SCOT CLERGYMEN TO PREACH HERE

Four Delegates to Presbyterian Conference to Occupy Local Pulpits

ALL ARE NOTED SPEAKERS

Four celebrated ministers from Scotland, delegates to the Pan-Presbyterian Alliance, to be held in Pittsburgh, have arrived in Philadelphia.

The Rev. Dr. John A. Hutton, pastor of Bethanien Church, Glasgow; the Rev. Dr. Oliver Russell, pastor of the United Free Church, Paisley; the Rev. Dr. Robert J. Drummond, pastor of Lathian Road United Free Church, Edinburgh; and the Rev. Dr. William Swan, pastor of South Leith Parish Church, Edinburgh, comprise the delegation. One member of the delegation, Dr. Hutton, is well known to Philadelphians. For several summers he has been a speaker at the Northfield conferences.

Dr. Swan is convener of the Temperance Committee of the Church of Scotland and while in this country will study the operation of the liquor laws. Philadelphia congregations will have an opportunity to hear the visitors preach tomorrow. Dr. Hutton will preach at the 11 o'clock service at the Second Presbyterian Church. Dr. Drummond at the Walnut streets. Dr. Swan will preach morning and evening at the Wayne Presbyterian Church and Dr. Russell will preach at Trinity and St. James' Church, Fifteenth and Locust streets.

DR. GERNAND NEW RECTOR

Returns to Diocese to Take Charge of Brantchtown Parish

The Rev. Dr. Howard W. Gernand has assumed the rectorship of the Protestant Episcopal House of Prayer, Brantchtown, Dr. Gernand succeeds the Rev. Henry G. G. Vincent, who was killed in an automobile accident last May.

Dr. Gernand is a Philadelphian and returns to the Diocese of Pennsylvania from the Diocese of Newark. He is a graduate of the Northeast High School and was in the banking business when he decided to study for the ministry, graduating from Drew Theological Seminary and Temple University, where he received the degree of bachelor of divinity.

Dr. Gernand subsequently took post graduate courses at Trinity College, University of Toronto and the Episcopal Divinity School, this city. He was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Rhinelander in 1921. Before going to Newark, N. J., Dr. Gernand was curate at St. Simon's Church, Ninth street and Lehigh avenue, and Christ Church, Germantown, and minister-in-charge at St. James' Church, Langhorne, and St. James', Moore, Pa.

Autumn Is Bringing Fresh New Merchandise at the Lowest Prices in Several Years—Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store

Women's Fully Lined Coats Are Ready for Wearing $23.50

Women who have their own furs will be interested in these coats of navy and dark twilight blue coating. The backs hang straight, growing wider toward the hem and have silk stitching, buttons and silk tassels for trimming. The coats have circular collars and interesting cuffs and pockets.

Another very smart model, lined with silk, is $30.

Soft Velour With Fur at $25

A good-looking model is of dark twilight blue or navy, with a generous collar of beaver-sheared-and-dyed coney. The loose back ripples and the coat is fully lined with plain-color peau de cygne.

Sports Coats of Camel's Hair at $47.50

Coats that can be worn anywhere, any time—that is what these are. They are in the new chow shade, a warm soft brown, as well as their own natural creamy tan.

Between $35 and $55

there is excellent selection among coats with or without fur. Materials are particularly soft and colors rich. The coats are all harmoniously lined and fur is generously used. A great deal of fur will be seen on the Winter coats and most of these show it.

(Market)

Linen Luncheon Sets, $2.50 and $3

Half last year's price for these good-looking sets of pure linen. White ones scalloped with white are $2.50. Sets of natural crash, scalloped with white, or Copenhagen blue and white linen, embroidered with white or blue, are $3. Each set includes six plate doilies, six tumbler doilies and one large centerpiece.

(Central)

Newest Veils Run to Points, Balls and Ruffles

They're the gayest, most piquant affairs you can imagine. Some are in squares, some in ovals or circles and they are to be worn draped over small hats. Wonderfully becoming.

In black, brown, navy, taupe and cherry at $2.25 to $4.50.

Special at $1 and $1.50

Charming squares of black lace or of octagon mesh with a scroll or chenille dotted border, the latter in tan, Copenhagen, taupe, brown or black.

(Central)

Sweaters for Little Girls Are $2.50 and $3

Cozy knitted wool sweaters, will fit little girls of 2 to 6 years. Some are slip-over style and others are coat sweaters. You may choose tan, Copenhagen and buff.

(Central)

Messaline, $1.65

35-inch messaline is in the lovely shades of old rose, Nile, lavender, light blue, Copenhagen, taupe, seal brown, Belgian and navy.

Black Messaline

of excellent quality is 35 inches wide at $1.50 and $1.65 a yard.

Drop-Stitch Tricolette

is 36 inches wide, in navy, black, silver, flesh, old rose and white.

Wash Satin at $1.75

35-inch wash satin, for pretty underclothes, is in white, flesh and pink.

Pretty Ribbons

45c for 5-inch ribbon of pink, blue or white satin with contrasting stripes and borders.

65c for 6 1/4-inch ribbon of taffeta or satin, in pink, blue or white, in basket-weave effect.

(Central)

Black Appears Among the Russet Tones of Autumn in the More Exclusive Hats

Black hats are smartly severe of line and as distinctive and becoming as only black hats can be. By contrast the hats in the delightful russets, golden browns, rich red tones and flaming orange are deeper, softer, more luxurious than ever in the beautiful velvets and duvetyns. Purples, too, are seen and blues seemingly lovelier than ever before.

Quill feathers are used daringly in the form of arrows on several exceptionally smart hats. Some of the velvet hats form their own bows in a jaunty manner, while others use softer, fuller, bow-like affairs of ribbon.

It is the becomingness, the wearableness of the hats in the Down Stairs Millinery Store that mark this Autumn season.

Interesting choosing around $10.

New Velour Portieres for More Artistic Homes $14 a Pair

Have you ever been in a hurry and pushed aside the wide, heavy portieres in the doorway and wondered why decorators invented them?

You will be pleased, then, with these new and narrower portieres for their convenience, and even more so for their decorative value.

The velour is a beautiful quality, soft and deep, and the portieres are 23 inches wide. They are exceptionally well made and have open-edge French sides.

There is about every imaginable combination of contrasting colors from which to choose: black and orange, blue and rose, tan and blue and so on. If we have not the exact combination that you want we shall be glad to have special combinations made up and delivered within a few days.

Wider Portieres

34-inch portieres of the same velour are $19 a pair. Full-width portieres, commonly called 50-inch, but really a little over 48 inches when made up, are $23.75 a pair.
