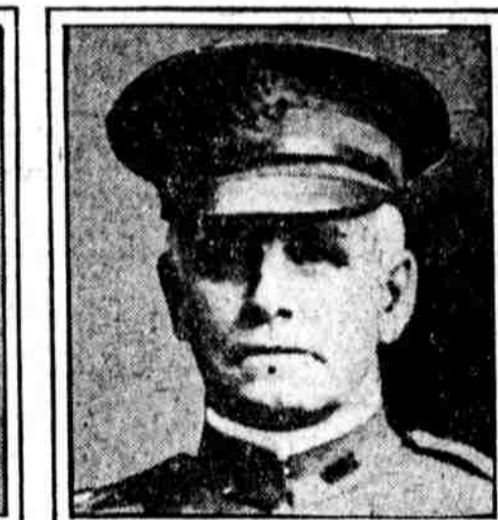

TWO CHARMING GIRLS who were on hand for the big tennis matches. They are Miss Elizabeth Wayne and Miss Louisa Dixon, both of Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service

A BOTTLE OF POP for Miss Deborah Seal during the tennis matches. Miss Seal watched the games with the eye of an expert. Ledger Photo Service

IRVING COWRIGHT, of Boston, at top speed in his match with William T. Tilden. Clarence V. Todd, of Australia, is talking with George S. Grosbeck, of New York, on the right, while awaiting his turn. Ledger Photo Service

MAJ. GEN. HANSON E. ELY arrives to greet Fifth Division buddies at big reunion being held here. L. P. S.

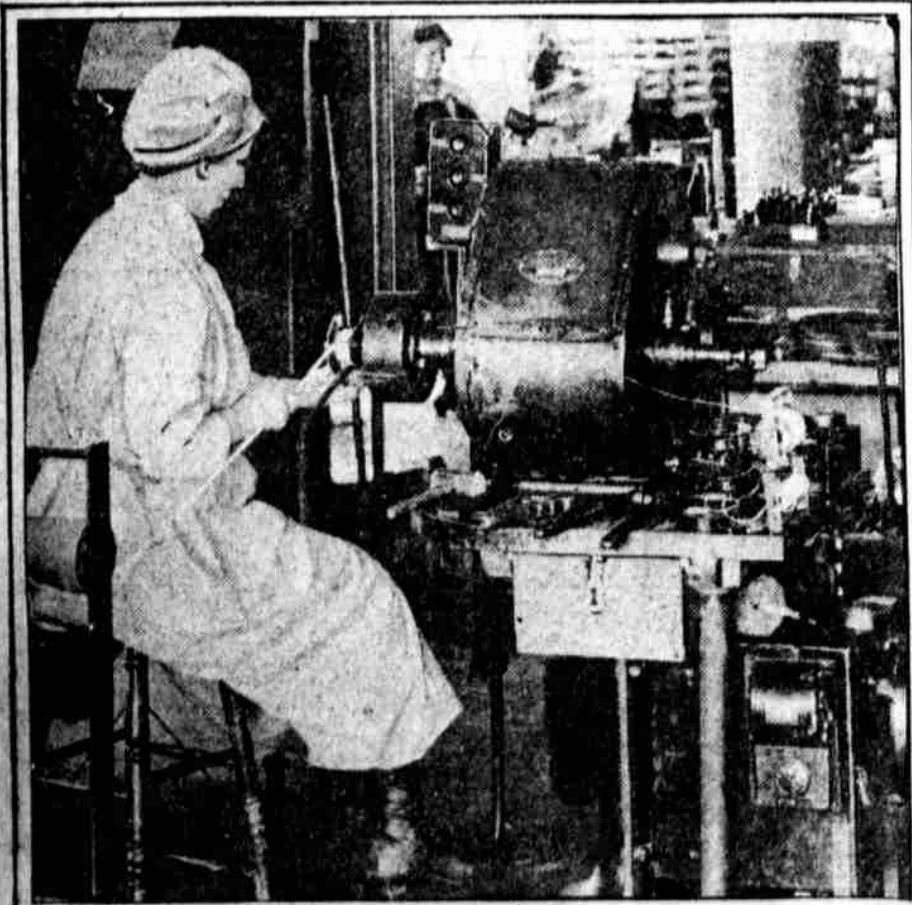

BUDDIES AT FIFTH DIVISION REUNION being entertained by committees headed by the following: Standing, left, John S. Andereg, then John F. Bacon, Frank G. Foltz, Peter P. Zion. Sitting, L. M. D. Mitchell, J. L. Burke, C. B. Higgins. L. P. S.

THIS POWER LAWN MOWER crops the grass and rolls the sod on the tennis courts at the Germantown Cricket Club almost as close as a carpet. Ledger Photo Service

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

COPPER WIRE FOR CIRCUIT-BREAKER COILS is being wound by Miss Kathryn Hebbler at the Philadelphia works of the General Electric Company. By means of this equipment very heavy wire can be wound by women.

WHITE WINGS made a great hit at the Germantown Cricket Club when they marched on the courts with their immaculate coats, hats and shoes, bearing aloft the quaint brooms with which they swept the grass. Ledger Photo Service

MAIL!

GEORGE TATE, 225 North Robinson street, eighteen years in service. Route: Walnut street, Broad to 15th street. Ledger Photo Service

"THE CHINESE HAVE THE RIGHT IDEA" say these three San Francisco girls. So they are wearing Oriental costumes to cut the high cost of dressing. A street dress costs $10, a work dress $5. E. & H.